

Great White Goods Sale

AT

THE BIG STORE

Attracting Unusual Interest

Many lines entirely closed out before the noon hour, crowds of people thronged our door, long before the opening hour and it was a continued rush of anxious shoppers who came early to take advantage.

We wanted every one to come early and we wish to apologize to those who had intended to buy articles but found them entirely closed out.

New attractions for tomorrow's big event, many new things to feast your eyes on.—Come and keep on coming as we are sure to save you money.

A Diary of the many things you may expect during the sale—INDIA LINONS, BATISTE, LONG CLOTH, NAINSOOKS, PIQUES, MULLS, ORGANDIES, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, MUSLIN UNDERWEAR OF ALL KINDS, FANCY AND TAILORED SHIRT WAISTS, ETC., ETC.

"FLAXON" the new white goods that looks just like linon, washes and retains its same linon finish, the goods you read so much about in all the big trade papers.—Big variety here to choose from.

REV. SHANNON OPENS REVIVAL

revival would result in several hundred conversions.

The gist of some of the out of the ordinary remarks made by him during the evening were as follows:

"I expect my audiences to exercise the sense of an old cow. When hay is thrown her, she eats the hay and leaves the thistles. I throw out lots of thistles with the hay and some will probably object to them but they like the cow should take the hay and leave the thistles. I know my business and throw out the thistles for a certain effect.

"We are about to take the evening's collection. Don't be cheap skates and throw in pennies. Keep your pennies, we don't want them. I expected to raise $100 today, but the weather has been bad. I don't want the money for myself because money doesn't worry me. I want it for the cause of this tabernacle.

"Of course Marshfield can support a tabernacle like this. As it stands, it represents about $2,300 that the Christians of Marshfield have contributed in an effort to reclaim the unsaved. If Marshfield can support fourteen saloons and prize fights now and then, it can support Christian work like is going to be done in this tabernacle.

"We are not going to have any long prayers. If you want to pray long, do so at your home. It will only take about an hour for me to perform this operation, so look pleasant. The ladies will kindly remove their hats and keep them off during these services.

"Troubles are like babies—the more you nurse them, the larger they grow.

"I don't want to have to admonish any one not to disturb these meetings. At one place, I did have to call down a person for disturbing the meetings and later I found he was an idiot and it was one on me. If you molest us, I will simply make up my mind you are an idiot.

"California has more heretics than any place I know. If the heretic has anything in his noodle except clabbered milk, I can convince him of the error of his ways.

"One thing Marshfield men must learn and that is respect for women. I have seen men and youths here sit around and blow their filthy cigarette smoke into women's faces. If they did that in Kentucky or Virginia, they would promptly receive a jolt in the cocoa between the lights that would learn them something. If one of them did it to my wife, I would throw off my coat and knock hell out of him." Rev. Shannon also bitterly condemned Marshfield men for swearing, in a similar vein to his treatment of cigarette smokers.

He said that he knew that he said and would say many things that many would censure and condemn but he likened his critics to a mule. In an illustration of the saving of drowning men by the life-savers, he said, "No, it wasn't the Coos Bay life savers. They would be afraid they would get their feet wet."

"If a rooster crowed every time, a church member went wrong, you would all be deaf.

"I wouldn't trade places with Rockefeller. He is bald and can't eat a square meal. He looks monified, petrified and ossified.

"When I told Californians that Marshfield was building a tabernacle that would seat two thousand people, they were almost dumfounded. All they had heard of Marshfield was of its prize fights, etc."

Rev. Shannon announced that family prayer meetings would be conducted at the various homes throughout the city each morning during the services and that meetings would be held at the tabernacle each afternoon and evening.

A choir of over 100 voices has been organized for the services and will be further enlarged.

MANY ATTEND OPENING.

"The Shamrock" Attracts Large Crowd Saturday Evening.

"The Shamrock," Tom Madden's place on North Front street was opened Saturday evening in an auspicious manner. There was a large attendance, a Scotch bag-pipe being one of the features of the musical program. A lunch was served, several speeches were made and the new proprietor toasted. Mr. Madden is planning other entertainments for what promises to become the most popular thirst emporium on the Bay.

Now Open for Business

We beg the privilege of announcing that we are again in the Bakery business in Marshfield. We have purchased the Cortell Delicatessen on Second Street, just opposite the Chandler Hotel. We have remodeled and built a large brick bake oven, put in steam and full new equipment.

Our plant, is up-to-date in every respect.

We believe that our city is amply large to support two good bakeries and, therefore, we have spared no expense in fitting up a modern shop. We expect to give the people of Marshfield just as good goods and as complete service as they could get in a city four times its size. We will carry a complete line in Bakery Goods, also Bakery Lunch; we are also prepared to fill all orders for Lunchees for pleasure trips or camping parties. Special attention given to Banquets and Parties.

What we aim to do is to please you.

Remember us in this line when you expect company for luncheon or club gathering and rest assured that whatever you may order will not only please YOU, but every guest will appreciate it.

Respectfully yours,

Davis' Steam Bakery
