Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sterling returned from Drain, where Mr. Sterling was called by the illness of his father. Mr. Sterling, Sr., was considerably improved at the time they left on their return journey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nosler and Mrs. M. McDonald started overland for Lebanon where the ladies will visit their mother. Mr. Nosler will go from there to Harney county, where he will look after some property which he owns in that section.

O. C. Sether and G. Gilbertson of Glendale and C. H. Maginnis and S. H. Rothermel of Portland arrived in Coquille by auto from Roseburg Tuesday and will spend some time in this section looking over the natural resources with the idea of making large investments if conditions prove satisfactory.

J. D. Saunders and family, formerly of Kennewick, Washington, arrived in Coquille the first of the week and is now looking over this section for a location. Mr. Saunders is well pleased with the Coquille Valley and if he can find a place which is suitable will no doubt locate here permanently.

Aaron Wilson last week sold out his stock of goods to some of the local grocers and will remove soon to his ranch near Bridge. The local people interested in the deal were Lyons & Jones, C. M. Skeels & Sons, Geo. A. Robinson and P. E. Drane. Cut-rate competition was the cause of the deal.

Albert Johnson, proprietor of the Coquille Soda Works, this week received a new model cider press which he will put in commission here this year. The press is of modern construction and will have a capacity of ten barrels of cider per day and will, when pushed to its capacity, handle in the neighborhood of 250 bushels of apples. Mr. Johnson intends to manufacture cider, both for vinegar and for consumption while sweet.
