CONSOLATION FOR STAY-AT-HOMES.

IF YOU are one of the many who can't pack a suit case and hie away to Coos River, Charleston Bay or Ten Mile for an outing, here is a bit of consolation for you.

Once upon a time someone said that the people who didn't get vacations were the ones who could least be spared, the inference being—well draw your own inference as to the vacationer.

But there is plenty of opportunity for a good old summer time right here at home. On Coos Bay, we have the woods with their inviting emerald shadows, the river and the bay with its boats and launches; the wild woods are all about us and then we have our own back yards and our own front porches for outdoor living and sleeping. Coos Bay is simply one great, big summer resort.

After all, a vacation is largely a matter of travel. Going to some place three miles, thirty or three hundred away. When you get there you will find just as many inconveniences, and usually more, than there are at home. You find less to occupy your time and make it pass pleasantly. Home isn't such a bad place after all.

Of course, don't pass up any opportunity for an outing that will refresh and restore you. Particularly ones that are so near at hand, like Goodwill's Allegany, Golden Falls, Ten Mile or any of the nearby resorts; but if you can't have it you can't, so make the best of it.

Sixteenth annual picnic of the Suomi Society will be held Sunday, July 31, at Enegren's Grove. Watch posters.

BACK FROM LONG TRIP.

Bandon Man Has Been Travelling in Foreign Lands.

A. J. Hartman of Bandon has just returned from an extended trip. The Coquille Herald says Mr. Hartman has just come up from San Francisco by the Fifield on his return home from a three months' trip to Europe and other points. He had business which called him to Hungary, and while absent he visited most of the large cities and places of the old country, returning by way of South America and Mexico. During his trip he covered 20,000 miles. While at the Isthmus he took a look at Teddy's ditch. Mr. Hartman expects to start on another trip in a week or ten days, going first to Venezuela, and will, in all probability go from there to Australia.

A corsage bouquet of bride's lilies of the valley looks pretty on a bride of course, but in anticipation of what so often comes to her in the years that follow a more appropriate corsage bouquet would be soup herbs.
