

ENTERTAINED AT RECEPTION

Local People Meet W. C. T. U. Organizer at Methodist Church.

The reception tendered Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, State president of the W. C. T. U., by the local organization at the M. E. Church yesterday was largely attended, about one hundred being present. A full account will be given later. Mrs. Unruh spoke very earnestly to the ladies assembled of the growth of the movement of the W. C. T. U. in the organization of the mothers' meetings, later developing into Mothers' Clubs and now the great Federation of Mothers' Clubs, their literature being largely published by the W. C. T. U. She paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, head of the Portland police force for the protection of women and girls, as one who had received her training in the W. C. T. U. In speaking of women's clubs, she said if she should organize two societies here, one a literary and the other a W. C. T. U., and after two or three years return, she would be sure to find more development among the members of the W. C. T. U., because the brain of a woman is reached through her heart; to get the most earnest active service and development from women, their hearts must be touched and intently interested. Thus an ordinary woman coming into the W. C. T. U. develops her brain through her heart's service. She spoke of the wonderful meeting at Glasgow and paid a rich tribute to Frances Willard, telling of the placing of her statue in Statuary Hall, Washington, D. C., the only woman so honored, the statues of Lincoln and Washington being moved apart to make room for one of Frances Willard, who was a queen among women, made so by years of service in her great work with the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Unruh said her one thought by day and night was "Oregon dry in 1910." She made a touching appeal that it should be made the slogan of every woman on Coos Bay and that they should combine their forces under the banner of the W. C. T. U., as with the White Ribbon over their hearts greater results would be possible. She said the saloon was not the greatest peril to our nation but impurity, and the white slave traffic, upon these she would later address us.

Concluding, she appealed to all women to help carry the burdens now borne so valiantly by the workers of the W. C. T. U.

SIGNA HOLM WINS MEDAL

Many Attend the Demorest Silver Medal Contest Held Last Night.

Miss Signa Holm was the winner of the Demorest silver medal contest held under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. last evening. The gathering was held in the Tabernacle and was attended by quite a large number.

The six young lady contestants spoke on temperance subjects. The judges were Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, Miss Elizabeth Kaufman and Mrs. Frank Dillon. Besides awarding the medal to Miss Holm the judges made honorable mention of Miss Ellen Rudness, another contestant. The other four were Miss Belva Flanagan, Miss Mildred Coke, Miss Nellie Tribbey and Miss Elvira Frizeen.

Miss Mills sang, the Baptist quartette gave several selections and there was a chorus of fifty children. Miss Ada Wallace Unruh, the State and national organizer, was present and explained to the audience the Demorest medal contest work, which is being carried on by the W. C. T. U. She said that she had attended hundreds of these contests but that this was one of the best she had ever attended.

WILL RECEIVE ALL THEIR PAY

North Bend Council Arranges for Settlement of Virginia Avenue Matter.

Action regarding the money due the workmen on Virginia avenue was taken by the North Bend city council at a special meeting held for the purpose last night. Most of the men who have claims for work were present and the city recorder was instructed to go ahead and make a settlement with the men as far as the money would go. Steps will also be taken to get all of the money due the men.

The Coos Bay Rapid Transit Company had the contract for the improvement of Virginia avenue. The work was completed and accepted by the city. The Rapid Transit Company was unable to pay off the men. The company had coming something in the neighborhood of $3,100. It was agreed that this money instead of being paid to the company be paid over to the men direct.

Only a part of this money due for Virginia avenue is in the shape of cash. City warrants for the balance will have to be disposed of before all the cash can be paid to the men. It was intimated at the meeting that there was one man who was ready to take the warrants, so it is not anticipated that there will be any trouble in disposing of the warrants.

The money due for the work when divided up among the men who were employed will give them about 86 per cent of what is due them. This leaves a deficit of 14 per cent due the workmen.

When the Rapid Transit Company took up the work the company gave bond and the bondsmen are of course responsible. The city council will see that the deficit of 14 per cent due the workmen is also paid either by the Rapid Transit Company or its bondsmen.

A MISSIONARY SCHOONER.

One Was Presented to Pastor Russell For Harbor Work.

(From the New York Times, June 4, 1910.)
 The Rev. C. T. Russell of Brooklyn received a surprise on his arrival on the Cunard liner Lusitania yesterday. His friends presented to him a two masted schooner for missionary work in and about this port.

They not only gave him the receipt for the craft, but she was waiting alongside the Cunard pier with many flags flying as a welcome to her new owner. From one mast to another was strung a long canvas bearing the inscription "God is Love" and the name of the schooner, the Angel. There were other inscriptions of a religious character waving in the wind.

ENCOUNTERS A BIG BEAR

Mrs. F. A. Sacchi Has an Exciting Experience in the Woods.

Art Blanchard and Leslie Blanchard left this morning for the Sacchi ranch near Bastendorf's beach to land a big bear and two cubs that gave Mrs. F. A. Sacchi the fright of her life yesterday and caused the Blanchard boys to go armed to the teeth. Yesterday, Mr. Sacchi, brother of F. A. Sacchi, found deer tracks near the house and immediately decided to get some venison. So he took his gun and started on the trail. Mrs. F. A. Sacchi wanted to see the fun and so she took the dog and started across to near where Mr. Sacchi expected to get the deer. En route, she ran across the bear and the two cubs. Of course the dog showed fight and bruin came to the defense of the cubs. The result was that Mrs. Sacchi had to give a good imitation of the "Flight For Life," and before she could find her brother-in-law, the bears had disappeared. Immediately she sent in word to Mr. Sacchi, and as soon as the Blanchard boys heard of it they took for the beach determined to get the old bear and capture the cubs alive.

Fred McCormac returned this morning from Haynes Slough, where yesterday he atnded a fine spike buck—his first deer. He brought it in with him as a trophy of the hunt.

The Catching Inlet country seems to have produced the most deer so far this season. Alfred Maitson, Charles Masters and Charles Bonebrake, all of whom were hunting over the same territory, each brought down two deer the first day the season opened. The six deer were all killed in the same neighborhood along Catching Inlet this side of Summer.

Ren Smith is reported to have killed a fine big buck in the Coos River district.
