WIN CONTESTS OVER CLAIMS

Eight Marshfield Men Get First
Decision in Fall Creek Cases.

Word was received here to-day that eight Marshfield men had won the contests instituted against their claims in the Fall Creek country by the Northern Pacific Railway Company, who had filed script on the timber. The victories were before the Register of the United States Land Office at Roseburg, and of course the contests will be carried up to the Interior Department. However, the Marshfield men are enthused over their first victory. In all, there are seventeen local people having claims there that the Northern Pacific has filed script on, but only nine of the contests were heard last month, the others being scheduled for hearing later.

George Farrin stated to-day that Addison F. Cook, Watt Short, Jas. Wynne, Hugh Sneddon, John Herron, John Schafers and R. C. Cordes Jr., had won their contests and that Earl Winner had lost.
