Good Night.
You little tot, in your white little cot With the moonbeams all dancing and playing beside;
There with your doll and your slumber and all Roaming off in the babyhood heaven so wide;
You with your pink little cheeks and your curls,
Happy and tired and snuggled in tight;
You are the sweetest of all little girls—
Good night, little rose of the twilight, good night.

There in your dreams with the wandering beams
Sped from the azure world watching above;
Safe in the folds of your coverlets rolled Round and about you in peace and in love;
Innocent, pure as the brooklet that purls Heaven will guard through the bloom and the blight;
You are the dearest of all little
girls—
Good night, little rose of the twilight, good night.

The New Year's ball given by the Millicoma Club last evening was one of the most delightful ever tendered there. The attendance was large and joviality reigned supreme. Many handsome costumes were worn. Refreshments were served. At midnight, all united in welcoming the New Year and exchanging greetings.

Terpsichorean Club in the I. O. O. F. hall last evening was largely attended and the evening proved a most delightful one. The regular dance program was deviated from to permit the guests participating in the usual New Year jollity.

Warren Reed and wife of Gardiner spent several days on the Bay the past week visiting friends. They returned to their home Friday morning.

Miss Laura Kruse of North Bend, has been the guest of Miss Nellie Tower the past week.

Word was received here this week of the marriage of Mrs. Nellie J.
Coffelt and M. J. Ellsey at Tucson, Ariz., where Mrs. Coffelt has been making her home for the last few years. Mrs. Ellsey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rogers of Coos River and has many friends here who will unite in wishing them all the happiness that life affords.

The A. N. W. Club will be entertained by Mrs. Kate Lando at her home next Thursday afternoon. At that time, the club will receive a report on the number of the Red Cross Christmas stamps which were disposed of by the members.

The Bridge Quartette was entertained by Mrs. J. T. McCormac at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs.
E. Mings playing in place of Mrs.

North Bend will meet next Tuesday at Taylor's hall. Various matters will come up, including several plans for civic improvement in North Bend which the club has under consideration for next season.

Miss Lillian Seaman entertained a number of young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
A. E. Seaman, last Tuesday afternoon. Various games made the afternoon a most delightful one, and the event closed with refreshments at Stafford's. Among Miss Lillian's guests were Misses Virginia Clarke, Helen Rees, Edith Ayre, Ruth Horton, Dorothy Horton, Grace Farrin, Mary Metlin, Adelaide Clarke and Marie Seaman.

returned to their home this week after a several days' visit at various points in the Coquille valley.

Mrs. L. M. Noble was hostess to the Evergreen Bridge Club yesterday afternoon. The home was most attractively decorated, Oregon Grape, mistletoe and ivy predomnat-ing. The rooms were lighted by red shaded candles. The afternoon's play resulted in Mrs. Eugene O'Connell winning first prize and Mrs. P.

M. Wilbur the consolation prize.
Delicious refreshments were served.
Misses Alice Butler and Maude Bow-ron serving Mrs. C. E. Nicholson and Mrs. Henry Sengstacken were guests of the club. Mrs. Sengstacken has invited the club to meet with her next Saturday afternoon.

The Minnie-Wis Social Club met at the home of Mrs. E. Kelly, December 30, and all day was devoted to social past times. The hostess served a noon day luncheon. Mrs.

E. Kelly, accompanied by Miss Susie Elckworth, sang a solo. Miss Susie Elckworth played several selections.
