versity and for the past year has been instructor in the Coeur d'Alene College. His coming will be a pleasing and welcome addition to the musical circles of the bay and he will doubtless meet with success in his profession here.

Holiday Week.—The logging camps throughout the county will shut down at the end of this week for a week's vacation for the Fourth of July.

Will Picnic.—The members of the Epworth League of the Marshfield Methodist Church will enjoy a moonlight picnic at Eastside to-night.

Hay for Haines.—The Carlos, which arrived in yesterday, brought a big shipment of fine California hay for A. T. Haines, the flour, hay and feed dealer.

To Take Outing.—A number are planning to charter a boat and go to the beach Saturday night and enjoy a two days' outing over the Fourth of July.

Bell In It.—F. B. Waite says that instead of C. H. Bell, who is interested with him in the public utility project, it is Seymour H. Bell, formerly of Coos Bay. Mr. Bell, Mr. Waite says, is anxious to get back into the Coos Bay country and believes his latest proposition is a good one.

Goes to Valley.—John G. Wanhope, formerly State organizer of the California Socialists, who has been holding meetings here, left to-day for Coquille, Myrtle Point and Bandon. He is reported as having been quite successful on the Bay, having secured a number of new members and organized a new local at North Bend with fourteen charter members.

Fiske Is Agent.—A. E. Fiske has been appointed agent of the C. A. Smith vessels at San Francisco. Last week, the Redondo secured a license to carry thirty passengers each way, and both the Nann Smith and Redondo will carry freight from San Francisco here; but for the present, the Redondo alone will handle passengers. Mr. Fiske was formerly purchasing agent for the C. A. Smith mill here.

Draw Bridge Closed.—The Coal Bank Slough drawbridge was found fast this morning when the government tug Arago attempted to cross up to get some old scows or barges belonging to the government. It could not be opened so launches had to be secured for the trip. Some of the old government scows and machinery will be burned and dismantled and the balance is being loaded onto a scow to be taken to Celilo by the Arago.

See the DAY-COYNE bout at the Marshfield SKATING RINK next SATURDAY night, July 2d.

Personal Notes

JAS. BERING returned yesterday from a business trip to San Francisco.

MRS. FRANK ROGERS of Coos River is expected here to-day for a short visit.

JENS HANSEN left this morning for Gardiner, where he will attend the funeral of his nephew who was drowned in the Umpqua.

W. H. BOHLEN and wife and baby expect to leave this week for San Francisco and other points, where they will make their home.

MRS. BURTIS, wife of Capt. Burtis of the M. F. Plant, and children arrived here yesterday from San Francisco to spend a few weeks.

MRS. W. S. McFARLAND and daughter will leave this week for Cottage Grove and Portland, where they will spend the summer with relatives.

J. O. MACULAY, who is here with his family from Tacoma, will leave shortly for Eureka on business, while his wife and children will spend their vacation here.

MRS. GEO. W. LOGGIE and children are expected here to-morrow on the Breakwater from Bellingham, Wash., to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, and other relatives and friends.

FRED BAKER, the Dora sawmill man, is in Marshfield on business. He reports that they are making good progress with the road improvements in that section, although delay in securing blasting powder has held the work back some.

A. L. LOVELACE has returned to his home in Portland after a pleasant visit on Coos Bay with N. S. Olson. Mr. Lovelace is profuse in his expressions of enthusiasm for this section of the country and its future. He promises to become a Coos Bay booster in Portland and spread the gospel of a closer union of the commercial interests of the metropolis and Coos Bay.

See the DAY-COYNE bout at the Marshfield SKATING RINK next SATURDAY night, July 2d.

NORTH BEND NEWS

The North Bend city council will meet this evening.

David Wallace of Ross Inlet, is quite ill at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Ross, who have been seriously ill for some time, are able to be out.

Mrs. C. H. Farriass and Mrs. William Jones of Union avenue are spending the afternoon at Camp Mizpah.

Mrs. J. V. Hodson of North Bend Heights, who has spent a few days with relatives on Ross Inlet, has returned home.
