OPEN EVENINGS

A Leading Question.

Pause a minute, brother,
As you toll and fret,
Listen to this question:
Have you got 'em yet?

All those dainty trinkets
For each little pet;
Have they been selected?
Have you got 'em yet?

Christmas week is on us
When men toll and sweat.
Maybe you can dodge it,
Have you got 'em yet?

Think of how you'd struggle,
Worried and upset,
Through the mob of buyers.
Have you got 'em yet?

Stop a minute, brother;
Save yourself regret.
Ponder o'er this question:
Have you got 'em yet?

We have observed that there is little complaint about the high prices of beer and cigars.

One of the marks of spinsterhood:
She gives a red wagon to a child.
