MARSHFIELD SCHOOL NEWS
HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The fire alarm at the High School is proving to be quite a source of amusement. Some time ago O. O. Lund, in paying a visit to the school mistook it for a bell ringing in Superintendent Golden's office, and did not realize his mistake until the school was quite emptied of students.

The same scene was renewed yesterday when a man sent by the Coos Bay Gas & Electric Company to look after some work at the school made the same error. In an instant all the students came pouring out of their rooms and went through the fire drill. Most of them, however, suspected what had occurred and were greatly amused over the joke, for such it is proving to be, as both times it has happened when most of the classes were just in the middle of their recitation periods. Superintendent Golden is now having a large notice made, to be hung over the bell so that in the future there will be no more fire alarms sent in at various times of the day unless there happens to be a real fire.

Some of the students who have not been on any of the rhetorical programs this year are now making up that work during the assembly period. Those who have given recitations during the past week are: Misses Lola Montgomery, Edna Hansen, Mable Smith, Lucy Juza and Frances Williams, also Fay White.
