decorated for the occasion. Next Monday, Decoration Day, the members of the club will enjoy a cruise to Mirac Cove, the summer home of Commodore Bartle, leaving at 7 o'clock in the morning returning to the bay at 4 o'clock in the afternoon to participate in the memorial exercises for the dead sailors. A special committee has been named to get the boat owners out for this cruise which promises to be a most delightful affair.

Mrs. Thomas Harvey has returned from a few weeks' visit with relatives at Grants Pass and other Eastern Oregon points.

Last evening the junior class of the Marshfield High School tendered a reception to the members of the senior class at the home of Miss Helen Bradley. Various diversions were enjoyed, no formal program being adhered to. Light refreshments were served and the evening made a most delightful one.

Those present were Bessie Cole, Alpha Mauney, Signa Holm, Rose Wall, Alice Curtis, Nellie Tibbety, Myrtle Downer, Belva Flanagan, Helen Bradley, Mary Hansen, Eric Bolt, Chauncey Clarke, John Ferguson, Joe Bennett, Miss Nellie Montgomery, Miss Jessie Chase, Miss Elizabeth Kaufman, Miss Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley.

The final meeting of the Chaminade Club for the present season was held at the home of Miss Susie Eickworth Wednesday evening. The club had been planning to give a musicale in June but it was decided to indefinitely postpone it. The last meeting proved a surprise to the members who had expected only the regular rehearsal and business session, but Miss Eickworth had arranged a dainty luncheon for them and for a social time. The club will open next season the latter part of September. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Chas. Stauff; vice-president, Mrs. J. T. Hall; recording secretary, Miss Clara Myren; corresponding secretary, Miss Esther Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. B. B. Ostlund; director, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr.; librarian, Mrs. J. S. Cole.

Miss Helen M. Standish of Portland arrived this week to spend a month or so with her father, J. F. Standish, head of the North Bend Lumber Company. This is her first visit on the Bay.

A. E. Whan and wife and little son arrived on the Bay this week from Kansas to visit at the home of Mrs. Whan's sister, Mrs. M. E. Everitt of North Bend. Mr. Whan expects to spend the major part of the summer in Alaska.

Marshfield Aerle of Eagles is planning to give a big ball in its hall on South Second street July 4th.

Mrs. C. A. Schilbrede entertained a number of ladies at sewing at her home one afternoon this week.

The Knights of Columbus gave a pleasant dancing party at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Monday evening. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion and the fine floor and music were enjoyed by a large crowd. Refreshments were served.

Marshfield Lodge of Elks, No. 1160, is preparing to celebrate its first birthday June 29, with a social and ball. It will be a strictly invitational affair and promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever held on the Bay.

Mrs. C. J. Mills entertained a number of ladies at a launch party the other afternoon. The weather was fine and South Coos River never appeared more delightful.

The Minnie-Wis Club is holding its annual picnic at Bay Park to-day.

Miss Mable Clare Mills entertained a party of young folks at a bonfire and picnic lunch at Bay Park last evening.

LITTLE TALKS ABOUT TOWN

A GIST OF COOS BAY GOS-SIP GATHERED HERE AND THERE ABOUT THINGS OF

"Gus Hadberg or Hattberg, whom Wm. Gohl was convicted of murdering at Gray's Harbor, was a former Coos Bay man," remarked J. E. Lyons the other day. "Hadberg lived at North Bend for quite awhile, moving away six years ago, or maybe it was only five years. I also knew Gohl quite well when I lived in Washington, that is I knew him by sight and who he was. I never knew much good of him or nothing very bad about him."

"House cats going wild are the greatest menace to young ducks and wild birds of all kinds that there is," remarked Cal Wright, deputy game warden, the other day. "The felines go wild and roam in the woods, destroying birds' nests and preying on the young. Actually, they kill more than you would believe. People who do not traverse the timber considerably have no idea of the number of cats that stray away and become half wild, living in the woods on birds. They destroy more wild game than other kinds of animals. I am in favor of making it an offense to raise them and of paying a bounty for killing the stray felines."

"I heard the best original joke the other day that I ever heard in my life," remarked Al Nichols of Libby while in town this week. "There is a family living at Libby named 'Duck'—John Duck is the man's name. Well, a rancher from up the slough came to Libby and as he neared the stables where I was working he noticed a number of fine, tame geese there."

"Whose geese are they?" he innocently inquired.

"Why, they're Duck's," responded another fellow standing nearby.

"I noticed the rancher look rather peculiar, but he didn't say anything more for a few minutes. Finally he again inquired whose geese they were."

"Blame it, didn't I tell you they were Duck's," retorted the other.

"See here, young fellow, you are pretty bright, but I know geese when I see them and I know those birds are not ducks, and—"

"But I stopped him as I suddenly realized the situation and informed him that the geese were Duck's—belonged to Mrs. John Duck, and we all had to laugh."

THE ASSEMBLY REPUBLICANS

Hall, H. Sengstacken, C. Nasburg, A. D. Walcott.

In the North precinct they chose J. A. Luse for delegate, but he is against the assembly and even refused to vote. Mr. Luse kept watch of the caucus and he is willing to make affidavit that less than a dozen votes were cast in that precinct.

Jens Hansen, another delegate selected, is in favor of the primary law and against the assembly and will not serve or attend the county meeting.

And so it goes. Republican sentiment is overwhelmingly against any movement that has for its object the nullification and evasion of the primary law.

The printed list of delegates in the South precinct, the framing of the call and assembly plan without notice to the secretary of the county central committee, the whole method pursued gives evidence of the existence of the preconceived plans of the Portland wire pullers, and the majority of Coos Bay Republicans are against it.

The following is an exact copy of the caucus call that was issued in Marshfield, in which it may be seen that an attempt was made to call the assembly caucus a primary meeting:

"REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES."

"Notice is hereby given to the Republican voters of the North and South Marshfield Precincts that Primary Meetings for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Assembly to be held at Coquille, Ore., on June 3d, 1910, will be held on the 27th, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m.

"The polls will remain open for one hour and will be under the supervision of the precinct committee.

"In North Marshfield Precinct the meeting will be held at the City Hall. In South Marshfield Precinct the meeting will be held at Front St. and Central Ave.

"All Republicans who favor the Assembly Plan of selecting candidates to be recommended to the voters at the Primary Election to be held under the Primary Election Law are urged to attend and participate in the Primary Meetings on the 27th.

"E. MINGUS,
"County Central Committee."

ROOSEVELT TO SEE INSURGENT

Former President Asks for Conference With Old Political Friend.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Theodore Roosevelt has written to a prominent Republican insurgent member of the House requesting a conference soon after the ex-President's arrival in New York June 18, or as soon as possible. Roosevelt's letter indicates he is desirous of learning the insurgent situation in the House from first hand. The recipient of the letter declines to allow the use of his name in connection with it as it might prove embarrassing for both Roosevelt and himself if made known at this time. The insurgent is a long time personal friend of Roosevelt. He has made a hotel reservation in New York for June 18.
