OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

Official Paper of Coos County.

LET US HAVE PARKS.

ONE OF the best pieces of news The Times has printed in some time was the proposition of Patrick Hennessy to present the city with land for a park. One of the pressing requirements of Marshfield and Coos Bay is the need of provisions for the future in the matter of public playgrounds and recreation spots. These provisions should be made now when land may be secured at reasonable prices. No American city possesses greater possibilities for scenic beauty than does Marshfield and Coos Bay. There are many magnificent spots around Coos Bay that might be converted into a park of such romantic beauty as to become the most perfect example of civic art in America and probably in the world.

Now is the time for the commencement of a splendid system of parks and playgrounds. The land can be had cheaply and possibly other prominent citizens prompted by the admirable example of local patriotism and pride exhibited by Mr. Hennessy may offer park sites as their contribution to the communal welfare. There could be no greater demonstration that at heart this community stands for the things that are permanent and ideal.

Hurrah for Hennessy Park!

HOMES FOR MANY.

IT DOES NOT require a person with any great stretch of imagination to foresee that at no distant date Coos county will be one of the richest counties in the state, as well as a heavily populated section of the state. The county will never be noted for its large farms, either fruit or grain, but will rather be known for diversified agriculture and kindred interests. The greater part of the county is peculiarly adapted to the dairy industry, while small fruits, cranberries, truck gardening etc., will furnish independent livelihoods for hundreds of families. At present the Coquille valley is perhaps the farthest along toward development of any section of the county in this direction but all sections of the county have many thousands of acres of the finest land that can be found in any part of the state when cleared. If this could be divided up into 40 acre tracts it would make homes for many hundred and eventually become very rich sections.

The present large wealth of the county in timber lands will be utilized largely in transforming the county from almost a wilderness into a thriving community of happy, prosperous tillers of the soil.

NOTICE.

All Coos county warrants drawn on the General Road Fund and endorsed prior to April 1st, 1910, except warrant No. 25, class E, will be paid on presentation at my office in Coquille, Oregon. No interest will be allowed on any of these warrants after April 25th, 1910.

Dated this April 22nd, 1910.

GOOD EVENING.
A gush of bird-song, a pattern of dew,
A cloud and a rainbow's warning,
Suddenly sunshine and perfect blue—
An April day in the morning.

THE CENSUS MAN IS COMING!

Once a puzzle agitated
All this busy land:
Both men and women sought its depths
To learn and understand;
It wrecked the peace of families
Did business shops invade,
And every branch of industry
Distributing, did pervade.

The abstract man of science,
The school girl at her books
The social belle who erstwhile
Thought only of her looks.
The merchant and the farmer too,
The busy, plodding clerk,
The housewife and the errand boy,
This problem all did work.

But past all power of guessing,
At last they put it by,
But now the one is near at hand,
Who can the secret spy.
The census man is coming soon,
Whose questions each life gauge,
And unto him by force of law,
Must all Anns tell their age.

STORY OF THE DAY.

PLENTY OF WORK AHEAD.

An editor away for awhile left his paper in charge of a minister. During the minister's stay in the sanctum the following letter came from a subscriber: "I know very well I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in town. If I get any more such letters from you as I received last week I will come in and mail h—l out of you." The minister answered: "I have been trying to get that out of the editor for ten years, and if you will come down and mail it out of him, then, dear sir, I have twenty members of my church I will get you to operate on."

A fool never worries, and yet we are told that to worry is foolish.

Every Coos Bay man has a lot of rules he wants other people to obey.

Many a Coos Bay woman who is gentle with other people is rough with her husband.

This prosperity you hear so much about; no one will hand you your share of it in cash.

Women always were gentler than men. They say: "Oh, heavens!" while men say just the reverse.

Carrie Chapman Catt asserts that woman has just as good judgment as man. The main trouble is that she neglects to exercise it when selecting a husband.

Some one has discovered that the cost of living in Portland has advanced 37 per cent in five years. And life in Portland had about all the drawbacks it could stand five years ago.

The old-fashioned woman who could "take down" her hair and sit on it has been succeeded by the woman who can take off her hair and sit on it, or use it as a mattress, as the exigencies of the case seem to require.

The Jacksonville Times-Union tells of a man in that town who cut down his church contribution because of the increased cost of living. Perhaps he thinks it won't hurt the preacher to worry a little harder over the aforesaid cost of living.

The "smart set" at Coronado, California, have taken up with the "chandelier luncheon" which is described in a report as follows: "It consists in tossing into the air small pieces of cake and other dainties that are caught in their open mouths before they descend." This is about the limit. The Times trusts that the Coos Bay people who are in San Diego are not guilty of indulgence in these functions.

LIKES COOS BAY.

Portland Man Says This Section Is Booming.

Edward B. Duffy, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Gould system in Portland has returned from a two-weeks trip in the Puget Sound country, San Francisco and Coos Bay. Mr. Duffy found business conditions good everywhere, although there was some slight exception at Seattle. "Everything is booming at Coos Bay," commented Mr. Duffy. "They are looking forward to a great year down there and it looks as if they would not be mistaken."—Oregonian.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermas, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons. CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLD

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business, I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."—RED CROSS Pharmacy, (John Preuss, Prop.)
