CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m. Friday of each week. Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where events occur later than the time mentioned.)

Mrs. Brigham and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hyde of North Bend, left this week for Portland where they will spend the holidays.

Mrs. W. A. Toye entertained the Bridge Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. S. Turpen and Mrs. Henry Sengstacken. Delicious refreshments were served. A week from Wednesday, Mrs. L. J. Simpson will entertain the club at her home in North Bend. The club is arranging for a social evening, probably at New Years, when the husbands of the members will participate.

The Biographic Club has adjourned until January 6 when Mrs. E. Minus will be hostess at a New Year social in honor of the members.

The Evergreen Bridge Club was entertained last Saturday by Mrs. Christine Kruse at her home in West Marshfield. Beside the club members there were present Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Miss Myrtle Horrel and Miss Jessie Chase. Miss Chase assisted Mrs. Kruse in serving a delicious luncheon. Prizes were won by Mrs. L. M. Noble. The club is being entertained today by Mrs. J. T. McCormac.

The Chaminade Club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. J. T. Hall at her home in West Marshfield. Adjournment was taken for two weeks Wednesday evening with Mrs. B. B. Ostlund.

Mrs. Effie Farringer is expecting her little daughter, Ursula, to return from Oklahoma where she has been attending school.

Miss Agnes Hutchison entertained the Bridge Score at her home last Monday evening. The residence was beautifully decorated for the occasions with greenery and with the shaded lamps and candles carried out the Christmas colors red and green. The score cards were decorated with holly and mistletoe. Prizes were won by Miss Evelyn Anderson and Mr. Schetter. Miss Hutchison's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawlor, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Straw, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. C. Farrin, Miss Alice Butler, Miss Anne Flanagan, Miss Stella O'Connell, Miss Evelyn Anderson, Miss Maude Painter, Miss Elizabeth Kaufman. Messrs. John Kronholm, Walter Butler, I. Tower, Geo. Goodrum, Dr. Dix, W. F. McKee, Hayes Howard, Roy Kaufman. The club will be entertained two weeks hence by Miss Evelyn Anderson.

Among those leaving on the next Plant to spend the Christmas holidays in San Francisco are Mrs. W. E. Dungan, Mrs. Wm. Lawlor and her guest, Mrs. Roberts.

Miss May Bennett entertained with an informal Christmas sewing party and chafing dish supper on Tuesday

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 1331. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

evening of this week. Those present were, beside the Misses Bennett, Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Miss Jessie Chase, Miss Mahoney and Miss Genevieve Sengstacken.

Dr. and Mrs. Ingram entertained with an informal evening of music and cards last Tuesday in honor of their guest, Miss Georgina Newmyer of Spokane.

The evening was devoted to games, music and dancing. Miss Newmyer, Mrs. Ingram and Miss Torry gave several vocal selections (Continued on page 4.)
