THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON—Fair to-night and Thursday; cooler in the east.

Will Locate Here.—Attorney Kendall and wife of Minneapolis have come to Marshfield to make their home. Mr. Kendall will practice law here.

In From Ten Mile.—George Flanagan, who is camping with his family at Ten Mile, came in to-day, but will return to the lakes. He reports good fishing and plenty of crawfish.

Back With His Bride.—William Stoddard, who formerly worked for the Smith-Powers Company, and who was recently married at Minneapolis, has returned to Coos Bay with his bride.

Blackberries Plentiful.—The wild blackberries this year are said to be especially plentiful. In every part of the woods around the cities children and grown people will be found picking the berries. They seem to be preferred to the domestic varieties.

To Be Candidate.—Friends at Allegany state that A. N. Gould, the present County Surveyor, will be a candidate for renomination at the Republican primaries in September. Mr. Gould is just completing his first term. It is understood that he could have had the Assembly nomination, but that he positively declined the place, declaring that he was opposed to any manipulation that would interfere with the direct primary.

Mike McKeown Hurt.—George Wasson was up to-day from South Slough. He reports that Mike McKeown, nephew of the foreman of the Smith-Powers logging camp on South Slough, was struck by a log several days ago and had his collar bone broken and sustained other minor injuries.

Goes to Asylum.—J. J. Kirby, the demented individual who recently terrorized the residents of the Brewster Valley districts, and who was later captured, and committed to the State Insane Asylum at Salem, was taken to that institution this afternoon by an attendant. — Roseburg News.

Net or Gross, Bill?—Attorney W. W. Cardwell has returned from Marshfield, where he spent the past few days in attendance at the race meeting. He says that the event proved a great success. Mr. Cardwell alleges that he won about $300, or about half the amount claimed by the Marshfield press. — Roseburg News.

Breaks Record.—Yesterday was the record day for the Marshfield-Eastside ferry Transit in point of the number of teams carried. Upwards of twenty-five rigs were carried yesterday, while the best previous days was twenty-three. Tom Hall is now acting as captain of the Transit and Capt. Alex Hall as engineer. No engineer could be obtained for a few days and so the change was temporarily made.

Will Run.—It is reported that T. P. Hanley, of the lower Coquille, will seek the Democratic nomination for County Commissioner. The meeting of the Coos county Democratic central committee is called for Coquille tomorrow and it is expected that there will be more or less talk about candidates, although the members state that positively nothing will be done towards selecting a county ticket like the Republican Assembly did.
