May Play Sunday.—If the weather is favorable, the Marshfield Independent football team will try and get a game with the Coquille Independents, a North Bend team or the Marshfield high school next Sunday.

Benson at Gardiner.—Governor Frank Benson is spending a few days in the vicinity of Gardiner hunting ducks in company with Attorney James Watson of this city, and Warren Reed of Gardiner. —Roseburg News.

Many at Social.—The social given by the Ladies of the Lutheran church in the church parlors Saturday evening was a decided success, $104.05 being cleared. There was a large attendance and the various events made the evening a very pleasant one.

Withdraws Charge.—Saturday evening, Mrs. Catherine Stevens appeared before Justice Pennock and withdrew the assault charge which she had preferred against Herman Krueger. She paid the costs incurred and said that she did it at the request of friends. This exonerates Mr. Krueger completely.

Injures Hand.—A. L. Smith injured his hand quite severely while operating a circular saw at his blacksmith shop on South Broadway this morning. The injury is not serious but will probably lay him up for a while, the two fingers of the right hand being nearly severed from that member.

Boys Shop.—Jas. E. Wynne, who has been connected with the D. A.

Council Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet Tuesday evening to take up various matters, several street improvement contracts to be awarded and also the contract for cleaning the streets.

Eastside School Census.—Mayor Chas. E. Jordan has just completed the school census of Eastside and finds they have 106 children of school age, 58 boys and 48 girls.
This is an excellent showing and is ample evidence that Eastside people are followers and disciples of the Roosevelt policy.

More Strawberries.—D. D. Brainard, the Haynes Inlet rancher, brought in several boxes in fine strawberries to the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce today, beating his claim that he would have strawberries ripening until Thanksgiving. The recent storm did about $100 damage to his strawberry patch.

Perham Has Contract.—Articles of incorporation have been filed with County Clerk Lenox by the Umpqua Land and Water Company, which has let a contract with E. G. Perham for the construction of a bridge over the South Umpqua river, near the old power station. The incorporations are J. C. and J. M. Alexander and C. J. Burchard. Capital stock, $100,000.—Roseburg Review.

Corvallis Won.—Nels Rasmussen has received a wire from his son, Gordon Rasmussen, stating that the Oregon Agricultural College Football team won the big game from Multnomah Saturday. Gordon played on regular line of Oregon Agricultural College, the regular man being made sub to him on account of the strong showing that he has made this season. This is his first year at Corvallis and his attaining the first team this fall is something remarkable.

Good Roads Man Delayed.—Dr.
E. E. Straw has received a telegram from J. R. Morrison, the good roads expert of King county, Wash., who was to have come with Geo. W.
Evans today to address Coos County people on road building, stating that owing to the storm he had to postpone his trip. It is presumed that the recent storms which have been doing so much damage throughout the northwest, struck King county hard and Mr. Morrison has to get busy at home. An endeavor will be made to bring them here later.

NORTH BEND NEWS

M. D. Sherrard, machinist at the C. A. Smith mill, visited North Bend relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Gardner and baby and her sister, Mrs. Heath, were Marshfield visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Morgan and son William of Daniels' Creek, spent Sunday with friends in North Bend.

Richard and Mrs. Coke, who spent Thanksgiving as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bartle at Mirac Cove, have returned home.

Miss Lucilla Hodson and Mason Noah, and Geo. Smith of Coos River, were among North Bend visitors Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Bartle, who have been spending their honeymoon at Mirac Cove, have returned and are preparing to take up housekeeping at their new home on Sherman avenue.

The Dan Shannon meeting for men only yesterday was a tremendous success and sixty-five men went forward and professed their intention of leading better lives. There will be services every afternoon at 2:30, except Tuesday. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Shannon will speak.

DR. C. W. TOWER has returned from a trip to his summer home.
It was damaged slightly by the flood, the underpinning being weakened and mud over everything.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The tug Gleaner came in from Gardiner Saturday to get a cargo of general merchandise.

The Wilhelmina took out a miscellaneous cargo to Bandon and will bring back a cargo for the Alliance.

The Breakwater the last trip down made one of the best runs she has made during the fall or winter months in a long time. In consequence of the Columbia river freshet and danger from floating logs, she remained at Portland Wednesday night, sailing for Coos Bay Thursday morning and reaching here early Friday.

In command of Captain Charles Peters, the dredge Oregon of the United States Engineers' fleet, will leave soon for Grays Harbor. The dredge was lowered from the Port of Portland drydocks and towed to the government mooring near Claremont. She will be placed in shape to be towed around and will be ready within a few days.—Portland Oregonia-lian.

TO WED AT EMPIRE.

Victor Wickman and Miss Fanny Getty to Be Married.

The Coquille Sentinel says: "Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Fanny Getty of this city, to Victor A. Wickham of Empire at the home of the bride's parents at Empire, Wednesday, December 7, 1909.

"This event will be of special interest to the many friends of Miss Getty in Coquille. For the past two years she has been connected with the firm of Getty & Collier and during this time has won the esteem and respect of all by her sweet disposition and winning ways.

"She is being quite extensively entertained by her lady friends this week. The most prominent event was the miscellaneous shower given her by Miss Florence Atkinson. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. She will leave for Empire next Wednesday and her departure will be sincerely regretted by all.

"Miss Getty is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and for several years was a most successful teacher in this county and state.

"Mr. Wickman is a member of the life saving crew on Coos Bay and is a most highly respected young man. They will make their future home at Empire."

Personal Notes

L. A. FRYE of North Bend, visited friends here Sunday.

MRS. CHAS. MASTERS of Eastside, is a Marshfield visitor today.

N. S. OLSON of Ten Mile, is a Marshfield business visitor today.

MRS. A. E. SEAMAN spent Sunday at their ranch on South Coos River.

MISS NELLIE ROOK of North Coos River, was a Marshfield visitor today.

MISS EVA WILSON of Sumner, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Se-lander, here.

WILL E. HOAGLAND family of Catching Inlet, were Marshfield visitors today.

MRS. JOHN KRICK and Miss Ella Krick were down from their Coos River ranch today.

S. W. SHERMAN, the well-known Coos River rancher, was in Marshfield on business today.

H. E. BESSEY and wife of Coos River, are guests at the McIntosh home in South Marshfield.

H. H. WILSON has returned from an extended business trip through the Coquille Valley country.

HENRY T. MINCHEW, a newspaper man and formerly editor of the Astoria Leader, is on Coos Bay on a little prospecting tour.

SAM BRILES of Riverton, was a Marshfield visitor Saturday. He says the freshet was within a foot of the floors of the Riverton stores.

JUDGE HALL returned today noon from a business trip to Coquille.
The river is rapidly receding. He does not believe the damage will be heavy.

WM. FOX, a well-known pioneer of this section, is reported quite ill at Maxwell. His daughter, Miss Margaret Fox, left Saturday to visit him.

HILLIS SHORT is in from Ten Mile today expounding the merits of the latest delicacy "smoked mud-hen." He promises to send a supply of samples.

WALTER CHRISTENSEN, who has been employed at the Coos River Creamery as cheese maker the past season, will leave for his home in Portland this week.

W. S. McFARLAND and J. ALBERT MATSON visited their summer home on South Coos River Sunday. There was no damage aside from some mud being washed in on the floors.

TOMMY SMITH, formerly of the Bell Cord, arrived in Saturday from his homestead in the Fall Creek section. He walked a large portion of the way and was badly besplattered when he reached here.

MRS. MINNIE FISHER and daughter, Annie, expect to leave shortly for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the winter for the benefit of Mrs. Fisher's health. They will probably sell their residence property to Hugh McLain who is buying it for a home.
