Official Paper of Coos County.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

BOOST OR GET OUT.

WHEN a Marshfield business man remarked that if you can't boost for your town and its institutions you had better get out, he struck a popular chord. The sentiment is one people generally applaud. It is a good one. The man who growls at everything in his city had better go somewhere else. It is a good program to help boost everything decent in a city even if it isn't just after the pattern we would have cut out for it.

If you are looking for defects in a thing you can find them. There may be plenty in any city. There are also many good things, and it is well to hunt them out and boost for them.

Boost, don't knock. If you must knock go somewhere else and do your knocking there.

Some of the Coos County Republican "leaders" complain because democrats have been elected to office in Oregon. Yet the assemblyites are fast paying the way for the election of more democrats.

The assembly will be a "fixed" jury but it was intended to be such.

Towns are built by men of enthusiasm; not by croakers.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

People have got to be shocked to wake them up out of the old absurd routine. Use paralyzes us to almost every injustice; when people are shocked, they begin to think and inquire.—Harriet Beecher Stowe.

THE QUIET OBSERVER SAYS:

"You can't expect your wife to be an angel and work like the devil all the time."

Single men shouldn't lead double lives.

An outgo tax would produce a big income.

You cannot help others without helping yourself.

You may build it when you're ready, Mr. Clarke.

Most folks look a little sheepish after being fleeced.

In the drawing for brains the number of blanks seems to have been numerous.

It takes almost as much "dough" to buy flour as the flour will make afterwards.

Money burns a hole in some Coos Bay men's pockets and in some women's—er—hosiery.

Any woman who has successfully raised a half dozen children has earned her title clear to mansions in the sky.

EDITOR TOAST AND TEA: Sorry to see your paper inclined to be against the Assembly. I'm a regular, old-fashioned Republican and don't believe in supporting any man that won't line up. Old-fashioned days in the party suited me best. Them times, when the old men past out the word and the boys all stood in, was when great Republican victories was won. Never had to do no begging for campaign funds in them days. Old man always had it in bales, and past it out where it would do most good. If fellows like you had there way politics would soon be like taking subscription for forth July celebration, plenty of patriotism and darn little juice. D. C. C.

P. S.—Be sure and go to the Portland convention? All the old boys will be there and what they will do to them pesky anti-assemblyites will be plenty.
