OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.
Official Paper of Coos County.

BOOSTER IS GREAT ASSET.
AN ENERGETIC, resourceful, active booster is one of the best assets any community can have. Many such characters create the metropolis, regardless of natural disadvantages of geographical location. On the other hand, the knocker is the greatest disadvantage any locality has to contend with—the shortsighted, pessimistic, cold water barnacle, who disparages his community and plays traitor to his home city. A few of them will retard the progress of any section—many of them will kill its development. As those who live by the sword usually perish by the sword, so those who live by knocking usually perish by the hammer.

The real estate agent who tries to make a sale by queering some other agent's customer, usually loses not only his own sale, but the chance to make future sales which the other sale would have made possible through bringing in prospective purchasers. The man who speaks disparagingly of his own region, creates a bad impression in the minds of strangers that makes them suspicious of the locality and its citizenship and loath to cast their lot with such. But the visitor who only meets boosters goes away favorably impressed, if not with the country, then with its population. The process of creating a city operates like the endless chain. Every new settler brings others, they in turn bring still others, and when the work is fairly under way, it is like the snowball rolling down hill, gathering momentum and size all the way until it becomes irresistible in its progress and cannot be checked. To start the endless chain, boosters are necessary. To continue it, every one must become a booster, for the boosting spirit is contagious and irresistible in its effects, and does more to attract people of the right class than perfection in climate or multiplicity of resources and golden opportunities.

TIRED OF PAPER RAILROADS
There has been a good deal of talk in this section during the past year regarding railroad subsidies and some efforts have been made to raise such bonuses, with varying success, but the Enterprise believes there is a form of subsidy to which many people of this section would contribute liberally, and that would be to contract to pay liberal amounts for the first tickets issued over a railroad from Coos county to the main line of the Southern Pacific. The writer has heard a number say that they would give amounts of from $25 up for first tickets over the line to Roseburg or other town on the main line with which the road may connect. Many here have contributed to bonuses from which they have received no returns, they have signed agreements with paper railroads without number, but this is a form of bonus from which no harm would come if the road wasn't built, and much good would come from the ticket investment if the building of a road was thereby encouraged.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.
One smile can glorify a day,
One word true hope impart;
The least disciple need not say
There are no alms to give away,
If love be in the heart.

FULFILLMENT.
I launched my boat in the morning,
In the gold of the summer day
And watched with pride and a boundless joy her white sails fade away;
And I straightway fell to dreaming
Of the lands across the sea
Where she would gather treasures
And bring them back to me.

My boat returned in the twilight
Of a cheerless winter's day;
She dropped her soiled and tattered sails—then still at anchor lay,
And I called out to her captain,
"Where are my treasures rare—
The gold and pearls and perfume,
My good ship was to bear?"

He looked at me, and in his eyes lay pity kind and deep;
"We bring no gold nor jewels rare that tropic islands keep.
I have not touched upon these shores where priceless treasures be—
I but bring home a living thing—a soul that was lost at sea."
—Gertrude V. Gabbis.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

Is there any home in the world in which daughter gets up and gets breakfast for Father, and Mother doesn't appear at the table, unless Mother is bedfast, or buried?

One way of being remembered is to leave behind a lot of unpaid accounts.

Two or more is plural, but it is singular that we speak of man and wife as one.

If you are sensitive as the peach crop you will encounter about the same number of frosts.

"Give me the man who, instead of always telling you what ought to be done, goes ahead and does it," says the Philistine.

Says one competent to give good advice: "The alimentary canal is 32 feet long. You control only the first three inches of it. Control it well."

"When a man has a rip in his coat and only three buttons on his vest," writes a Western sage, "he should do one of two things; either get married or get divorced."

While chopping wood, a Franklin N. H. man found inside a large maple log a bottle of whiskey which had been in the crotch of the tree for many years. Eventually, of course, it caused the downfall of the tree.

Curry county is a funny place. Last week a lad from the backwoods came up to Bandon and seeing a young lady playing a piano, ran to his brother, saying, "Oh, Bill, come and see this girl. She is knocking regular thunder out of a bureau."

Here is one of George Cohan's latest wisettes: "There may be a whole lot of crazy people in this world, but you won't find any bald-headed ones in a lunatic asylum." Fine dope for the members of Tom Hall's Bald Headed Club.

Telephone companies are having lots of trouble with eavesdroppers. Patrons of telephone lines don't seem to realize that it is just as impolite to listen to a private conversation over a telephone line as to apply an ear to a keyhole.

JAY TOWER SAYS:
"Of course it's bad luck to be married in May, especially when you might have waited until June and thereby escaped a month more of it."
