Wind, Northeast; cloudy.

Buys Boat.—Wm. Campbell has purchased J. W. Mitchell's famous speed boat "Nomane." Mr. Mitchell expects to build a new one and go after the Coos Bay record.

Butter High.—Good butter has jumped to sixty-five cents per pound and a half squares on the local market. Eggs have dropped from sixty to fifty cents per dozen.

Goes to Gardiner.—The Wilhelmina arrived in today from Bandon and will sail this afternoon for the Umpqua with general merchandise. She will bring back a cargo of cement.

Grocery Moving.—Geo. E. Cook is removing his grocery into the handsome new store building on Central avenue especially constructed for him. He expects to be fully located in the new home before Christmas.

Added to Committee.—It is announced that J. T. McCormac's name has been added to the building committee which is arranging for the tabernacle for the Shannon revival meetings here in February.

Meet in Two Weeks.—The Marshfield city council will not meet again until Monday evening, January 3. There was no business of importance to come up next week and owing to the holidays it was decided to wait until the regular quarterly session.

Wed Tomorrow.—It is announced that the marriage of James Edward Roberts and Miss Myrtle Pennock will be solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Justice Pennock. Both are well-known Marshfield young people.

Christmas Trees.—Nearly all of the Marshfield churches are arranging for Christmas trees and programs for Friday or Saturday night. The Times will publish as many of the programs as are obtainable tomorrow and the parties in charge of them are requested to hand in the programs to The Times' office before 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Go to Ten Mile.—John McIsaac of "The Wee Inn"; Fred H. Virtue and Joseph MacKinnon of Porter, leave for Ten Mile tomorrow to spend the Xmas holidays with Angus McDonald and family of the "Glen." It is needless to say there will be a big time as Mrs. McIsaac has his "bagpipe," Virtue has his songs and MacKinnon has a few well prepared stories for the occasion.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.
The Czarina will sail from San Francisco today for Coos Bay and will reach here Friday, probably.
The Breakwater will leave Portland tonight and reach here early Friday morning.

AT THE THEATRE.
The vaudeville show at the Opera House last night made another hit while the crowd was not as large as was expected yet there was good attendance and that the performance was appreciated was made manifest by the repeated encores all numbers received. The old favorite "Silver Threads Among the Gold" is deserving of special mention, the singing of which completely caught the house. Tonight the Quartette will sing as a special number "Old Kentucky Home."

LITTLE TALKS ABOUT TOWN

A GRIST OF COOS BAY GOS-SIP GATHERED HERE AND THERE ABOUT THINGS OF PASSING INTEREST.

"I left Chicago just two weeks ago," remarked a traveling man at the Chandler today, "and just before I left I was very much interested while standing in the basement of the Marshal-Field store in Chicago to hear the head bookkeeper announce to the manager of the store the fact that the cash receipts for the past sixty minutes had been $11,000. I inquired if that was the general run and he said that the cash returns were so heavy that the store had to bank every sixty minutes. This amount was outside of the credit system of the mailing department. I never saw such tremendous business as was being done in that store. It was the annual Christmas rush, of course, but the crowds were so great that it was all that one could do to keep from being jammed to death. They have policemen stationed every few paces but the crowds are terrific. I was glad enough to escape with my life. They say that there is less shopping this year than ever before, but I doubt it. I could not imagine any time that could be worse in Chicago than right now. I never saw such pretty things, I 'shopped' for two hours and did not buy one thing to bring home. Talk about mechanical toys. Invention has it down to such a fine point that it is hard to tell a human baby from those Flemish dolls. The Flemish doll is modeled from a live model, is painted in water colors and is as natural as life."

Personal Notes

L. H. HAZARD of Coquille, is a Marshfield business visitor.

F. K. GETTINS has gone to Curry county on business.

C. A. SEHLBREDE returned yesterday from a business trip to Coquille.

REV. J. RICHARD OLSON went to North Bend this afternoon to meet members of his congregation there.

MRS. PETER SCOTT Sr., and her son and family are expected here from Portland on the Breakwater.

DR. and MRS. E. Mingus returned today noon from a trip to Coquille Valley points.

J. T. SULLIVAN has gone to Coquille where he has taken a position with the Hub Clothing and Shoe Company.

MRS. MEEKER of Coquille, who underwent an operation at the Home Hospital a few days ago, is reported getting along nicely.

MRS. JOHN JOHNSON is reported critically ill at her home in Ferndale, suffering from cancer. But little hope is entertained for her recovery.

OTTO SCHEFTER joined the duck hunters at the McIntosh reserve this morning. J. H. Flanagan was to have accompanied him but the latter's alarm clock had "cold feet" or other trouble and failed to awaken him.

H. W. PAINTER has returned from a business trip to Gardiner. He says that they are just as alert there to railway rumors as on Coos Bay and everybody is confidently expecting the announcement that the Southern Pacific will resume work on the Drain line within a few days.

L. A. LILJEQVIST, deputy prosecuting attorney, came over from Coquille today to prosecute Hank Wells and Bill Hunter for an alleged violation of the game laws. Justice Pennock continued the case a week owing to J. D. Goss, who was to represent the defendants, being out of town.

H. N. TYRELL, who was shot by a fisherman near Coquille a few months ago, left for his home this morning after spending several days in Marshfield consulting physicians. Many shot are still lodged in his leg and his limb remains stiff. The party, shooting him claims it was an accident, mistaking Tyrell for a shunk.
