

Clearance Sale

We realize the importance of closing out each season's stock before the end of the season. It's the only way of keeping the best trade and getting the new customers—so here goes.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

$30.00 Quality, Now	$21.85	$17.50 Quality, Now	$12.85
$25.00 Quality, Now	$18.35	$15.00 Quality, Now	$11.35
$22.50 Quality, Now	$16.85	$12.50 Quality, Now	$9.35
$20.00 Quality, Now	$14.85	$10.00 Quality, Now	$7.85

BOYS SUITS AND OVERCOATS.		MEN'S WOOL UNDERWEAR
$7.50 Quality, Now	$5.85	$2.50 Garment, Now	$2.00
$6.00 Quality, Now	$4.85	$2.00 Garment, Now	$1.60
$5.00 Quality, Now	$3.95	$1.50 Garment, Now	$1.20
$4.00 Quality, Now	$3.00	$1.00 Garment, Now	$.85

Men's $3.50 Hats, Now	$2.85	$3.50 Flannel Shirts	$2.85
Men's $3.00 Hats, Now	$2.35	$3.00 Flannel Shirts	$2.35
Men's $2.00 Hats, Now	$1.35	$2.50 Flannel Shirts	$1.85
		$1.75 & $2.00 Flannel Shirts	$1.35

Oregon Wool Blankets 1/4 Off WOOLEN MILL STORE

Mill-to-Man Clothiers

MARSHFIELD

OREGON

The Price is Right
The Quality Better

FOUND—Pair steel bow spectacles. Owner can get same at Times office by paying for notice.

FOR RENT—4-room flat. Apply R. F. Williams.

FOR SALE—A few pairs of choice Buff Cochins bantams. F. W. Wood, North Bend, Ore., Phone 691.

LOST—Last link of old gold watch fob in Marshfield or North Bend. Set with long stone. Reward for return to Smokehouse.

FOR SALE—Big single comb brown Leghorn Cockerels. From my best pen headed by Cockerel from the S. E. Beal strain, $1.50 each, two for $2.75. Eggs in season $1.00 per 15.—Geo. M. Seils, Box 447, North Bend, Ore.

FOR RENT—Store in Coos Building. Apply at Woollen Mill Store.

FOR RENT AND SALE—Six-room house, bath, basement and yard, for rent. Furniture for sale. Address: D. D. care Times.

WANTS TO RENT—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall wishes to rent a 5-room modern house centrally located. Three children, range in kitchen desired. Owners please report to Dr. Geo. W. Leslie.

LLOYD HOTEL Formerly the Garfield. Only family hotel in town. Opened under new management. Thoroughly renovated and refurnished. Rates $2 to $1 day; $2 to $5 per week. Rates by the month. Free Bath. Fine Main View. L. V. BRIDGES, Prop.

Read The Times' Want Ads.
Try The Times' Want Ads.

Things for you to Eat

While fresh fruits and vegetables are rather hard to get, just read our list and see what we have for you to eat:

Fresh Fruit	Fresh Vegetables
Pineapples	Squash
Eastern Cranberries	Beets
Pomegranates	Cabbages
Apples	Carrots
Pears	Parasnis
Lemons	Rutabagas
Oranges	Turnips
Bananas	Celery
Orange Peel	Cauliflower
Citron Peel	Lettuce
Mince Meat	Green Onions
Dates	Home Made Sauer Kraut
Coos Bay Honey	Home Made Dill Pickles
Dried Fruits, all kinds	Sweet Potatoes
	Sweet Pickles
	Sour Pickles

ALL GOLD CANNED GOODS
They look good, they taste better and they are the best.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERYMEN

Ollivant & Weaver

PHONE 275-J Central and 3rd Ave

Cash For Hides

C. F. McGEORGE

178 Broadway South, Marshfield

TRY THE Coos Bay Steam Laundry
PHONE 57-J.

ORCHESTRA AT CHANDLER FOR SUNDAY DINNER

Sunday Evening Dinners Proving Popular at the Big Hotel—Music Attracts Many.

Manager H. J. McKeown of The Chandler, expresses himself as pleased at the manner in which Coos Bay people are turning out to the Sunday evening dinners. There was a large crowd last Sunday evening, and Mr. McKeown says the orchestra feature which is proving attractive will be continued as long as the attendance warrants the additional expense. It is becoming quite the proper thing to arrange for Sunday evening at the Chandler and the dinner is becoming very popular, many families taking advantage of the occasion to make it a social evening out. The orchestra is one of the best on the Bay and the music excellent while the menu is equally meritorious.

Make your arrangements to meet your friends at the Chandler Sunday evening.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Rain in west and snow or rain in east tonight and Friday; high southerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 p. m., Jan. 6, by Mrs. E. Mings, special government meteorological observer.
Maximum.....48
Minimum.....33
At 4:43 p. m.....48
Precipitation......03
Wind, Southwest; cloudy.

Neill Coming.—Al Neill has wired from San Francisco that he will leave there on the next Plant with a 145-lb boxer to meet Jess Day here in the near future.

Storm Warning.—The United States Weather Bureau wired here this morning that a southwest storm was approaching the Oregon coast and high winds will probably prevail this afternoon and evening.

Bar Association Meets.—The Coos County Bar Association will hold a meeting at Coquille next Monday evening, the business session to be followed by a banquet and social session at the Ko-Keel Club.

After Dogs.—Marshal Carter has engaged a special dog catcher to round up the canines whose owners fail to pay the annual license by January 13. He says every dog that isn't properly tagged will be put in the pound.

Masons Meet.—Blanco Lodge, No. 48, A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting Saturday evening to confer degrees. Next Monday evening, the Royal Arch Chapter and the Commandery will hold a joint installation of officers.

After "Dead Heads"—At a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association last evening, it was decided to inaugurate an active campaign against the "Dead-heads" that is the customers who buy on credit and never pay. It is claimed that some of the "Dead-heads" make the rounds of the stores, running up as big a bill at one place as they can and then transferring their trade to a new house that is not aware of this bill. The dealers are now preparing a list of this class and each member will be furnished a list so that the "Dead-heads" will have troubles of their own henceforth. The meeting last night was well attended.

MILICOMA CLUB MEMBERS will celebrate their second anniversary with a smoker, musical program and speaking Saturday evening at the club rooms.

"DON RAMIRO"
Perfection of Clear Hanava goods.

EASTSIDE IS A WINNER.

Grand Annual Invoice Sale Now On at Finell's

For the purpose of cleaning up for the year, I have reduced my entire stock of goods from 25 PER CENT TO 60 PER CENT. This will give the buying public the greatest bargains ever offered them before in Coos county. We have goods for the whole family and every minute you lose at this sale will mean money lost to you, as bargains most wanted by you are most wanted by all, therefore we invite an early choosing while the stock is complete.

Buy now, buy at the right place and save money.

H. FINELL

350 N. Front St., I. O. O. F., Opposite Royal Theatre.

Personal Notes

W. P. EVANS of North Bend, was a Marshfield business visitor today.

GUS BERG of the C. A. Smith mill, is laid up with a boil on his hand.

W. C. BRADLEY will leave tomorrow for Portland and other northern points.

MISS MAUDE PAINTER has taken a position in Merchant and Kammerer's store.

SEYMOUR H. BELL arrived yesterday via Drain to look after business interests on the Bay.

WM. HOLLAND will leave Saturday for Portland and other northern points on business matters.

MISS ANNA COX, who has been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, is reported improving.

CAPT. PAINTER of the Flyer, who has been laid up with a carbuncle for some days, was able to resume his run today.

L. NESS, who has a ranch near Allegany, has returned from a summer spent near Seattle and will move on his ranch at once.

MISS MABEL MATHISON will entertain the Norwegian Lutheran Y. P. S. of Marshfield, at her home in Bunker Hill this evening.

CAPT. BOICE of the Life Saving Station, was in Marshfield today on business. He reports the new power boat is working nicely.

REV. G. LEROY HALL, the new pastor of the Marshfield Baptist church, and wife arrived here from Medford today. Rev. Hall will assume his new duties at once.

P. A. SANDBERG, city engineer, and E. L. C. Farrin expect to leave tomorrow for Portland to look after business. Mr. Sandberg while there expects to investigate the paving situation.

J. M. BLAKE and wife and baby expect to leave on the Breakwater for Spokane where they will visit relatives. Mr. Blake expects to return here in the near future to look after his street railway project.

GEORGE GOODRUM returned this morning from a trip to Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and other northern points. He reports that everything is booming there and especially at Seattle. It was awful cold and he says it makes him shiver to think about it. No, Mrs. Goodrum did not arrive with him despite the "inside information" that Roger Sherman and others had been passing around among his friends.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The tug Gleaner sailed this morning with a cargo of general merchandise for Gardiner.

The Advent arrived in from the south today and will load with lumber here. The Nann Smith sailed this morning for Bay Point with a cargo of lumber from the C. A. Smith mill.

MR. HARRY YOUNG, representing the Red Wing Advertising Company of Red Wing, Minn., the LARGEST LEATHER and BANK advertisers in AMERICA, is at the CHANDLER showing a fine LINE of art calendars for 1911.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Bids will be received at I. S. Kaufman & Co., office in Marshfield up to 12 o'clock noon Monday, January 10, 1910, for the construction of a union Tabernacle on Second and Anderson streets near Chandler hotel. Tabernacle to be 80-100 feet and must be completed by February 1, 1910.

Plans and specifications may be seen at office of I. S. Kaufman & Co. Right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

BUILDING COMMITTEE.

FOR SALE—TENTS, PACK SADDLE, NEW AND SECOND-HAND GOODS OF ALL KINDS.—180 BROADWAY, 2D-HAND STORE.

You want to buy your groceries from us because you want the best. If you don't find it so, we want to return your money.

F. A. SACCHI
Corner Commercial and Second St.

THE POWER OF ONE EGGNOG.

"TALK about the trials of a woman whose husband is late for dinner or doesn't come when he is expected," says the woman who has had experiences; "it is annoying enough at any time, but it is nothing in a civilized country to what it is when you are off in the wilds somewhere and dinner and dinner getting are two of the most important things in life."

"When Mr. Blank took me and the baby some years ago to try life on a Texas sheep ranch we found there were a good many things in the world that we had no conception of before, and life took on a different aspect. It was a happy life, but it was not an easy one. I had to do all kinds of housework, the hardest kind of housework, and cooking in a house situated in a Texas chaparral is not cooking as it is done even in a New York flat. We lived chiefly on game which Mr. Blank shot as we needed it. Our vegetables were all canned—peas, corn and a certain number of things we kept always on hand."

"I suppose I made myself a great deal more work than was necessary and did twice as much cooking, but I was used to everything in eastern style, and it did not occur to me that I could have things in any other way. We always had dessert every day for dinner. I made cake, and practically we lived in the wilds of Texas exactly as we could here."

"Well, the day when Mr. Blank did not come home to dinner was New Year's. There was not so much difference between the days—they were all working days—but I had prepared a special dinner. Mr. Blank was going off to the dipping vat, but he was to be back at 2 o'clock for dinner, and I prepared a good one. It was rabbit, I think, that day. Our nearest neighbors were a family of Alsatians whom we knew very well and who had been very kind to us. That morning before breakfast Mr. Blank had ridden over there on business of some kind. They had made eggnog to celebrate the day, and of course he must accept their hospitality and take a glass."

"Now, a good strong eggnog is not exactly a before breakfast drink for a man who is not accustomed to taking it at that hour in the morning, and the eggnog was a strong one. It was New Year's day, and eggnog ingredients can be found in Texas when potatoes cannot. When Mr. Blank came home he

HE MANAGED TO CRAWL UP. could not eat his breakfast and only took a few swallows of coffee and mounted his horse and rode away.

"I went to work and cooked dinner in my best style. I had a little oil stove, for it was always warm where we were, except when a norther came up. Everything was done to perfection and ready to put on the table at 2 o'clock, but Mr. Blank did not come. I looked out, but he was nowhere in sight. Two o'clock passed, 2:30, 3 o'clock, and still he did not come."

"Any one would have supposed that I would have been frightened and think something had happened to him, for he is one of the most considerate of men and this was a most unusual occurrence. But I was not frightened. If anything had happened probably the men would have brought me word. I had a good dinner prepared, and he did not come, and on New Year's day, I grew more and more angry as the time passed, until by night I was hardly in a condition to speak. By and by he rode up. He seemed to feel my mood. Anyway, his first words were: 'I suppose you are provoked.' 'Yes,' I said, 'I am.' 'He was angry then, and he went off to stake out his horse without another word. It didn't last long, however, and we came to an understanding.'"

"It seems that that eggnog, taken the first thing in the morning, had been too much for him. He had hardly left the house before he was overcome with an irresistible desire to sleep. He says he never knew how he reached the dipping vat, for he slept most of the way on his horse's back. When he got there he found working was simply an impossibility. The men had a little shanty, and he managed to crawl up there, throw himself on the floor, and there he slept all day long without stirring until night, when he had slept off the effects of the eggnog."

"I do not look upon eggnog now as such an innocuous drink as I did at one time, and I know there was never a wife who lived through such a long day as I did waiting for Mr. Blank to come home that New Year's day in Texas."—New York Times.