Open Store.—Milo Pierson and Hillis Short expect to open a store at Ten Mile soon.

Elks Meet.—The Marshfield lodge of Elks will meet this evening. Secretary Goodrum announces that there is business of importance to come up and urges all members to be present.

Dog Licenses.—Marshal Carter has collected about $250 as dog tax in Marshfield for the current year. He expects to gather in about $50 more, making the largest amount ever collected here. There are about 100 canines in town, as near as he can ascertain.

Plank Costs More.—R. K. Booth, manager of the retail yards of the

C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Company, announces that the cost of planking streets is sixty-five cents per square yard instead of sixty cents as he was understood to state at the paving meeting the other night.

Port Case Up.—At the hearing of the Coos Bay Port case today before Judge Coke, the balance of the documentary evidence was introduced. Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock the hearing will be resumed and the final arguments begin, probably.

Sell Tract.—The Archer Land Company today sold eighty acres of land southeast of the old Bay City mill to an eastern syndicate for about $10,000. The land was bought by a party who visited here last summer and was so impressed with this section that he influenced his friends to invest here.

Beach Party.—A picnic party is being organized for February 22, Washington's birthday. The government works will be the scene of the outing and the Flyer has been chartered for the trip. The party will take the place of the annual picnics which the Oklahoma people have been holding heretofore.

Engagement Announced.—Friends of the couple have been apprised of the engagement of Harry Nasburg of Marshfield and Miss Hazel McGraw of San Francisco. Miss McGraw is well-known here, she and her parents having formerly resided in this section. The marriage will take place early in the spring or summer.

Admit Judge.—The McIntosh Bald-headed Club has voted Judge John F. Hall to honorary membership. The organization has a shooting reserve on the McIntosh ranch on Coos River and all of the members are lacking in hirsute adornments on the top of their cranium, "bald-headed" having recently been added to the title.

Will Celebrate.—Myrtle Lodge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, is arranging for a big celebration of the 46th anniversary of the order at their hall next Saturday evening, February 19th. The members of the families of the lodge members and a few friends have been invited. Refreshments will be served and the affair promises to be a most jolly one. The Marshfield lodge is now said to be the oldest branch of the Knight of Pythias in Oregon.

Oldest Arrest.—Leslie King, or "Big" King as he is generally known around his home at Coquille, has been ordered placed under arrest when he reaches Astoria on the Alliance today. Yesterday Marshal Carter received a message from Deputy Sheriff Clyde Gage asking for King's arrest here and Marshal Carter found he had sailed on the Alliance. He then notified Sheriff Gage who had just returned from Coos River and the latter wired Astoria. King is charged with deserting his wife whom he was compelled to marry a short time ago.

Inspector Here.—A pure food inspector is understood to be on the Bay today and in consequence there is said to be somewhat of a commotion in some quarters. It has been discovered that butter squares have been shrinking and the inspector is said to have filed charges against some Coquille Valley dealers on this account. It is stated by the butter producers that there is a shrinkage of an ounce or two in the bricks in a few weeks after they are made and that it cannot be avoided. The inspector is said to insist that a brick of butter labelled sixteen ounces must weigh sixteen ounces when the consumers buys it.

Sails South.—The windjammer, John A. went down the bay today with a cargo of lumber from the depot wharf and will sail for the south. Captain Sellman is master of the vessel.

For Wooden Blocks.—It was stated today that petitions are being circulated to have Market avenue and Anderson avenue paved with wooden blocks on a concrete foundation and that a considerable amount of the property had been signed up.

When he crossed the ferry at Cheeto river. The ferryman noticed when he took out his purse to pay him that there was $200 in gold and $5 in silver.

The man caught followed Ryan across the ferry soon after. He had no money and could not pay the ferryman. Later, at Port Orford, he displayed a large sum of gold, it is said. This clew appealed to Sheriff Tyler and he at once set out to find the suspect. His search ended when he came upon his quarry in a deserted shingle camp. He could not make the arrest alone, so he got up a posse.
