"Good cheer is a great lubricant; it olls all of life's machinery. Shakespeare says:

"A merry heart goes all the day, Your sad tires in a mile-a."

"There is no other life habit which can give such a prolific return in happiness and satisfaction as that of being cheerful under all circumstances. If the resolution to cultivate cheerfulness is strongly made at the very outset, it will not be people, that no good cause shall lack difficult to form the cheerful habit, a champion, and that evil shall not and it will be the best protection against suffering and disappoint-

"Cheerfulness is also a great producer. It adds wonderfully to one's active ability, and increases mental and physical power. It makes hosts of friends, and helps us to be interesting and agreeable."

Not only is the above very true but it is also a fact that cheerfulness will take careful note you will find that those who are gloomy and depressed have no especial reasons for being so. You will find cherful people who have just as many cares and worries. They are cheerful because they prefer to be that way and make it a point to be that way.
