MOTHER LOVE

MOTHER LOVE is more than a sentiment; it is a religion—and the last religion in which a man or a woman loses faith. Remorse, or the consciousness of failure, or the unslaked thirst for vengeance, or steadfast consecration to duty, or peace of mind, or hell-torment—these will travel as fast and as far as a man's mind can carry them; they will accompany him into polar solitude or into the press of the market place; but mother-love will out-travel them all, and at the end of the journey will stand waiting, with extended hands and brimming eyes of welcome, wherever and wherever the end of the journey may be.

Mother-love is mother-love
The wide-wide world around
Mother-love is mother-love
Wherever it is found;
In palace or in cottage
The city or the clan
Mother-love is mother-love
God's sweetest gift to man.

Mother-love is mother-love
The long, long ages through,
Though years corrode all other love
Still mother-love is new,
A bloom that never fadeth,
A fruit beyond decay,
The fresh warm tints of mother-love
Are beautiful for aye.

Mother-love is mother-love
However fortunes go,
Mother-love is mother-love
Though tides are high or low,
Though self-respect may falter,
And scorn of life prevail,
Yet mother-love is mother-love
And naught shall make it fail.

Mother-love is mother-love
Most like the love of heaven,
Though previous every other love
To erring mortal given;
Strain of immortal music,
Glow of eternal morn,
Love of all loves is mother-love
Whence all our loves are born.

HAND IN HAND.

JAMES J. HILL is a man who is doing much for the development of the west. Not only as a railroad builder but also as an advocate of farming methods that will bring about a maximum settlement and prosperity. In a recent article the great railway magnate said:

"The farmers of this land cannot prosper until stock raising becomes an inseparable part of agriculture. The natural increase of animals, the butter and milk, the stock sent to market—all add materially to the income of the farm. Still more important is the fact that of all forage fed to live stock, at least one-third in cash value remains on the land in the form of manure, that soon restores worn-out soil to fertility and keeps good land from deteriorating. By this system the farm may be made and kept a source of perpetual wealth."

Animal husbandry and diversified farming go hand in hand the world over.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

Hail, ye sweet small courtesies of life, for smooth do ye make the road of it. 'Tis ye who open the door and let the stranger in.—Sterne.

A PLAIN SORT OF HUMAN.

I'm only a plain sort of human,
Too often in Trouble's control;
I never discovered a comet,
Or walked half a mile to the Pole.

But I'm walking the way
'Neath the blue sky or gray,
And just shakin' hands
With the world every day.

It's good to be plain, and just human;
To tell the Sun "Howdy!" and know

His life-giving light is your protection,
If he shines on the green or the snow.

Oh, I'm walkin' the way
'Neath the blue sky or gray,
With a hearty "Good-mornin'!"
To life every day.

—Frank L. Stanton.

Pay as you go—but don't go too often.

Reform is always headed for reaction.

Even the path of the just isn't always just as they would like it.

An expert is a man who makes a bluff at knowing more than you do.

Many a Coos Bay man who knows it all was never inside of a college.

Men wouldn't care so much for even baseball if it were a family affair.

The way a Coos Bay man cuts down his candy bills for a girl is by marrying her.

A girl is awful smart to be cross with a man so as to make him think he is the one.

The good investment is for the fellow who lets you have it for some of your money.

A woman spends her money for what she wants; a man for what he thinks he wants.

You can always tell by the way a woman smiles that what you think it means isn't it.

A little cool nerve will get a man a bigger reputation for ability than a head full of brains.

Some Coos Bay folks complain that a bushel of happiness is too heavy a load to carry.

We go mighty far to hunt Happiness, when all the time he's hiding in the roses that bloom 'round the home place.

Let the Thunder do your growling for you. He's been in that business since the world began, and he doesn't charge a cent for it.

There is a cause for thanksgiving if there's joy enough in the world to make old man Trouble do a dancing turn for just one minute.

When Gabriel blows his trumpet many a lazy Coos Bay man will enter a protest that he hasn't slept more than six hours.

Poverty sometimes comes as a blessing in disguise, but when he takes his mask off even a man with the rheumatism will rise and run like a racehorse.

Folks never know when they're well off. Adam had a fine garden, but he wasn't contented until he elected himself president of an apple trust.

SAY MARRIED MEN!

If you wish to keep your wife in good humor, don't let her do the washing on these warm days. Bundle it up and call for our wagon.

AND YOUNG UNMARRIED MEN

If you wish to keep in good standing with the ladies you ought to wear collars and shirts that look nice after they are laundered. So we can do all of this to an entire satisfaction and our prices are in the reach of any one's pocket book.

WHAT THE WORLD WANTS.

Men who cannot be bought.
Men who put character above wealth.

Men who possess opinions and will.
Men who are larger than their vocations.

Men who do not hesitate to take chances.

Men who will not lose their individuality in a crowd.

Men who will be as honest in small things as in great things.

Men who will not say they do it "because everybody else does it."

Men whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires.

Men who are willing to sacrifice private interests for the public good.

Men who do not look at every proposition from the point of view of "What is there in it for me?"

Men who do not believe that shrewdness, sharpness, cunning and long-headedness are the only qualities for winning success.

Men who have the courage to do their duty in silence and obscurity, while others about them win wealth and notoriety and neglecting sacred obligations.

Men who are not ashamed, or afraid to stand for the truth when it is unpopular, who can say "No," with emphasis, although all the rest of the world says "Yes."

Men who have gained such complete control of themselves that they can pass through the most exasperating situations without doing or saying any unpleasant things, without losing their temper, or flying off their center.

Did You Ever Know a Woman Who Had Used a Gas Range Who Wanted to Go Back to Coal?

CHILDREN CAN PLAY AROUND A GAS RANGE BECAUSE THERE IS NO DIRT; NO SOOT; NO ASHES; NO HEAT EXCEPT WHEN YOU WANT IT

NO GREATER AID TO COMFORT IN THE HOME THAN THE GAS RANGE WAS EVER INVENTED. GAS IS CHEAP; GAS RANGES ARE CHEAP AND GAS PIPING IS CHEAP. THE WOMEN THAT HAVE GAS RANGES IN THEIR HOMES ARE ALL PRAYING FOR THE GAS CO. IT NEEDS THEIR PRAYERS—THE WOMEN WHO HAVEN'T THEM ALSO NEED THEM—NOT THE PRAYERS BUT THE GAS RANGES.
