PAY TRIBUTE TO W. P. SQUIRE

Father of W. F. Squire of Marshfield Stricken at San Jose, Calif.

W. F. Squire of Bunker Hill left yesterday on the M. F. Plant for San Jose, Calif., to attend the funeral of his father, Wm. P. Squire, who died there last Wednesday, and news of which was printed in The Times the other day.

Death Wednesday closed the interesting career of William P. Squire, prominent member of the G. A. R., former member of the Legislatures of Illinois and Nebraska, and a citizen widely known and respected in this community for his sterling worth and splendid traits of character. The end came peacefully, with members of his family at his bedside.

Thus passes a man who had faced death in its most terrible forms time and again on the field of battle—a man who was wounded thrice in the defense of his country, and who buried a shattered limb sacrificed in the South in the defense of the Union.

Despite the fact that his terrible experiences in the war left him a physical wreck, he faced life without a murmur or a complaint concerning his misfortune, and by constant struggling through the greater portion of his life carved out success in the face of adversity. His whole career is a shining example for humanity similarly afflicted. He was always cheerful, and was wholly unselfish. His devotion to the interesting family of five children and the widow who survive him was a subject of frequent comment among his many friends and acquaintances, who will grieve to hear of his loss.

Mr. Squire had been in this city since 1895, and during the intervening years had made a host of friends. He was a native of Illinois, and was in his 67th year. Besides his widow, the immediate surviving relatives are William F. of Marshfield, Ore.; Charles H. of Washington, D. C.; Paul E. of Ukiah, Cal., and Miss E. Pearl and Ray M. of San Jose.

There was a little scramble over the degree team contests. The Marshfield team had arranged to enter and when it was found that a couple of the members of the team could not be present owing to being unable to go to Coquille Saturday, a couple of members of the North Bend lodge were substituted.

Following the banquet, addresses were made by a number of the visitors, including Tom Hall of Marshfield, Mr. Wheeler of Bandon and Rev. Taylor of Myrtle Point. Mrs. W. C. Chase, Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters of Oregon, also delivered an able talk. Degrees in several ranks were conferred.

All of the visitors were highly pleased with the entertainment and reception accorded by the local lodges.

Legal representatives of twenty-five Western railroads met in the offices of Gardner Lathrop, general solicitors of the Santa Fe to-day. The meeting was called to devise a line of defense against the recent action of the Government in the matter of rates and to choose special counsel to take charge of the proceedings.

O'BRIEN WINS FROM J. DAY

Portland Boy Too Clever For Local Pugilist—Ends in Fifteenth Round.

Danny O'Brien of Portland was a comparatively easy victor over Jess Day in the boxing bout at the skating rink Saturday evening, being given the decision at the end of the fifteenth round when it was plainly evident that to allow the fight to continue would be mere brutality.

There was only a comparatively small attendance, but those there got their money's worth. Day was the favorite when the bout opened, owing to his much stronger build and the reputation for fast work he had won previously. However, O'Brien soon showed that he was one of the cleverest boxers that ever landed on Coos Bay, and Day's renowned rushes generally were met with stiff jolts that brought them to a sudden end.

O'Brien appeared able to hit Day almost at will throughout the bout and the only showing Day made was fighting in the clinches. The bout was refereed by Mr. Leonard of San Francisco.

The preliminary between "Curly" and "Happy Hooligan" went the full ten rounds but was rather poor, the two being in a clinch a large share of the time. "Curly," in the opinion of the crowd, had a little the best of it, but Referee Glass called it a draw.
