BORN
EDLIN—To Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Edlin of Bay Park, Sunday, January 23, a daughter.

No Council.—The Marshfield city council will not meet this week, having adjourned last Tuesday evening for two weeks.

Married Sunday.—Last evening, James Pettit and Miss Alma Mick-land were married, the Rev. H. I.
Rutledge officiating. Mr. Pettit is a driver for the Coos Bay Steam Laundry and his bride has been fore-lady in that institution. Both have many friends who will unite in extending felicitations to them.

Easterners Leave.—The party of easterners here to inspect the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company's holdings, left yesterday via Drain for Portland. While they made no announcement, it is understood that the deal is practically closed. Seymour H. Bell was expected in today by Drain but did not arrive.

Neil Coming.—Al Neil and the boxer he is to bring to meet Jess Day have wired John Herron that they missed the M. F. Plant but will come on the Fifield which is due in to Bandon early this week. This delay will probably necessitate a postponement of the bout from next Saturday night when it was scheduled to the pulled off.

Oil Man Here.—Mr. Dunham, the oil expert who spent sometime on the Bay in the fall, has returned from California where he spent the holidays and will continue his investigation of alleged oil deposits in this section. He expects other Californians here soon and if they are satisfied with the prospects, a test hole will be sunk soon.
