

Our Store And Your Store

Our store so far as the name over the door is concerned; your store in respect to the merchandise inside.

This is more than ever before a store for mothers and boys. XTRAGOOD clothes make it so. And XTRAGOOD clothes are like your boy, —they "grow" every year.

It doesn't matter how hard the boy plays or works. XTRAGOOD clothes give him better service, longer wear and greater durability than the ordinary makes.

A boy's suit is no longer right without style. XTRAGOOD clothes for boys have the same splendid style that is nowadays put into the swagger Young Men's clothes. Your boy looks good to you — and others.

And back of it all is the best tailoring and materials to be had at any price. We want you to come and see for yourself. You'll understand better why we call this your store.

GOOD EVENING.
 To cultivate kindness is a great part of the business of life.
 —Samuel Johnson.

A BONNET SONG.
 Bonnets big and bonnets small;
 Bonnets low and bonnets tall;
 Bonnets round and bonnets square—
 Bonnet gossip fills the air.
 Some go scooting to a point,
 And lop over, out of joint;
 Some are scallopy and wide,
 And have dudads on the side;
 Some are loaded down with grass,
 Harness buckles, garden sass,
 Turkey feathers, rooster tails,
 Big rosettes and freckled veils;
 Some have whiskers on the dome
 That you have to brush and comb;
 Some slope downward like a pan,
 And look fine on Mary Ann;
 Some are felt, devoid of frill—
 Some like colanders are made,
 Decked with flowers of every shade—
 Roses green and roses blue,
 Violets of a pinkish hue;
 Some like mushrooms slope down much,
 Hiding switches, rats and such;
 Some are trimmed with fuzz and fur
 Look so neat and warm on Her;
 Some are slim and some are fat,
 But She doesn't care for that.
 She'll bring home one high and nice High in shape and also price.
 —Selected.

 there would be no get-rich-quick schemes.

SPRING IS SPRUNG.
 The grass is springing in the meads,
 The squirrel springs from bough to bough,
 The flowers are springing from the seeds,
 We spring from bed more early now.
 In lovers' hearts a new joy springs,
 The trout springs in the waters clear,
 Wives spring demands for hats and things—
 Who, then, will say that spring's not here?

FLAPJACK DAYS.
 How dear to my heart are the flapjacks and bacon
 That mother constructed in days long ago.
 And how I would eat till my food shop was abin'
 And swallow each jack till the flap didn't show;
 The coffee and rolls and the fritters that sizzled,
 The cat that sat meowing for scraps now and then—Oh, you may have breakfast served up in three courses,
 But give me the flapjacks and bacon again.

GETTING THE RINGS MIXED
 "One ring for bellboy, two rings for chambermaid," read a guest from the printed card hanging in his room at the Chandler. He pressed the bell-ton and the maid appeared.
 "I don't want you," said the guest,
 "I rang once twice."
 "Oh," replied the maid, "I thought you rang twice once."

All children should be reported to the census women and all dogs to the assessor. Don't get them mixed.

SAD BUT TRUE.
 In the spring the young man's fancy raked the meadows sweet with hay,
 For the soul is dead that slumbers in the merry month of May,
 And Maxweiton braes are bonnie when the evening shadows fall
 In the gloaming, oh, my darling with the stars for tapers tall.
 Jennie kissed me when we met on this side of Jordan's wave Once upon a midnight dreary, with the slow and crouching slave;
 It was on a summer evening, quoth
 the raven "Never More,"
 And the dying soldier faltered on the wild New England shore.

One Coos Bay man says he expects to ride from Coos Bay to Boise in a Pullman car in about two years. The millenium in all probability will come trailing along several years later.

ESCOTT AND OTHERS WIN AN OLD CASE

Action Against the Crescent Coal and Navigation Company Finally Decided in Creditors' Favor.
 The case of Escott et al vs the Crescent Coal and Navigation company which has been hanging fire in the courts for the last two years or so has been decided for good and all by the Oregon Supreme Court. This week, the supreme court denied the motion for a rehearing and also refused to remand it to the lower courts for a new trial. The case grew out of the failure of Richards and Jones several years ago. Certain creditors of the defunct firm began suit against the owners of the coal mine which Richards and Jones were operating and the courts have held that they are responsible. A large number of Coos county people are interested in the case.

DESPONDENT; KILLS THREE.
 (By Associated Press.)
 CHICAGO, April 29.—Harry Dahl, a despondent carpenter, over ill health, killed himself and two young sons by turning on the gas.
 Blessed is the man who invented hope.

THE SURE CURE.
 When you're feeling sour and ugly
 And most everything goes wrong,
 When you see things through blue glasses
 And for solitude are strong,
 When you don't enjoy your dinner
 And you want to quit your job,
 And you're sure your girl don't love
 you,
 In fact, feel like "old hob"—
 Why—

Just hike out to the track meet
 Mingle with the other boys,
 Fill your stomach full of peanuts,
 Yell and make a lot of noise,
 Do some boasting with your neighbors,
 And before the meet's half through You'll forget that you're the little Boy that recently felt blue
 That's the cure, kid, that for you!

THE POET PESSIMIST.
 What rhymes with violets and leaf-ing trees?
 A sneeze.
 What rhymes with crocuses now all in bud?
 Mud.
 What rhymes with frisking lambs and joyous sowers?
 Lawn mowers.

And what, oh what rhymes with spring's tender meaning?
 House cleaning.
A CURE FOR TROUBLE.
 It will never pay to frown
 When you're blue;
 Fortune still may have a crown
 Made for you;
 Don't expect to win men's pity or to gain the strength you need By appearing heavy-hearted—you are far astray, indeed,
 If you do.

When your woes are hard to bear
 Do not mope.
 Do not seek a collar where
 You may grope;
 Take a walk out in the sunlight, shun the corners that are murky;
 Breathe the sweet air of the hillside, then go whistling back to work.
 And to hope.
