CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Interesting Events There As Told By the Gold Beach Globe.

There is a fresh meat famine in town now.

Judge Bailey now has the frame up of a large commodious barn.

Col. I. N. Muncey has been laid up with a severe attack of asthma the past week.

Fred Blair is now engaged delivering shakes from Hunters Creek to the bank of the river. The shakes are to be used in covering Doyle's large new barn.

Captains. Swing and Forty with their crews of men made another haul of fish last Sunday and as a result, many tables in town are adorned with red fish.

D. M. Moore received by last Coast some new washing machines and three of the latest patent of phonographs. It is needless to say that the very atmosphere in Gold Beach is now sweetened with music.

Thos. Cornwell after a lingering illness of nearly two months, died at his home in Port Orford June 7th, 1910. Mr. Cornwell was upward of 65 years, having come to Curry county in 1857, where he has made it his home ever since.

C. R. Suydam had a narrow escape from a serious accident a few days ago. While splitting rails he attempted to cut a knot with a double bit axe, which bounced up and the opposite bit struck him in the center of the forehead, cutting through his hat and inflicting a serious scalp wound.

That Gold Beach is growing faster than any other town in Curry, is evidenced by the fact that a neatly polished pair of shoes sitting by an elevated chair on Main street, with this sign tacked above it, "Shine 5 Cents." All that Gold Beach now lacks to be a modern, up-to-date town is a dog catcher.
