

ARE SLOW TO REGISTER

Voters Not Getting Names on Books As Promptly As Expected.

The registration of those who expect to vote at the fall election is rather slow just now. There was quite a rush of registration for a time, but there are now only occasional voters registering. All of the voters have not yet registered by any means and there will be many who will have to swear in their vote at the polls.

The registration closes September 24th on account of the primaries, and opens again September 25th and the books will continue open until October 25th. Those who do not register before that time will have to have their vote sworn in at the polls.

There is no excuse for any one not being able to register in Marshfield. The blanks are in the hands of at least a dozen different lawyers and notaries. However, those who are taking the registration say that there will without doubt be many who will put it off until they go to the polls.

HAND BADLY CUT.

George Horsfall Meets With An Unfortunate Accident.

George Horsfall, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Horsfall, suffered an unfortunate accident. With his brother he was visiting at the John Yoakam ranch. The boys were helping clear a piece of ground. George was too near one of the others, who accidentally struck him on the left hand with a brush hook. A bad wound was the result. The tendons and nerves were cut and a piece of bone taken out. The boy was taken to the Home Hospital and the severed nerves and tendons joined. There is some fear that the tendons and nerves will not grow together, in which event the thumb and two fingers will be useless. Dr. Horsfall is hopeful that the operation will result successfully.

APPLES MUST BE PERFECT

County Inspector Will Not Allow Diseased Fruit to Be Offered.

Coos county apples offered for sale at the local markets will hereafter be of a high grade or else they cannot be sold. P. M. Hall-Lewis, the county fruit inspector, has delivered an ultimatum, which means that only the best grade of fruit can be sold. It is held that there has been a lot of apples which were affected with a disease put on the market.

The inspector says that these must not be sold and has ordered the dealers to cull them out and offer only the best. The bad ones can be sent back to the grower, but the inspector has said that if the apples are not carefully sorted by the dealers that he will confiscate and destroy entire lots if any bad ones at all are found among the good apples.

One of the local dealers, in speaking of the action of the inspector, said: "It is a good thing. Some of the growers have been selling their best apples to the shippers and then would send in the diseased ones for the local market. This makes a very poor showing for Coos county apples. Under the rules that the inspector has laid down, only good apples can be sold. The result will be that the grower will get a better price for his apples sold to the local dealers and there will be a more choice product on the market for the local consumer. It is the proper thing to do if we want our Coos county apples to become famous."

The Gravensteins will soon be on the market. The crop this year is not going to be especially large, but the quality of the fruit will probably be good. Growers will likely get as high as $1.25 a box from local grocers for the most choice apples.

TWIN BROTHER HERE ON VISIT

Friends of Dr. Houseworth May Mistake Visitor For Marshfield Physician.

Dr. A. L. Houseworth says that his friends who think they are speaking to him on the street will find that they are not. The doctor has visiting him Dr. J. L. Houseworth, his twin brother. The two doctors look very much alike. The visiting brother is a little heavier than the Marshfield doctor, but they have often been mistaken for the same man.

Dr. J. L. Houseworth is from Cashion, Okla. He is here with his wife and son for a three weeks' visit, and while on Coos Bay expects to enjoy some of the good deer hunting.

BOOSTING

Everybody likes a booster. Coos Bay is becoming more and more infected by the germs of the "booster" element. The most excellent improvements all over our city are the results of good "boosting" and are but a beginning of the advancement made possible by scientific "boosters." Let everybody "BOOST."

Above all things, don't stand around in the way with one foot up ready to "kick" on every proposition that is brought up. The only kind of a "kicker" we like is the kicker who kicks at everything that "needs fixing" and kicks and kicks until it's fixed.

The natural outcome of good "boosters" boosting is a bigger, better town with bigger and better places of business and everything else that goes to make a town envied by its neighbors and recognized as a rival of the best in the State.

Do you know or rather did you ever stop to think that you could be a most effective "booster" in the ordinary, every day details of shopping? Well, you can be and every time you patronize a live, progressive, up-to-date establishment you are "boosting." You are making a most emphatic "boost" for better stores and very soon will your demands be recognized and all stores make the effort to approach a proper standard and attain the merit sufficient to entitle them to "trot" in the "free-for-all" entry of the "booster" class.

We have great faith in Coos Bay. Everybody who knows all the conditions has also, no matter whether they live here or elsewhere. COOS BAY DESERVES THE BEST. As a PATRON of COOS BAY STORES, YOU DESERVE THE BEST. When you spend your money here you are entitled to something besides the correct measure and the right change back—you are entitled to the best service—the best equipped, well furnished store with plenty of good light and lots of room. Everything sanitary and clean. Assortments of merchandise as good as cities much larger afford and it doesn't make any difference whether you want to buy a spool of thread or a sealskin coat, whether you wear a calico dress or satin, we believe you are entitled to the same consideration, the same service and can be just as good a "booster."

Now our store isn't perfect, not by a great deal, but we have some very high ideals as to store service, equipment and quality of merchandise sold, and we are keeping up a good hustle to give you just the kind of a store that you can be proud of and knowing of our constant effort to properly "deliver the goods" you can say to your neighbor as we say to you.
