AMONG THE SICK.

Mrs. Emily McFarlin-Lewis of North Bend is at Mercy Hospital in North Bend taking treatment.

Mrs. Albert Merchant of Bullards underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital yesterday for a removal of a tumor. The operation was an unusually difficult one, but she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. E. W. Schieffele of North Inlet, who was operated on at Mercy Hospital last week by Dr. House-worth for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to the Schieffele home at Eastside.

Clarence Woodward, the painter who was injured by the fall from the new Houseworth house last Saturday is reported on the road to recovery.
He was injured about the spine and hips. Mr. Baker, who sustained some broken ribs in the accident is able to be up and around.

HAD BIG GROWTH.

Christian Scientists Established Many New Churches.

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, June 6.—A Christian Science church was established somewhere in the world every three and one-half days during the year ending June 1, according to the report of Clerk John V. Dittmore, at the annual meeting to-day of the First Church of Christian Scientists, the mother church of the Christian Science denomination.

NEWS FROM ALL OVER COOS COUNTY

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Valley As Told By the Sentinel.

Mrs. Morley, wife of D. W. Morley, died at her home at Remote Sunday,
May 29, at 3 o'clock, and was buried
Monday afternoon.

The Myrtle Point bunch lost their first game of the season to Bandon at Bandon last Sunday by a score of 7 to 5, playing nine innings.

W. O. Cooper has sold his fine driving mare to W. P. Evans, president of the Rapid Transit Company at North Bend, driving the animal over last week. He received $325 for the mare.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Roberts left Thursday morning for Drain, Oregon, where they will visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. F. Browne, and will visit at other places in the northern part of the State before returning. They are driving overland to Drain.

At a meeting of the school board last Saturday evening, the following named teachers were engaged for the coming school year: Miss Pauline Aussicker, Miss Florence McCracken, Miss Florence Robbins, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Mrs. J. S. Whitaker,

Pasco, Wash., where he has been holding down a homestead, on Saturday, riding his bicycle in from Roseburg. He expects to remain until August, when he expects to leave for the East to take a course in school.
He has proven up on his homestead, and bought an additional eighty acres.

The work of giving Myrtle Point better depot facilities is now under way and patrons of the local railway will soon have it more convenient.
Thursday morning's train brought up an extra coach that will be used for depot purposes until the regular depot is ready for use. The old depot is to be moved up to the Maple street location and remodeled for present use.

Miss Estella Weekly, daughter of Mr. Lee Weekly of this city, and Mr.
George Everett Siagle of Coquille were united in marriage Wednesday
