

Coos Bay's Social Side

(Continued from Page 2.)

home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hage at North Bend. In connection with a few remarks by Rev. L. Rasmussen, a beautiful silver cup was given to Mr. Jensen in appreciation of his active work as a member of the above mentioned organization, especially as director of the choir. About thirty were present. Mr. Jensen will leave shortly for California and although his numerous friends regret his departure, they cherish the hope of his return next spring.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday evening in the parlors of the church and elected the following officers for the next term: President, Arthur Drews; first vice-president, Wm. Stauff; second vice-president, Miss Ruth Allen; third vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Carter; fourth vice-president, Miss Mary Hanson; secretary, Miss Irene Preuss; treasurer, Joe Joehnk. After the election and other business was concluded, the league repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Helmsner in South Marshfield where the social part of the evening was spent. A goodly number were present and the various games were productive of much fun and laughter. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

One of the most pleasant surprise parties that has been given in North Bend in many a day occurred Thursday afternoon at the A. W. Myers home when Mrs. E. J. Ketting was the guest of honor. The surprise was cleverly planned and pleasantly executed by Mrs. C. H. Farris as chief of ceremonies. The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. W. P. Evans and moved in a body to the Myers home. It was in a way a form of farewell to Mrs. Ketting, mother of Mrs. A. W. Myers, who leaves today on an extended visit with relatives and friends at various points in Washington and in the east after a two years stay in North Bend. From two to five o'clock, a most enjoyable afternoon was spent, the only minor note being one of general regret at the departure of Mrs. Ketting who has endeared herself to all during her residence in North Bend. Dainty refreshments were served.

Among those invited were Mrs. C. H. Farris, Mrs. Geo. Witte, Mrs. C. H. Worrell, Mrs. W. R. Simpson, Mrs. Richard Coke, Miss Maude Coke, Mrs. A. E. Brown, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein, Mrs. W. P. Evans, Mrs. F. Chapman, Mrs. Charles Murr, Mrs. Selis, Mrs. J. C. Lininger, Mrs. A. W. Myers, Mrs. E. J. Ketting.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ernest Pollexfen will leave for San Francisco next week after a year spent on Coos Bay.

Mrs. E. O'Connell entertained the bridge quartette with luncheon and an afternoon on bridge on Friday afternoon.

Miss May Magee of Empire, spent last Sunday in Marshfield, the guest of Mrs. P. M. Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell reopened their bungalow on South Coos River this week for the fishing season. Their daughter, Mrs. E. K. Jones and Miss Stella O'Connell accompanied them returning Thursday for Mrs. Pollexfen's bridge party.

Miss Mamie Mahoney who, with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams has been enjoying a vacation in Portland and vicinity and spent the past week with Miss Merle Grissen of McMinnville, a former resident of Marshfield, returned home on the Breakwater.

Miss Genevieve Sengstacken entertained a number of young ladies at her home yesterday as a farewell to Miss Helen Chandler who leaves today for Portland. The afternoon was informal, devoted largely to conversation. Delicious refreshments were served. Among those invited were Misses Elizabeth Kaufman, Jessie Chase, Maude Painter, Kathleen Bennett, May Bennett, Nellie Tower, Lettie Larson and Helen Chandler and Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

The A. N. W. Club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. A. Bennett, the hours being devoted to needle work and conversation. Besides the club members, Mrs. Ellen Siglin was a guest.

The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. F. E. Allen.

Mrs. Kate Lando left this week for a month's visit at various points in California.

F. S. Dow and wife left this week for San Francisco where they will spend a week or so. They may visit at the home of Mr. Dow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Dow, at National City, Cal., before they return.

Last evening, Miss Helen Chandler entertained a small party of intimate girl friends at dinner at The Chandler. Among those present were Misses Genevieve Sengstacken, May Bennett, Kathleen Bennett and Maude Painter.

Miss Doris Sengstacken was the charming little hostess to a small party of young friends last Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, the event being her ninth birthday. The hours were from 7 to 9 and a merrier gathering would be hard to find. Various games and diversions making the hours one that will long be remembered by those present. Delicious refreshments were served, a feature of the artistically appointed table being a birthday cake with its nine candles. Miss Doris was the recipient of numerous remembrances from her friends. Among those present were Ruth Golden, Dorothy Horton, Bess Flanagan, Florence Flanagan, Helen Merchant, George Duebner, Proctor Flanagan, Virginia Clarke and Marion Horsfall.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus left Friday via Drain for Ashland where they will visit relatives for a week after which Dr. Mingus will return home. Mrs. Mingus will proceed to California where she will visit for a month or so.

Mrs. G. W. Kaufman is expected home today from Spokane, Wash., where she has been spending the past few months at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Happy. Mr. Kaufman went to Drain to meet her.

The Evergreen Whist Club was entertained last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Eugene O'Connell at Kittyville. At the annual business meeting, it was decided to change the name to the Evergreen Bridge Club. Mrs. W. J. Butler was elected president for the ensuing year and Mrs. Jas. Rolandson secretary and treasurer. Owing to the retirement of Mrs. W. C. Bradley, there is one vacancy in the club membership to be filled. This afternoon, Mrs. Rolandson is entertaining the club.

The young people of the Presbyterian church met at the Manse, on Wednesday evening for a social hour together and to reorganize the Y. P. S. C. E. During the summer, the regular work of the society was abandoned on account of several members being absent. There was a good attendance. It was decided to retain the same officers for the beginning of the year.

Mrs. Sarah W. Trego of Phoenix, Ariz., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman of Ferndale.

Miss Anne Flanagan will entertain the Bridge Score at the C. F. McCollum home in North Bend next Thursday evening.

The marriage of Miss Edith M. Selander and Mr. O. N. Wilson at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Selander, at Sumner last Saturday was one of the prettiest that has been solemnized there this summer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Richard Olson of the Marshfield Lutheran church. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Olson. F. E. Wilson was groomsmen and Miss May Selander bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed under a pretty arch of Espargus Spingeria and Oregon grape with Banana leaf canna on either side and in the center of which was a suspended bell. Following the ceremony, a sumptuous dinner was served and the afternoon was spent in picnicking, light refreshments being served late in the day. Among those in attendance were the following: From Marshfield—Mr. and Mrs. John Grant and children, Settla, Hillmore, Alton and Ellen, Mrs. Marie Grant, Ellis and Elvie Grant, Fred E. Wilson, Fred Selander and wife, and J. Richard Olson and wife.

From Sumner—Mrs. Wilson, Miss Eva Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Se-

TAILORED WAISTS $2.50 to $3

Ladies' beautifully tailored waists in plain and figured madras, linen and cotton batistes. Laundered cuffs and collars. Pleated or plain fronts. Sizes 32 to 44. Most popular waist of the season.

A. W. MYERS & CO.

COOS BAY'S GREATEST STORE

NORTH BEND - - - OREGON

LADIES' SWEATERS $2 to $6

All wool knit sweaters for women, in the new coat styles with and without collars, Pearl buttons. Colors cream-white, maroon, castor, navy, Oxford and cardinal. Sizes 28 to 44. The best values to be found anywhere.

Unmatchable Values in Tailored Suits

COATS, SKIRTS AND DRESSES, FOR WOMEN AND MISSES. HIGHEST GRADE TAILORING. MOST POPULAR STYLES, IN MOST WANTED SHADES

The best styles, best quality of materials and workmanship are shown in our Women's tailored suits for Fall and Winter. This is an opportunity seldom offered. A perfect fit and perfect satisfaction all around is guaranteed, or your money refunded.

WOMEN'S $16.50 SUITS

$12.95

Fine tailored suits. All wool invisible striped worsteds and double warp serges. Strictly man-tailored garments. Coat lined throughout with fine grade of satin. Cluster pleated skirts. Most popular styles. Regular $15 to $16.50 values. All sizes, and only $12.95.

WOMEN'S $25 SUITS

$19.85

Tailored suits of fancy grey homespuns, wide-wale chevrons and invisible striped worsteds. Fancy pockets and cuffs. Beautifully trimmed with silk braids and self materials. Regular $25 suits. All sizes. A splendid buy at the special price of, suit only $19.85.

WOMEN'S $20 SUITS

$15.00

Man-tailored suits, made of wide-wale chevriots, serges and panamas. Coats 38 to 40 inches long. Deep inlaid shawl collar. Pockets and cuffs trimmed with braids and self materials. Best grade of tailoring. Most popular models. Skirts of Moyen Age design. Sizes 28 to 40.

WOMEN'S $32.50 SUITS

$25

Women's strictly hand-tailored suits of chiffon broadcloths, invisible striped chevriots, worsteds and wide-wale chevrons. All the popular shades and designs. All wool and silk and wool material, which are London shrunk. Linings guaranteed. Sizes 32 to 48.

Women's Tailored Coats

$12.50

Double and single breasted full length tailored coats of fine Melton and covert materials. Strictly man-tailored throughout. Colors black, tan and brown. Lined and unlined. The same grade of materials you pay elsewhere $15 and $16.50 for. Our specially low price, $12.50.

Women's $27 Fine Coats

$20.00

Women's tailored coats of the finest chiffon broadcloth. Strictly man-tailored throughout. 40 to 52 inches in length. Black and colors. Lined with guaranteed Susekana satin. Plain and fancy tailored in most fashionable styles. Were $25 and $27.50. Only $20.00.

Women's $6.50 to $8 Skirt

$5.00

One lot of fifty fine all wool tailored skirts, of panamas, serges, and broadcloths of chiffon weight. All materials sponged and shrunk. Most popular shades and styles, in a complete range of sizes. The best skirts you ever saw for the price of $5.00.

Women's $5 to $6 Skirts

$3.95

One lot of fine tailored all wool dress skirts in panamas, serges and thibets. Come in black, brown and navy. Splendid styles. Every size. The best skirt buy offered in the Northwest. Do not overlook this saving chance. Regular $5 and $6 grades. Only $3.95.

lander, George Selander, Winnie Selander, Miss May Selander, H. Selander, Ellis Selander and Mrs. Johannah Newman.

The Sisters of Bethany will meet with Miss Alice Butler next Wednesday to organize for the year. The meeting was to have been held this week but owing to the inability to secure a quorum, the session had to be postponed.

J. R. Smith and wife of North Bend, were entertained over Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson at Shore Acres.

Mrs. M. Campbell of Portland, who has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jas Wall in Marshfield, left this week for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Lawlor entertained the Biographic Club at her home Thursday afternoon. Owing to a number of the members being unable to attend, part of the regular program was dispensed with, Mrs. Lawlor serving tea instead. The club was to have met next Thursday with Mrs. E. Mingus but owing to her absence from the city, it may not meet until a week from Thursday when Mrs. Otto Schetter will be hostess at a "Social afternoon."

Mrs. August Carlson entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Perry Nelson and Miss Esther Nelson of Minneapolis, who are visiting on the Bay. The guests were mostly former residents of Minnesota and old acquaintances of the guests of honor. Delicious refreshments were served. Among the guests were Mrs. Erick Johnson, Mrs. Peter Johnson, Mrs. B. B. Ostlund, Mrs. David Nelson, Mrs. J. N. Nelson, Mrs. A. J. Carlson, Mrs. Robert Myren, Mrs. Martinson and Rev. J. Richard Olson and wife. En route home, all of the guests in a body called on Mrs. Edman who is confined to her home by injuries sustained in a fall a few weeks ago.

Miss Warner, who has been spending the summer at the home of her brother, Guy Warner, left this week for her home in California.

Mrs. E. D. McArthur and children returned this week from Colorado where they have spent the summer with relatives.

One of the surprises the past week in a social way, was the announcement of the marriage of J. W. Bennett, the well-known Marshfield lawyer and banker, and Mrs. Elsie May O'Conner which was quietly solemnized at Portland Saturday, October 9. Mr. Bennett and his bride arrived here yesterday.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Street entertained a small party at dinner in honor of the third birthday of their daughter, Miss Ruth. Among those present were C. W. Street and wife, Dr. W. A. Teye and wife, Miss Lushella Johnson and Miss Bernice Platt.

Invitations were received here this week to the marriage of a former Coos Bay young lady, Miss Virginia DeNeveu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeNeveu, to Dr. Wm. W. Leake in Chicago, November 3. The ceremony will take place at Christ church on Woodlawn avenue and Sixty-fifth street. The young couple will be at home at 1206 Louisiana avenue, New Orleans, after November 20. The bride-to-be attended school in Marshfield and left here with her parents about six years ago. She is a sister of Mrs. Hillis Short of Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of L. M. Munson of Vermont who is visiting on the Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait entertained the Tuesday Night Whist Club at their home last Tuesday evening. Nasturtiums predominated in the decorations. At the conclusion of the evening's play, it was found that Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer and Mrs. F. A. Haines had tied for first honors, Mrs. Haines winning on the cut. E. F. Morrissey won the gentleman's prize. For the guest's prize, Mrs. J. S. Coke and L. M. Munson tied, Mr. Munson winning on the cut. Delicious refreshments were served. The club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grimes a week from next Tuesday evening.

Miss Bernice Platt, who has spent the past year at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. T. Street, will leave next Saturday for her home at Salem, Ohio.

V. S. Chandler and wife and Miss Helen Chandler left this afternoon on the Breakwater for Portland where next Tuesday Miss Chandler will become the bride of Harry Tremaine of Bellingham. The wedding will be a very quiet one, only immediate relatives being invited. Following the nuptials, the young couple will make an extended eastern trip. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler will visit in northern cities before returning to their winter home in San Francisco. Mr. Chandler will return here in December, probably, for a short stay.

LAST CHANCE to see that elegant line of LADIES SUITS at the LADIES EMPORIUM. Mrs. Tipton leaves for Portland the middle of next week.

Nuts

- WALNUT BRITTLE
- ALMOND BRITTLE
- HAZELNUT BRITTLE
- COCOANUT BRITTLE
- PEANUT BRITTLE

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW

—AT—

Stafford's