(By Associated Press.)

OREGON—Showers to-night or Friday, except fair in southwest.

A MENACE TO PUBLIC HEALTH.

The condition of the sewer on North Front street is rapidly becoming a menace to public health. The stench that arises from it is something that is almost intolerable at times. It is plainly the duty of the public health officers or someone else in authority to investigate the matter and have the nuisance abated without delay. It should be effectually attended to at once.

Crossed Out.—The schooner Esther Buhne crossed out this morning. She was loaded with lumber for California.

buying up hides of all kinds and some large shipments have been sent out.

Do More Paving.—Roseburg is to pave five more blocks of street with asphalt. The new paving is to be in the Chadwick addition.

Two Parties To-Day.—Miss Elizabeth Kaufman will entertain at her home this evening. Mrs. P. M. Wilbur is giving a party this afternoon.

Choir Practice.—The choir of the Lutheran Church will meet for rehearsal to-night in place of Friday evening, when the moonlight excursion takes place. Members will please take notice.

Waited For Gasoline.—Joe Yonkers could not make his regular trip to South Slough this afternoon because of the shortage of gasoline. He had enough to get up here, but not enough to go back on. There is a shortage of gasoline, but the Nann Smith will bring a big shipment and Yonkers had to wait until the vessel arrived.

Meeting With Success.—Attorney R. O. Graves is at work on securing the rights of way for the Coos Bay-Boise Railroad. He is working on the route between Myrtle Point and Marshfield. A good deal of the property is owned by non-residents and it takes some time to get replies, but with those who are residents of the county, Mr. Graves is having no trouble in securing the rights of way.
