SMITH GIVES ISX VICTOR IN 10TH ROUND

Relatives of Victims of Anti-Jew Rioting Ask for More Details

No further details have been released regarding the anti-Jew rioting committed in Endicott yesterday. Mrs. B. W. Anderson, who witnessed the attack, said that it was being carried out by a group of Jewish students. She added that the rioters had been verbally abusing the victims.

The attack took place in the vicinity of the Jewish hills, where a group of Jewish students had been playing football. The victims, who were members of a local Jewish club, were reportedly thrown to the ground and kicked by the rioters. The attack lasted for approximately 30 minutes, during which time the victims were verbally abused and physically assaulted.
