Hold Meeting.—The annual business meeting of the congregation of the Swedish Lutheran Church will be held in the church at 8 o'clock this evening. All members are urged to be present.

New Year's Baby.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Magill, who reside in the McFarlin Flats on South Broadway, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son whose arrival was just prior to the hour of midnight last night. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mail Today.—Marshfield received two days' mail today, the two days consignment reaching Myrtle Point in time for the train. The carriers claim the roads yesterday prevented them getting through on schedule time.

Exhibits Work.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scott have on exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce some clever pieces of the handwork of their son, James, who is now in Portland. The various articles are hewn out of stumps and are clever bits of rustic ornamentation.

Will Visit Here.—Andrew Heikla has received word that the Jensen brothers who have been mining in the "Buffalo Hump" country for several years will arrive here shortly to make an extended visit. Erick, Jack and Fred Jensen left here about ten years ago. According to their message to Mr. Heikla, they have sold their mining property for a good sum.

Personal Notes

DOUGLAS McCHESNEY is here from South Dakota for a short visit at the C. R. Peck home.

JOHN PREUSS Jr., who has been spending his vacation here, leaves today to resume his studies in Portland.

LEO McLAIN, who has been spending the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLain, will return to school in Portland today.

MISS MARGARET MURPHY, who has been spending the holidays with relatives in Marshfield, left today for Bandon where she is teaching school.

EAGLES PLAN GRAND BALL

Will Initiate Their New $20,000 Home With Big Social Event.

What promises to be the biggest and best grand ball of the season will be given by Marshfield Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at their beautiful ball room in their new $20,000 building this evening.

The occasion marks the initiation of their new home and as such possesses more than passing significance. The Eagles have grown into one of the numerically strong fraternal orders of Coos Bay. This is evident in the handsome new home they have erected and which is one of the substantial and important improvements of the past season on Coos Bay. The fact that its erection was commenced at a time when the commercial world was timid about inaugurating any new or expensive improvements is proof of the faith its members have in the city's future and they backed their faith by good works. For this reason if for no other, the Eagles deserve the support of the business interests of the city.

Whether you dance or not you should buy a ticket and attend the ball tonight. You will get more than your money's worth in good music and a good time, besides you will be boosting the boosters and that is always a good thing to do.

all of the members being in attendance. The prizes were won by Mrs. Byler and Mrs. H. S. Tower, the former receiving first prize and the latter the consolation. The club will hold its next regular meeting the week after next with Mrs. J. W. Ingram. Next Wednesday evening, the club will entertain the husbands of the members at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Matson in West Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Winsor of North Bend, entertained Mr. Winsor's sister, Mrs. A. H. Gauntlett, and children from Gold Beach a few days this week.

Miss Ella Felter of Bandon, has been spending the week in Marshfield as the guest of Miss Ruth Allen.

Mrs. Eva Gammill of South Marshfield, leaves today for Seattle where she will spend the balance of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Thos Spencer. Miss Ella Mathison, who has been her guest here also returns to her home in Canada, making the trip as far as Seattle with Mrs. Gammill.

Mrs. E. K. Jones, Master Eugene Jones and Miss Stella O'Connell leave shortly for Portland where they will visit with Mrs. Richardson and later will proceed to San Francisco and other California points where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley will entertain the Progress Club at her home Monday, January 3, when the club will resume its regular study.

Miss Gertrude Gage entertained a number of young friends at a Christmas tree party at the home of her parents in Bunker Hill Christmas night. Following the distribution of gifts, a concert was enjoyed.

Last Monday evening, a party of North Bend young people enjoyed a "Moonlight excursion" to the Life Saving Station, the launch Cooston being chartered for the trip. Rev. J. C. Lininger and Mrs. Lininger chaperoned the party which had one of the most delightful outings that residents of the Bay have known in many months. Among those in the party were Ellen Anderson, Dorothy Kibbler, Prof. A. B. Beaumont, Wm. Wood, Miss Peterson, Mildred Wood, Ralph Coke, Morton, Marion Reynolds, Edith Horn, Marion Hevener, Edith Allger, Miss Metzler, Archie Taylor, Archie Strickland, Lyle Chapelle and Joe Stambuck.

Mrs. E. Mingus issued invitation this week for two different events at her home. The first is an afternoon at Bridge Thursday, January 6, in honor of the Biographic Club and the second is Tuesday, January 11 when she will entertain at needle work.

Miss Jessie Chase, a member of the Marshfield high school teaching corps, returned this week from her holiday vacation which was spent with relatives at Portland and with friends on Puget Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murch entertained the young men of the C. A. Smith Lumber Company's offices at dinner at their home Christmas eve. Dinner was followed by various Christmas diversions, making the evening a most delightful one for the young men, most of whom were far away from home and relatives. Among those invited were J. Bassett, Carl Davis, Art Wild, Fred Payne, Hugo Quist, A. N. Lofgren, W. J. Conrad, R. K. Booth, Carl Warner, Del Bengtson, Vic Thompson and G. A. Brown.

The Chaminade Club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ostlund. The evening was devoted to the regular study and rehearsal for the recital which the club will give at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall Jr., sometime this month. The date has not been definitely set. The affair will be invitational, each member being allowed to invite one or two guests. The Chaminade Club will meet with Miss Edna Larson next Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morrissey will entertain the Tuesday Evening Whist Club at their home next Tuesday night.

Miss Evelyn Anderson will entertain the Bridge Score at her home next Friday evening, January 7.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat Events As Recorded By The Herald.

The stockholders of the First National Bank of Coquille have decided to increase the capital stock of the institution to $50,000 on January 15, 1910.

J. C. Noel of Gardiner, last week purchased the property of Mrs. Duley, known as the Judge Nosler place in the north part of town, paying the sum of $3,500 for it. We understand that Mr. Noel will become a resident of our city at an early date.

Thos. Coats, an old and respected citizen of Bandon, has suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, and is thought to be in a critical condition. Mr. Coats is a veteran of the rebellion.

We see by the Cottage Grove Leader that license have been issued for the marriage of David Merton and Miss Etta Dorris. The bride-to-be was formerly a resident of the Arago section.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Goram of the lower river, two well-known and highly respected pioneer citizens, have been in rather poor health for some time.

Marshall Pointer, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pointer, of this city, is carrying an arm in a sling, the result of a fall sustained at the ball grounds Saturday. He fell from the grand stand, fracturing one of his wrists.

Miss Nancy Benham came over from North Bend Friday and was met by her father, J. D. Benham of Fairview, whom she accompanied home to spend Christmas.
