Council Tonight.—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up various city matters.

No Advance.—Hugh McLain declared today that he was not going to advance the price of crushed rock here this year. "I don't know what the others are going to do but I am still selling rock at the old price and will continue to do so," said Mr. McLain today.

Three Fined.—The Marshfield police court had the busiest session this morning that it has had in a long time. Recorder Butler imposed a fine of $10 and costs on Alex McNamee, the logger at whom "Gumbo" Kelly took a shot yesterday. Two other loggers were fined $5 and costs apiece for intoxication.

Change Operators.—Mr. Hyde, who has been the wireless operator on the Nann Smith since she was so equipped has been promoted to the station in the San Francisco Chronicle building. He has been succeeded on the Nann Smith by Operator Parsons who has been running along this coast for some time. Mr. Parsons is now making his first trip on the Nann Smith.

Arrange Preliminary.—Seth Johnson of North Bend and Barney Gilson, McGurn's sparring partner, have been matched for an eight round bout next Saturday night as a preliminary to the Day-McGurn match. The other preliminary has not been definitely arranged yet.

Sleet Bothers.—Sleet and cold late yesterday and last night converted the walks and streets into stretches of ice and made traveling difficult. This morning Mirrasoul's delivery horse fell down at the corner of Front and Commercial and had to be released from the harness and rig before it could again regain its feet. No damage was done.

Court Next Week.—Judge John S. Coke will convene a special term of circuit court at Coquille next Monday to hear the Port of Coos Bay case and the $100,000 damage suit of the Reynolds Lumber Company vs. the Simpson Lumber Company. Other matters will also come up. Judge Harris of Eugene will be here in April to try the case of R. A. Graham vs. the Spreckels Bros., the Southern Pacific et al.

Postpone Hearing.—The hearing of Thos. Crawford, proprietor of the Cold Tea Saloon, which was to have taken place before Justice Pennock at 1 o'clock this afternoon has been postponed until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning to enable Crawford to secure witnesses.
