JULY ON COOS BAY.

SENTIMENTALLY, July inspires no such joy as June, but here on Coos Bay the difference is slight, and July possesses noteworthy qualities. The Associated press dispatches in The Times Monday told of twelve deaths in New York City from the heat and depicted further suffering along the entire Atlantic Coast. The same tale comes from the Middle West, while we here on Coos Bay are cool and comfortable, and enjoying the apples, berries, cherries, peaches and other fruits that abound in the Coos Bay section, delighting the eye with their velvety bloom and varying tints and hues and refreshing the palate with their cooling juices.

There is none of the blistering, burning, brassiness in the July sun on Coos Bay. Here its heat is always tempered with a cooling breeze, while its potent alchemy is transforming the crude bud of fruit and the harsh juices and raw rinds are becoming wily liquids and pulpy viands. Flowers continue blooming and fill the air with their fresh fragrance. Nature is still in the passion of power and the tide of nature's life is at the fullness of its flood.

One thinks of July as the stately matron among the months, her eyes brooding on the ripening harvests that golden August and mellow September shall glean. Here on Coos Bay her caress is as soft and balmy as the first sweet kiss of summer that comes in June.

FIREMEN HEARD FROM.

Communication From Member of the Marshfield Fire Department.

EDITOR TIMES: July—and a man knocked "clear off a Christmas tree" at North Bend. And he was a Marshfield fireman at that. The Coos Bay Harbor says the Marshfield Fire Department had "cold feet" when they refused to show up on July 4th to compete with the North Bend Fire Department for a purse of $50 for a hose contest. We wish to say that the challenge was not legally accepted by the Marshfield Fire Department. The Marshfield boys simply tried to organize a team to accept the challenge, but on account of such short notice and so many of the boys being either occupied evenings that week or to be occupied on the Fourth, it was impossible to get a number together sufficient to make up a team, and so it was called off. And this was six or seven days before the "sport" was seen at North Bend and got the awful jolt by falling from a "Christmas tree in July."

But, this we wish to say, that our treasurer has quite a goodly sum on hand, sufficient to make a desirable purse—one worth while—and are willing to give it away (?) any time that they receive respectable notice. MARSHFIELD FIRE DEPT.

CURED HAY FEVER

AND SUMMER COLD
A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered two or three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business, I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."—Red Cross Pharmacy, (John Preuss, Prop.)
