

Medium-Weight Fall Suits at $15 $20 $25

A large variety of new medium-weight suits for Fall is now being displayed in this store.

These suits are all heavy enough to wear throughout the entire Winter season.

Every one of the lot is fresh and convincing proof that WE UNDERSELL ALWAYS—a state of affairs brought about by selling mill-to-man, or in other words eliminating the middle man.

Preaches at Cooston.—Rev. A. O. Walker, the Christian Church minister, will preach at Cooston Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Goes to Summer.—Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, State president of the W. C. T. U., left North Bend to-day for Summer, where she will deliver a lecture.

Carpenters at Work.—All of the brick work on the new Chandler building has been finished and the carpenters are now doing their part of the construction work.

Tank Breaks.—The large water tank at Shore Acres, L. J. Simpson's summer home, went to pieces last week. It was the tank which held the water supply for the place.

Stage Passengers.—Bennett Swanton, F. K. Mickey and William Aydt were the passengers on the outgoing Roseburg stage this morning. Those who arrived on the stage from Roseburg were William Hill, J. A. Blatt and F. B. Gilmore.

Contract Let.—The contract for raising the O'Connell apartment building has been awarded to W. L. Bachtel. The building is to be raised thirteen inches to comply with the new street grade and permit of the street being paved.

L. J. Cody Here.—L. J. Cody, of the Cody Lumber Company of Ban-don, is in the city on business. The company is now logging at Lampa Creek on the Coquille River, and is furnishing logs for the George W. Moore Lumber Company.

Will Play Ball.—A benefit baseball game will be held Sunday, August 21st between the Eagles and the Elks. The game will be at the Marshfield diamond.

Hand Injured.—While trying to open a screen door while carrying a butcher knife, Mrs. Wm. Buck let the knife slip cutting an ugly gash in her right hand necessitating five stitches. It is healing nicely and no further trouble is anticipated.

Walked From Bandon.—E. G. Flanagan has returned from a business trip to Bandon and Curry county. He made the trip up from Bandon on foot, walking over the coast road. Leaving Bandon in the morning, he reached South Slough the same evening and made a number of stops on the way.

Brick Lower.—Hugh McLain announces a decline of $4.00 per thousand in the retail price of California brick on the local market. They have been selling at $20.00 per thousand here, but henceforth will be at $16.00 as a result of a big decline in California and arrangements being made for handling them more cheaply.

Married in Tacoma.—News has been received here of the marriage of John Hawthorne Stadden, the Marshfield photographer, to Miss Emma Bell Pease at Tacoma, Wash. The wedding took place July 13th, and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pease have sent out cards announcing the marriage. The couple will be at home to their friends in Marshfield after September 1st.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mrs. H. Truman of North Bend Heights is quite ill.

Ralph Cöke has accepted a position as assistant cashier in the First Trust and Savings Bank.

Miss Vira I. Moody, a Coquille teacher, is the guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Hazer.

Miss Lucia Morgan of Daniels Creek is attending the Institute and is visiting friends here.

Dr. and Mrs. Ira Bartle entertained a large party at their summer home, "Mirac," on South Coos River.

Miss Gray, who has been assisting in the First Trust and Savings Bank, has resigned and leaves for California soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Michaels, Mrs. Henry Kern and baby and Harry Kern are camping on South Coos River.

Miss Nellie Doyle, a Wedderburn teacher, is the guest of Mrs. C. E. Mather, while she is attending the institute.

Richard Cöke, of the Coos Bay Grocery, left yesterday for his summer home on South Coos River, where he will have a month's outing.

FIRES STILL BURNING.

No Extensive Damage Has Been Done So Far.

The fire in the brush and timber between North Bend and Marshfield is still burning. The fire started near the Kinney mill and followed around the gulch and has burned clear up to the county road. It is on ground which was burned over last year so there is no loss of timber. There is another fire in the timber near Empire. Neither fires have done any extensive damage.

Personal Notes

W. J. RUST made a business trip to North Bend this morning.

REV. FATHER CURLEY of North Bend was a Marshfield visitor yesterday.

MRS. I. S. KAUFMAN spent Thursday as the guest of Mrs. W. S. Chandler.

MISS ANNIE SMITH of Daniels Creek was a Marshfield shopper yesterday.

MRS. I. LANDO, who spent a few days up Coos River, returned home yesterday.

WATT SHORT, who has been at Ten Mile for some time past, is in the city for a visit.

THOMAS BARRY was down yesterday and to-day from his summer camp on Coos River.

MRS. W. B. PIPER and little granddaughter of Coos River were Marshfield shoppers to-day.

MRS. WILLIAM MERCHANT and daughter, Miss Helen, were the guests yesterday at the Chandler bungalow.

MISS HELEN DOBLE, who was in the city for a short visit, left yesterday for the Chandler bungalow on Coos River.

J. M. RUSSELL and Miss Mamie Gulovson were the guests Wednesday at the Robert McCann home at North Bend.
