

NEWS FROM ALL OVER COOS COUNTY

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-By-the-Sea Taken From The Recorder.

Dr. Hollopeter of Portland, was in Bandon a few days last week visiting his son, C. E. Hollopeter. This is Dr. Hollopeter's first visit to Bandon and he is very favorably impressed with the town and surrounding country.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Anselmo are the proud parents of a fine eleven-pound girl, born Monday, October 11.

Superintendent H. C. Ostlen of the Bandon public schools, has been under the weather for a day or two as a result of poison oak.

C. B. Zeek, commander of the local Post of G. A. R., informs us that a new camp of Sons of Veterans will be organized in Bandon next Saturday evening, September 16th.

Joseph Torreaano, who has been the trap drummer for the band and the Seaside Orchestra, will leave on the Elizabeth for McGill, Nev., where he has accepted a position with the band and orchestra of that place.

Mrs. Ada Simpson and Miss Marcia Beaty will leave on the Elizabeth for San Francisco, after having spent a pleasant vacation with Mrs. Simpson's mother, Mrs. Costello.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Valley From The Enterprise.

The road from the creamery to the bridge, which was graded and rocked several years ago by popular subscription, is now being gravelled by the county under the supervision of Road Master Weekly.

W. R. Foote has leased his Norway ranch for a year to Wm. Shultz, and Mr. Foote and his family left Wednesday morning on trip to their old home in Louisiana, where they expect to make an extended visit.

Fin. Mast of this city emphatically denies that he was the Finley Mast who was married at Bandon last week, Miss Ella Rice being the bride. He might envy the other gentleman with his name but declares he is not the one.

Rev. G. W. Taylor lately from the state of Washington, has arrived in Myrtle Point with his family to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Myrtle Point. He will preach next Sunday.

G. H. Dunning, recently agent for the railroad company at this place, has accepted a position with F. S. Dow at Marshfield.

Tuesday noon a blast that was set off in the bank across the tracks near the bridge threw a wagon load or two of dirt and stones onto the house of City Marshal Brown, the windows of which were broken and other damage done. Those responsible for the blast offered to make reparation for the damage done and the matter was amicably settled.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

County Seat Events As Told By The Herald.

J. R. McGee, who recently leased the Rouse coal mine at Riverton, had business which called him to town Wednesday. He is getting along very well with the mine, having already completed 250 feet of tunnel in order to tap the vein at a lower level.

L. A. Lee of Riverton, who has been spending a considerable time mining in Alaska, passed through this city on Thursday on his way north for another season. He has what he considers a very valuable claim 100 miles from Valdes. He went out by way of Cottage Grove at which point Mrs. Lee will remain during his absence. He was accompanied to the Bay by his mother, Mrs. J. F. Lee of Riverton.

J. W. Brewer, a son of P. H. Brewer of Fishtrap, arrived here last week from his home in Guatemala, where he has spent the past sixteen years. He has a little daughter with him who speaks only Spanish, that being the prevailing language of that section. He is enjoying a visit with his father very much.

Ed. Rackleff, the merchant of Langlois, passed through town Sunday on his way to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rackleff, of Myrtle Point, the latter of whom has been in ill health for a short time. He returned Monday.

Born—In Coquille, October 8, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collier, a daughter.

William Cox, who has lived in Curry county for the past forty-one years, has sold his farm and will move to Coquille in a short time for residence.

Captain J. E. Meyers of "The Coquille River Transportation Co." informs us that he towed 2,500 bushels of grain down from the Fishtrap country, 2,000 bushels of which will be shipped to Portland the remaining 500 being marketed here.

T. W. Shuck, the carpenter, who has been working on the new addition to the Coquille Furniture Co's building on Friday afternoon fell from the upper part of the structure to the ground, a distance of twenty-five or thirty feet. In his fall he struck the roof of a lower story which, to some extent, broke the Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Finance Committee of the Common Council of the City of Marshfield, Coos County, Oregon, at the office of the City Recorder of said City of Marshfield, in the City Hall of said City of Marshfield, until 4 o'clock P. M. of Tuesday, October 26th, 1909, for the sale of the following improvement bonds of the said City of Marshfield, Coos County, Oregon, to-wit:

Street improvement bonds $7,392.56
Sewer construction bonds 9,845.55

All of said improvement bonds to be in denominations not exceeding $500 and bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from date thereof, payable semi-annually; said bonds to be dated the day of issuance and mature in ten years thereafter, with prepayment option thereon at face value and accrued interest to date of any semi-annual coupon interest period at, or after, one year from the date of said bonds, upon giving notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Coos county, Oregon, such notice to be published not less than twice during the month preceding such semi-annual period at which such prepayment thereof will be made. The right is expressly reserved to reject any and all bids and upon, or any of such bids, or proposals, being rejected, if there should remain any bonds unsold, the said bonds may be thereafter sold at private sale by said Common Council of said City of Marshfield, Oregon; but in no event to be sold at less than par and any interest thereon accrued to date of sale and payment. Said bonds are authorized by the laws of the State of Oregon and ordinances of the Common Council of the said City of Marshfield, Oregon.

Assessed valuation of said City of Marshfield, Oregon, is $1,791,549.00. No bonded indebtedness.

Population; estimated, 5,000. Certified check for 5 per centum of amount of bid, or proposal must accompany such bids, to be forfeited to said City of Marshfield, in case bid is accepted and bidder fails to accept and make payment for said bond or bonds, covered thereby, within ten days from date of acceptance of said bid, or bids.

Each bid, or proposal submitted to designate the denomination of said bond, or bonds desired and to state whether for "Street Improvement Bonds" or "Sewer Construction Bonds."

Bids, or proposals received for any amount of said bonds; small bidders being given preference of purchase. Proposals, or bids, with certified checks, to be enclosed in sealed plain envelope without distinguishing mark, or writing thereon, except the words "Bids for Improvement Bonds of the City of Marshfield, Oregon."

Dated this 2nd day of October, 1909.
