SEATTLE POLITICS ARE STORMY

Mayor Gill's New Administration Starts Today With Liberal Policy and is Met by Protests.

(By Associated Press.) SEATTLE, Wash., March 21.—The new Republican city administration elected on a platform favoring a liberal administration of saloon and Sunday laws, was inaugurated today with prospects of a tempestuous career. One of Mayor Gill's first acts was to remove Fire Chief Bringham, who is subject to civil service rules, and who will fight his removal in the courts. A storm of wrath greeted the Mayor's announcement that the large wooden barracks on Eighth avenue, South, built a year ago, would be continued. The lewd women have not occupied it because of popular protest. Now it will be the seat of the so-called restricted district. The property is alleged to be owned by wealthy politicians.

FIRE DESTROYS STOLTZ HOME

Defective Chimney Blamed for Conflagration on South Inlet.

Fire supposedly originating from a defective flue soon after midnight, Saturday night, destroyed the George Stoltz place on Salmo Island in South Inlet. The place was totally destroyed and Mr. Stoltz and family narrowly escaped. All were sleeping soundly when the fire broke out and had gained such headway that it was impossible to check it. The barn and house were both destroyed with all their contents. Mr. Stoltz is understood to have carried about $500 insurance on his belongings. He and his family, with the exception of a daughter, who is staying at Dorsay Kreitzer's home and attending school in Marshfield, are now at Empire.

SHERIFF GAGE ARRESTED SUNDAY PLEADS GUILTY, ACCEPTS PARDON

Jack Carter, Chief of Police, Is Suddenly "Jerked"—Gets Freedom.

WILL LYNCH SELLS HIS LAST DRINK.

Dr. Horsfall in Hands of the Great Physician—Health is Restored.

(By Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.) TABERNACLE CALENDER. Land slide at the Tabernacle last night; 101 decided since Friday. Shannon will continue another week. Get busy. Mrs. Shannon will speak tonight. Everybody welcome.

The law and gospel certainly met face to face at the great meeting in the Tabernacle when Sheriff Gage of Coos county surrendered to Jesus Christ. Jack Carter, the Chief of Police of Marshfield, was also arrested by the spirit of God, and gained his freedom. Many prominent "convicts" gained their liberty. The young man who tends bar at the Eagle buffet declared that he had poured his last glass of booze, and decided for Jesus Christ. A saloon-keeper's wife surrendered. Saloon-keepers, (both who stand before and behind the bar) came and looked in on the meeting last night. Many startling events took place. Men are thinking. Sheriff Gage, after he had decided for Christ, went out of the Tabernacle last night and pulled a saloon-man for selling liquor on Sunday.

FIREMEN TO STRIKE. Effort to Adjust Labor Trouble May Prove Futile.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 21.—When C. P. Neill, United States Commissioner of Labor, met representatives of the trainmen of forty-seven railroads today, a peaceful settlement appeared to be as far away as ever and is generally believed that a strike of 27,000 men is imminent. Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, has returned to Washington and apparently given up hope of mediation.

Capt. Johnny Klein Carries Out Threat Against His Accomplices.

CONFESSES ON EVE OF PRISON TERM.

Angered Because They Would Not Support His Family During His Term.

(By Associated Press.) PITTSBURG, Pa., March 21.—Greater Pittsburg again has a councilmanic graft scandal. Captain Johnny Klein, about to be taken to serve a sentence for receiving money in 1908 for his vote in the selection of a city depository, has made good his threat to "pull down the props and let the sky fall." He has "told on" his alleged accomplices because they would not make provision for his family while he is serving his sentence and the biggest shakeup and investigation of municipal affairs in the history of the city is in progress, involving every variety of alleged graft and "easy money" for the officials and others. District Attorney Blakeley has asked the Court that he be allowed to promise immunity to all those who enter pleas of guilty on charges he would later bring against them. Judge Cohen consented to the arrangements and the matter is now in the hands of the Grand Jury.

INSTITUTE FOR COOS COUNTY

County Superintendent Bunch Arranges for a Training School.

COQUILLE, Oregon, March 21.—The Sentinel says: "County Superintendent Bunch came down to Coquille yesterday to be in attendance at the meeting of the special institute committee which has in charge the matter of a teacher's institute for this county this fall.

"This is the second meeting of the committee and already they have accomplished wonders in the way of plans for the proposed institute. At their last meeting which was held about six weeks ago it was decided to petition the county court to appropriate the sum of $150.00 for the purpose of partly defraying the expenses of an institute, and at the last meeting of the body the matter was placed before them with the result that they responded at once with the sum requested.

"This, together with the money already in the institute fund makes a total of $210.00 and the plan of assessing each teacher of the county $1.00 will swell the fund to nearly $300.00 which will amply provide for the expense for the year. "Two instructors will be secured from the outside, one for the primary grades and one for the higher grades. The plan is that the session shall take the form of a school of methods rather than a cramming school as has previously been the case. No studies will be taken up, the whole time being consumed in teaching the teachers how to teach.

"The proposed school of teaching will be held from August 1 to 12 inclusive and the school boards of the county will be requested to close the schools of the county for this period of time. It will also be suggested that the teachers receive one week's pay for the time they are in attendance at the institute. The regular teachers' examination will take place during the last three days of the institute."
