

THE SENSATION OF NORTH BEND A. W. MYERS & CO.'S BIG SALE

WHICH OPENED
FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 7th, 1910

Hundreds of people stormed the store at the opening hours. Almost crushed in the Big Glass Front. Ten ladies each received a 10 yd. Dress Pattern Free. Following are the names of the winning ladies: Florence McAfee, Winifred Lighthall, Mrs. W. J. Coleman, Mrs. M. Kern, Miss Ida Redfield, Mrs. Tennessee Culbertson, Maude Akers, Mrs. W. J. Hinch, Mrs. John Leman and Miss C. F. Payder.

Thousands of Dollars Are Being Sacrificed

Everybody buying---everybody satisfied. Hundreds after hundreds of people have gone from our store singing praises to this being the Greatest Sale of the Greatest stock of High Grade Merchandise at the most sacrificing prices it had yet been their privilege to see; and taking with them more merchandise for the same amount of money than they had ever dreamed could be possible.

FOR TEN DAYS THIS MIGHTY BATTLE WILL CONTINUE and new features will be added each and every day. DON'T HESITATE, DON'T DELAY, BUT COME NOW for it is possible that some of the very bargains you may want might be closed out.

They are Going! Going!! Going!!!

$42,000 WORTH OF THE BEST MERCHANDISE possible to buy is being distributed among the homes of North Bend and country throughout Coos Bay. Come everybody. Come every day. Come six times a day and you will find that each visit is a profitable one---come when the wildest dreams of your most exalted agitation may be realized. Come where your saving will most equal your purchase.

Remember this Mighty Sale will continue for ONLY TEN LONG DAYS.

A. W. Myers & Co.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight and Sunday fair except rain in west portion. Easterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 p. m., Jan. 7, by Mrs. E. Mingus, special government meteorological observer.
Maximum... 47
Minimum... 37
At 4:43 p. m. ... 42
Precipitation... .86
Wind, Southwest; cloudy.

Wed In Coquille.—On Monday, January 3, at the office of Judge Holden, in this city, George Bowen and Miss Aderista Hall, both of Marshfield, were united in marriage, Judge E. G. D. Holden officiating.

Meet Tonight.—The Foresters of America will hold their installation of officers at the Odd Fellows hall this evening which will be followed by a banquet. The wives and families of the members and a few friends have been invited to participate.

Davis Is President.—Through a typographical error, it was stated in The Times last evening that L. W. Traver was elected president of the Marshfield Fire Department when it should have stated that Jack Davis was elected president. Mr. Traver is the nominee for chief.

Taken Under Advisement.—The county commissioners have taken under advisement the plan for opening the road to connect up Front street with North Bend. The matter may be decided at the present session of the commissioners. They also took under advisement J. M. Blake's application of a franchise for an electric line across the proposed highway.

Plan For Road.—J. M. Blake before leaving for Spokane opened negotiations with Wm. Noble and other owners of pile-drivers for beginning construction of the proposed street-car system. Mr. Noble is now preparing to bid on driving the piling on the routes in Railroad addition. Many piling will have to be driven. Just when the contract will be let is not known.

Bell Has New Deal.—Seymour H. Bell left today for Tacoma where he will consult with Henry Hewitt relative to some deals he has in progress here. Just what they are, Mr. Bell is not saying. According to gossip about town, he is again negotiating for the Oregon Coal and Navigation Company's holdings on the Bay. Whether any change has been made in the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company holdings, Mr. Bell did not announce.

Will Build.—The Norwegian Lutheran congregation here is making efforts to secure a site and erect a church. Rev. Rasmussen of North Bend, is directing the work. Some of the funds have been raised and it is planned to give a big social at the Finnish hall next Saturday evening to raise more funds for the purpose.

NORTH BEND NEWS

L. A. Frey has gone to Portland and Eugene for a few weeks stay.

Miss Harriet Ferry and Mrs. Bell of Marshfield, visited North Bend Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Conklin and children of Ferndale, are visiting at the home of Ed. Conklin.

Rev. J. Richard Olsen held services at the Eastside school house Friday evening.

Mrs. A. J. Savage has been visiting at the Everett home on Sherman avenue this week.

Mrs. Frank Prey and Mrs. Martin Breen of Eastside, were North Bend shoppers yesterday.

J. C. Gray and Fred Hollister have bought R. E. Shine's real estate holdings adjoining Florence.

Eugene Robinson has joined the engineering forces at work on the Coos Bay and Boise railroad.

J. W. Grout and A. L. Redfield are rival candidates for appointment of road commissioner in this district.

Mrs. E. A. Eickworth and Miss Susie Eickworth of South Marshfield, Mrs. Rolanson and Mrs. F. P. Norton and Mrs. L. White were shopping in North Bend Friday.

G. A. Niehaus has resigned as manager of the North Bend Box Factory and returned to his home at West Berkeley, Cal. G. Racouillat of Bridle Vale, Oregon, succeeds him.

The North Bend high school football teams have arranged to meet the other high school teams of the county here on the following dates: Myrtle Point, January 21; Bandon, February 4; Coquille, February 11.

A surprise party was given on Wednesday evening at the Metzler home on North Bend Heights as a farewell for Marion Reynolds previous to his departure for Berkeley where he will attend the University of California. A very enjoyable evening was spent with games and other amusements after which refreshments were served. The following were present: Prof. A. B. Beaumont, Miss Ellen Anderson, Ethel Metzler, Archie Taylor, Harvey Russell, Marion Hevener, Grace Murr, Edith Alger, Grace Fulton, Amy Reynolds, Edith Raab, Jay Gray, Ivan Metzler.

The Christian Endeavor Society met and held a business session in the Presbyterian church in Union avenue, afterward going to the Presbyterian Armory on Meade street where they spent the evening with games. Those present were: Rev. J. P. Lininger, Clyde Smith, Frank Newkirk, Miss Ida Mitchell, Iona Smith, Joe Winsor, Lyle Chapelle, Miss Josephine Griffin, Ray Hevener, Inez Anderson, Ivan Metzler, Misses Annie and Alice Cox, Wm. Roundtree, John Emerson, Taylor, Roy Fulton, Paul Welling, Clyde Thomkins, Fred Reynolds, Miss Josephine Ward, Hermann Mende, Duncan Henry, Emil Peterson, Helen Mende, Grace Fulton, Grace Murr, Violet Johnson, Esther Imhoff, Carl Golder, Wm. Ward, Amy Reynolds.

MUSIC with DINNER at THE CHANDLER, SUNDAY evening.

THE ROYAL

THE PLAYHOUSE of QUALITY

TONIGHT.

LIFE OF MOSES.

(A Beautiful Biblical Picture)

COUNTRY LIFE IN A FLAT.

TICKLED TO DEATH.

(You will be pretty near when you see it.)

SUNDAY NIGHT.

PINE RIDGE FEUD

(A Great Melodrama.)

FOUND IN A TAXICAB.

(Comedy.)

ADMISSION 10 CENTS

SPECIAL WEEKLY SALE OF Heating Stoves AT THE Pioneer Hdw. Co.

We are offering for this week only, January 3rd to 8th, a special reduction on all heating stoves in our stock. The weather is cold and now is your chance to keep warm cheap.

No. 18 Bessimer box steel heating stove, reg. $5.50 Sale Price $4.00
No. 22 Bessimer box steel heating stove, reg. $6.50 Sale Price $5.00
No. 23 Lachade Oak Coal Stove, reg. $15.00 Sale Price $12.00
No. 11 Lachade Oak Coal Stove, reg. $7.50 Sale Price $6.00
No. 11 Hot Blast Coal Stove, reg. $8.00 Sale Price $7.00
No. 550 Trilby Oak Coal Stove, reg. $6.50 Sale Price $5.00
No. 016 Victor Air Tight Wood Stove, reg. $1.50 Sale Price $1.25
No. 018 Victor Air Tight Wood Stove, reg. $2.00 Sale Price $1.50
No. 195 Ideal Air Tight Wood Stove, reg. $7.00 Sale Price $5.75
No. 118 Alamo Air Tight Wood Stove, reg. $12.00 Sale Price $10.00
No. 118 Mascot Hot Blast, reg. $11.50 Sale Price $9.00