THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair to-night and Sunday.

BORN.

STEN.—On June 25, at their home in Marshfield, Oregon, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sten, a daughter.

LASKEY.—To Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Laskey of South Coos River, a son. Mother and child are doing well. This is the twelfth child of the worthy couple, all being alive and hearty.

Undergoes Operation.—Mrs. T. C. Johnson of Cooscon underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital this week. Dr. Houseworth, who is attending her, reports that she is doing nicely.

Child Ill.—The young child of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall of Hood River, who drove in here in their auto a few days ago, is quite ill at The Chandler and they have had to postpone their return trip.

Breaks Auto.—J. H. Bridges, while enjoying a spin in his Mitchell car last evening struck an obstacle on South Broadway near Curtis avenue, snapping off one of his axles. Although the car swung quickly, an elevated walk stopped it before he was thrown out. He was uninjured.

Run for Coroner.—Dr. R. E. Golden has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election as Coroner, subject to the Republican primaries. He is now serving the unexpired term of T. J. Lewis, and his decision to be a candidate for re-election will be gratifying to his many friends throughout the county. So far, no other candidate for the position has been announced.

Interest in Races.—Great interest is being taken in the Coos County Race Meet, which will open here July 1st and continue five days. The Fair Grounds sables and track is the scene of great activity these days, a large number of horses working out there. Nearly every morning, there is quite a bunch of horse admirers out to see the events. Incidentally some good races are being pulled off nearly every day in the course of the work out. McCloskey Wainright, a fast pacer now at Independence, will be here within a few days, according to advices just received. Horsemen throughout the county are taking more interest in it than they have in any track event in several years.

SING MANY NEW SONGS

Elks' Peerless Minstrel Performance a Medley of Melody.

This is the latest photograph of Charlie Keane, taken especially for The Times, as he will appear in the end song "Close Yo' Eyes," at the Elks' Peerless Minstrel at the Masonic Opera House July 1st and 2d. Besides this fine end song, which has made a hit this season, Mr. Bennett will sing "Liza;" Mr. Chamberlain, "Smile, Just Simply Smile;" Mr. Flanagan, "You Don't Know How Much You Have to Know in Order to Know How Little You Know;" Mr. Dodge, "Bye, Bye, My Caroline;" Mr. Powell, "Did He Run," and Messrs. Powell and Chamberlain in the laughable duet, "I've Lost My Gal." Mr. Tower will sing the new stein song written by Mr. Wilson especially for the Elks called "Elks' Milk." The Director will sing the tenor ballad "There's Nothing New to Say," and the finale song a rousing new national march song, "The Old Red, White and Blue" will be rendered by Mr. McCutcheon.

The four numbers of the Otto will be a monologue by Mrs. G. T. Wilson in a child dialect, "Over the Baluster," a negro melody by the "Golden West" Male Quartette, "Tell Us Pretty Ladies," a burlesque on the Florida sextette, in which three prominent antlered brethren will appear in Paris gowns, and a most laughable sketch by Mr. Wilson, "Shakespeare in a Deestrick Skule."

The afterpiece, closing the performance will be a mock trial burlesque, "The Great Kidnapping and Breach of Promise Case."

Seat sale opens at "Busy Corner" Drug Store Tuesday morning, June 28th. Secure your tickets early of some Elk and get a good seat as they will go fast when the reservation opens.

The steamer Flyer will leave North Bend both evenings at 7:30 to bring parties from there desiring to take in the minstrel show. Each evening, it will leave Marshfield at 11 o'clock on the return trip.
