Social Friday Night.—The Young People of the Baptist Church will hold a social at the church parlors Friday evening.

Preaching in Eastside.—There will be preaching services in Eastside tomorrow evening by Rev. G. L. Hall, of the Baptist Church.

Meet Thursday.—The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the M. E. Church. Special numbers on the program.

Letitia S. Wins.—In the match race between Norton's Headlight and Letitia S. yesterday afternoon, the latter won. Lee rode Headlight but could not get the necessary spurt in the stretch.

Finishes Launch.—George Wilson of Empire is trying out his new launch in the Bay to-day. It is similar to the Coast although not quite so large and will probably be christened the Wanderer.

May Be Candidate.—According to reports afloat here R. A. Copple of Marshfield will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature from Coos county on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Copple is out of the city and could not be seen. Whether R. E. L. Bedillion of Bandon, the present member, will be a candidate again is not known.

Is in Portland.—Mr. Blivens of the

Give us a trial, you will come again. Rates, day, $2.50; $2.00; week, $2.00 to $3.00. Also furnished housekeeping apartments with gas ranges. Mrs. Bridges Proprietress.

Marshfield Turkish Baths has received word from his wife, who has been visiting in Portland, that she is now in charge of the "Jahn," the largest ladies' bath and massage parlors in the northwest, while Mrs. Carleton, the owner, is enjoying a few weeks' vacation in Idaho. Mrs. Blivens will return in about two weeks.

Mother Dead.—D. Y. Stafford this morning received word from his old home at Grafton, Ill., announcing that his mother had dropped dead there of heart failure. While she was about sixty years old and had not been strong for some time, the news came as a severe shock to Mr. Stafford. Owing to the distance, he will not be able to return for the funeral.

Had Narrow Escape.—A stranger from North Slough fell off the launch North Star while coming up the Bay Tuesday and was nearly drowned before the launch could be stopped to rescue him. He was sitting in the stern when the launch struck a big wave and the jar jolted him overboard. He could not swim, but by paddling, managed to keep afloat until the launch could return for him.

Democrats to Meet.—Tom Hall, chairman of the Coos County Democratic Central Committee, has called a meeting of the committee to be held in Coquille July 16th. The meeting was originally called for Marshfield July 3d, but was postponed and the meeting place has been changed as it will be more convenient for the members on the Bay to go to Coquille than for the Coquille members to come here.
