Miss Nettie Carey was recently married in Eureka, Cal., to B. Clancy.

Owing to a gasoline famine in this vicinity, the river launches, including the Agnes mailboat, are tied up.

Two gentlemen from Eureka have been inspecting the Osprey and Enterprise, the past week, with a view of purchasing one of them. No trade has yet been made.

The Hume Estate sold about seven hundred head of stock sheep, a few days ago, which were driven to the Clark and Dwyer place by H. B. Smith.

O. H. Sturud, a homesteader of the Pistol river country, is just recovering from an attack of appendicitis. He is now on the road to Portland to undergo an operation, and not take chances of its recurrence again. He says it is pretty tough to be helplessly sick, all alone, and far from any neighbors.

GOLD BEACH, Ore., Nov. 13.—At a meeting last Saturday, previously called for the purpose of organizing an independent fishing company, a temporary organization was effected with Thomas Smith as chairman. A committee of five was appointed to ascertain the cost of a cold storage plant to secure a site for same and do all other preliminary arrangements. The committee consists of C. H. Bailey, J. M. CATS NOT CLASSED AS TOOLS OF TRADE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—According to the treasury department, cats are not tools of trade and therefore Mrs. Alice Thelmann will be compelled to pay 20 per cent duty on the one hundred performing cats which she recently brought to this country for exhibition purposes. NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From The Herald.

Dr. Kirshman has been sporting a pair of crutches the past few days, just to be in the fashion, and incidentally to get rid of a troublesome growth on the side of his foot.

Fred. Porter, who it will be remembered lost his right hand in the saw mill at this place about three years ago, returned yesterday after an absence of some time.

Geo. Haight, formerly of this city, but lately conducting a market for the Coquille Valley Packing Company at Myrtle Point, was in this city a few days lately, having closed out the shop at the Point.

Frank Kimball inflicted a severe cut in his left foot while working at one of the Smith-Powers camps on Cunningham Monday shortly after one o'clock. He was brought to town immediately by the locomotive.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stephens of Fishtrap, were Coquille visitors last Thursday. Mr. Stephens spoke of having roasted potatoes to spare, as he had several tons stored in the barn of W. B. Smith which burned last week.

Lewis Homes, for some time an inmate of the county infirmary, and who has been suffering for a number of years from paralysis, was brought in the last of the week to the county hospital, now being conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson in the Little Hotel building.

Thomas Smith, of Riverton, arrived Friday from his visit with relatives and friends at and about Portland. He informs us that he found his youngest daughter, Mrs. Anna Schneider, in a rather serious condition, being a great sufferer from a peculiar affection of the eyes, from which cause her right eye had to be removed, and she has almost lost the sight of the left, of which her friends here will be very sorry to learn.

W. J. Fairman and daughter, Miss Annabell, arrived by the Ejjfield which came in Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fairman have been absent for several weeks, having attended the Seattle fair and visited friends in Portland, and later relatives and friends in California. Mrs. Fairman remaining at Santa Rosa for the present. Mr. Fairman tells of having a very pleasant time and how he enjoyed a visit to the experimental farm of Luther Berbank, the agricultural wizard.

Joe Nay, the Port Orford pioneer, who had been back to his old home in the east, passed through town on his return last Saturday. He tells us he greatly enjoyed a visit with relatives and old-time friends in Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire. He found it hard to leave Boston, where his many friends tried to persuade him to remain during the winter, but he felt, after so many mild winters in Curry, he could not stand their severe weather. Mr. Nay started on this trip in April, and has seen a great deal of the country in his rounds.

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Valley As Told By The Enterprise.

E. Schneider has received from W. O. W. headquarters a handsome gold ring bearing the initials of that order. It was awarded to him for his active work in securing new members for the lodge.

Miss Dorris Williams, who has been teaching at Bridge, came home last week, suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. She has gained rapidly since reaching home and will soon be able to be about again.

The bridge crew from Marshfield was up with the work train several days this week strengthening the bridge so that it would withstand the high water. It has been on false work for some time and the threatened rise of the river has brought some apprehension for the structure's safety in the railroad offices.

Rev. H. M. Branham writes that he has been stationed at Norwalk, Los Angeles county, Cal. He and Mrs. Branham attended the conference at Phoenix, Ariz. Norwalk, he says, is a town of 800 people, on the Southern Pacific railroad and on the main auto road between Los Angeles and Santiago. They have a nice church and parsonage and a membership of 118 fine people.

The new copper circuit telephone line which has been building this season between Myrtle Point and Roseburg, was completed yesterday and connected up with the service. The last half mile gap between here and Roseburg was closed up during Wednesday and the new wire has now been placed in commission. The improvements to the local office and service have been carried on apace and it is expected that all the improved facilities will be available for use in a short time.

COOS COUNTY APPLES.

Coquille Valley Ships Large Number This Year.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says: "A Marshfield newspaper, in stating that this is not an apple country quotes a couple of buyers as stating that they were unable to purchase from 1,700 to 2,000 boxes of apples in the county. It is possible that there are not many prize apples in the county, and it may be that the Marshfield editor is judging the country by his immediate surroundings, so that to get the matter straight so that outside people will not think that we do not raise apples here The Enterprise wants to state that one Myrtle Point firm is shipping 4,000 boxes of apples this season and the fruits growers association expects to ship at least 3,000 boxes if the weather will permit the packers to finish their work. This will make a total of 7,000 boxes being shipped from this point, not to mention the boxes that are being kept for home consumption, and the packers and shippers have been particular as to the quality of fruit shipped, throwing aside apples that were as good as any to use, but not perfect in form or coloring. This for immediate proof that this is an apple country. During the past few years there has been a notable development of the fruit growing industry. Thousands of new trees have been set out and thousands of old trees have been pruned into shape and grafted."
