Meet Friday.—The W. C. T. U. of Marshfield will meet Friday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage.

Fractured Arm.—Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, who fell and sustained a fracture of the right forearm and some bad bruises at her home the other day, is getting along nicely. She tripped and fell down several steps.

Audit Books.—W. F. McKee was engaged this morning by Chairman Hennessey of the Finance Committee of the city council to audit the books of the recorder and treasurer and to have an inventory of the city's belongings prepared.

No Council Meeting.—There was no meeting of the Marshfield city council meeting last evening, only a few showing up as most of the members understood that adjournment was taken at the last session until a week from last night. No business of any importance was to have come up, anyway.

Owls Initiate.—Last evening, the Marshfield Nest of Owls had a big initiation and celebration, eight new members being taken in. A banquet followed. Music was furnished by the Owls' band. President Wm.
Schrock of the North Bend Nest, and Mr. Barr of North Bend, were the principal speakers. The local Nest is making a campaign to secure 200 members.

Yale Quits Road.—Word has been received there that Jack Yale has finally quit the road. He has been traveling through this section for forty years for Levi Strauss and Company of San Francisco, and while his employers had been urging him to retire and "take life easy," he kept his old route until January 1.
Geo. J. Senk of Eureka, has taken his place.

ELKS be on hand for the big session WEDNESDAY night. You will miss the treat of the season if you don't.—George Goodrum, Sec.

BUSINESS WAS NEVER BETTER

Prominent Marshfield Business Man Is Enthusiastic Over Trade Conditions.

"Business was never better," remarked Albert J. Mendel of the Hub Clothing and Shoe Company, in response to the question of trade conditions. Continuing he said: "We have enjoyed the largest trade we have ever had during the present sale. In the first three days of the sale we sold more shoes than was sold during the whole time that the Carleton Shoe Store was conducted on Central avenue. While it is true that the Carleton shoe stock was the magnet that attracted the crowds, we did an equally large business in our clothing department as our one-third discount was too great an attraction to be resisted. One good thing about it is that the business keeps up day after day and we look for a large trade all season. Our success proves that our motto "Cash Only" Money Talks" does the business when backed by advertising that lets the people know it."

Transportation Company

COQUILLE, Ore., Jan. 12.—It was announced today that the North Pacific Steamship Company had purchased the Coquille River Transportation Company and would assume charge of that Company's business on the Coquille.

The North Pacific Steamship Company is controlled by Chas. P. Doe and owns and operates the steamships Geo. W. Elder, Roanoke, Eureka and the Newport, the latter having recently been put in the Coquille River coal trade.

Personal Notes

W. C. BICKFORD expects to leave Friday for San Francisco.

C. C. GOING is moving today into his new home in West Marshfield.

H. NASBURG returned today from a few weeks' stay in San Francisco.

B. F. ROSS, the Catching Inlet pioneer who has been quite ill, is improving.

GEORGE THOMASON will leave the latter part of the week for San Francisco.

RAY BOWRON and wife of Ten Mile, are guests at the home of Chas. Hickox.

TOM NICOLS returned today from a two weeks business trip to San Francisco and other California points.

JOHN BLASCA and wife of Coos River, will leave the last of the week for California where they will spend some time.

G. H. BENNETT, who came here a short time ago from Oklahoma to engage in the real estate business, will leave on the M. F. Plant for California where he will spend some time.

MISS MARY BLACK and her sister, Mrs. George Ross, expect to leave shortly for San Francisco where the former will consult specialists.
They may go this week if Miss Black's condition will permit the trip.

GEO. H. LADUE, of Walla Walla, Wash., is making one of his occasional prospecting tours to Coos Bay. He expresses himself as surprised at the growth and prosperity of the Bay cities and greatly pleased over his investments here.

T. R. HADLEY WILL

T. R. Hadley, who has been with the Carleton Jewelry Company, here for the past eighteen months and has recently been trustee of the business, will leave with Mrs. Hadley tomorrow for their old home in Michigan.
They will make the trip by the southern route and visit at various points along the way.

Mr. Hadley will be succeeded as trustee of the Carleton Jewelry Company by E. H. Morrissey. The departure of Mr. Hadley and his wife will be regretted by the many friends the estimable couple have made during their stay on Coos Bay.
