Official Paper of Coos County.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

CHIEF OBJECT OF ASSEMBLY.

THE OREGONIAN explains as follows: "Chief object of Republican assembly in Oregon is to stop minority nominations of plurality primaries. Again and again it has been demonstrated that a minority nominee cannot obtain election support of majority members of party in a 'knifing' contest, that almost invariably follows such a nomination. The purpose of assembly is that of recommending candidates who shall be satisfactory to majority of party."

But why should an assembly, consisting of only about 2 per cent of the voters, be better able to select candidates than a large proportion of a party's voters, even if that proportion should in some cases not amount to a majority? Officials are often elected by only a plurality; why isn't a plurality sufficient to nominate? And why should candidates chosen by tens of thousands of voters be "knifed" in the election any more than candidates named in an assembly where there may be or should be contests between aspirants? Were not Furnish, and Cornelius, and Thompson, and before them Waldo, "knifed" in the old convention days? And haven't H. W. Scott and Joseph Simon engaged in the "knifing"?

No, "chief object of assembly" is to "knife" the primary law and other people's laws, and to take away the power and privilege they have gained, and to reestablish the old system of rings, bosses, machine and slates.—Journal.

SQUARE DEAL WANTED.

IT WOULD be interesting to know by what process the Isthmian Canal Commission reached its conclusion that fir is not a suitable wood for car building in Panama. The Western wood is so well adapted for car material that an order for 40,000,000 feet of siding, sills and decking is to be shipped from Oregon right into the yellow pine country, and that, too, with the yellow pine bid $10 a thousand less than fir on the same inquiry. The Isthmian Canal Commission's general purchasing officer apparently did not go into the question very thoroughly when he confined bids exclusively to yellow pine. The Panama business amounts to about 6,000,000 feet a year, and while it is not large, it would prove very acceptable. There have been a number of apparent discriminations against Pacific Coast lumber manufacturers on the part of the Isthmian Canal Commission. All that the lumbermen of this territory ask for is a square deal. If they cannot compete with yellow pine on price, well and good, but fir is so far superior to yellow pine for car building purposes, that it is absurd to restrict bids to the Southern wood, except on price.

LONG VACATION DAYS.

IT WAS MORNING. The sun was drifting through the treetops by the open windows and making rainbow spots on the white coverlet. What a strange quiet and "unusualness" there was about everything. No one had called you, no bells were ringing, and yet some way you were certain it wasn't Sunday. What had happened? Then if you will but recall, from that strange borderland of romance and mystery there grad-wally emerged a dim and barely distinguished "something which grew larger and brighter, more distinct; faded, sputtered, then burst of a sudden into dazzling radiant consciousness, which sent you sprawling out of bed and into the middle of the floor. For by The Great Horn Spoon,—it was a favorite expression of Captain Bumble,—it was Long Vacation!

Our kid brothers and children and grandchildren are having those ineffable thrills just now. They only come in the glided age of youth, and it is for the fathers and mothers to see that they are perpetuated.

No more studying, no more 'rhythmic or geography or grammar, no more talks by the lady teacher; nothing but this great, big, beautiful world full of good hiding places swimming pools, frog ponds and places in which to play ball and Indian. Think of the strawberries and the green corn and fresh milk and cream, to contribute to that long vacation appetite. Think of those bare feet able to traverse a stubble field without a quiver.

Don't make him weed the garden or work in the store too much, Mr. and Mrs. Grown-up. All his activity in his world of make-believe is not idleness or wasted effort by any means. It does him good to play, untrammelled and unattended, and because of it he will be a healthier, happier and more effective boy.
