

THE SIXTH ANNUAL
Grand Prize
Masquerade Ball

given by
KOOS TRIBE, No. 33
IMP. O. R. M. will be held in the
I. O. O. F. HALL.

Saturday, Dec. 4, 1909

This is an annual event of Coos Tribe, and has long been looked for as one of the social events of the season among the Coos Bay people. The prizes to be given away at this ball are more numerous, and of greater value than ever before.

OVER SIXTY PRIZES

of the value of
MORE THAN $300.00

Will be given for the best sustained characters. The prizes have been kindly donated by the business men of Marshfield, and will be displayed the balance of the week in the window of Lockhart's Grocery Store, Mr. Lockhart having kindly donated the use of this window to the Red Men for this purpose. Tickets are on sale at the various cigar stores, Magnes & Matson, and The Busy Corner-Lockhart & Parsons. If you dance you should attend this ball as a masker; if you do not dance, do not fail to be present as a spectator, and participate in the fun, and see the many and gorgeous costumes. The floor will be reserved exclusively for maskers until after the masks are removed.

WEATHER FORECAST.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Showers in west and fair in east tonight and Thursday. Light south winds.

Open Office.—A. B. Daly has leased a portion of the Alliance warehouse where he will open an office and keep a supply of logging supplies after January 1.

Census Nearly Done.—Judge Hall, clerk of the Marshfield school district, is busy compiling the school census and expects to have it completed soon. He says it will show $00 people of school age, a gain of about fifty over last year.

Carranza Loses.—Word has been received here that Lupie Carranza, who fought several times on the Bay, lost his bout Thanksgiving Day at Coalinga, Cal., by fouling Johnny O'Keefe, a well-known Denver pugilist. O'Keefe was put out in the twelfth round by the foul.

Plant Delayed.—Agent Dow of the M. F. Plant, received a wire today that the plant had been delayed in San Francisco loading freight until 1 o'clock today. This will mean that she will not get in here until about noon Friday and that she will not sail until Saturday.

Has Granddaughter.—Captain W. C. Harris of Sumner, is said to be one of the proudest men in Coos county as a result of the birth of a granddaughter, the little Miss coming as a Thanksgiving present to the home of his son, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harris Jr. Mrs. Harris was formerly Miss Minnie Mills.

Quartette Rehearses.—The Minstrel Quartette will probably be made permanent and will be a valuable addition to the musical organizations on the Bay. The members are C. D. Lash, C. S. Dodge, J. B. Tower and B. H. Smith. W. E. Dungan is planning to make a tour of the towns of the county with the minstrel aggregation that recently appeared at the Royal and will probably take the quartette with him.

Hand decorated novelties at BAZAR.

Personal Notes

MRS. E. E. STRAW is reported quite ill at her home.

DAVID ROBERTS of Empire, was a Marshfield visitor today.

MR. and MRS. C. S. HILBORN were in from their ranch today on a shopping expedition.

A. J. SHERWOOD and A. S. Hammond of Coquille, are Marshfield business visitors today.

R. E. SHINE, manager of the Southern Oregon Company, was here from Empire today on business.

HERMAN LARSON left yesterday for Coquille to look after his Beaver Slough dredging contract.

MRS. E. F. MORRISSEY and son, Edward, wired Mr. Morrissey today that they will reach Coos Bay on the Breakwater Friday.

MRS. GEORGE GETTINS and children, who have been visiting at the F. K. Gettins home, will leave on the Alliance for their home in Ohio.

W. J. LAPALME of Eastside, was a Marshfield business visitor today. He reports that a number of improvements are projected there for next spring.

A. M. PRENTISS came in from his Ten Mile ranch today. He reports that everything there is about as wet as it can be—decidedly too moist for comfort.

MRS. ARTHUR McKEOWN is hostess at a reception this afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. W. Bennett. It is one of the largest social functions of the season and the Bennett home was elaborately decorated for the occasion.

J. L. COOK of Empire, was a Marshfield visitor today. He reports that the Empire people are highly opposed to the Southern Oregon Company's plan to vacate a plat there which would throw property inside the city limits into acreage. It will reduce Empire taxes considerably. The Empire city council will probably enter a protest with the county court against the proposed action.

Elks Memorial.—Marshfield Elks will meet in their hall this evening to complete preparations for their annual memorial exercises which will be held in the Masonic Temple next Sunday and to attend to other matters. The memorial services are open to the public and will probably be largely attended as a fine program is being arranged.

SIMPSON AND MYERS NAMED

had been thrown to A. W. Myers. Peter Loggie's defeat was unexpected by him and his supporters. Last evening, his campaign managers had a moving picture machine throwing "Vote for Loggie for mayor. Don't be a slave," on a screen across the hall from where the caucus was held. However, part of his followers switched to Simpson.

Big Crowd There.

The caucus was held in the Pioneer Block and the room was not large enough for the crowd, many having to stand outside. There were seats for only a few. Immediately after the election of the chairman, W. P. Evans suggested that arrangements be made for another hall. He said that he did not think that Eckhoff hall could be secured owing to the management being opposed to permit the floor to be scratched up. He said that probably the tabernacle could be secured and this would provide seats for all. However it was decided to finish the business in the Pioneer block.

The caucus lasted from 7:30 until about 10:30, the counting of the votes being a tedious one even though but one ballot was taken on the candidates for councilmen under the agreement that the six having the highest votes should be the candidates of the caucus.

May Go On By Petitions.

It was stated this afternoon that L. F. Falkenstein would probably go on the ticket by petition. He could not be seen personally but some of his friends were urging it. Last evening, it seems that he was the victim of a misunderstanding by some of his friends. The latter were expected to have ballots printed with Mr. Falkenstein's name on them with two of the other candidates, but they neglected to do so.

N. C. McLeod's withdrawal came unexpectedly. Some of his friends had ballots printed with his name on them and some of them had been circulated in the hall prior to his announcement that he would not run.

There was some talk today that Peter Loggie might go on the ballot by petition. He could not be reached but parties in close touch with the situation declared that he would not do so.

Yesterday afternoon, Major Kinney threatened to try and keep Loggie off the ballot if he was nominated for mayor last night on the ground that he was now holding the office of councilman and was not eligible. However, Major Kinney did not bring the matter up last evening.
