SPECIAL MEETING.

There will be a mass meeting of the Christian people and temperance workers at the Presbyterian Church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Matters concerning the union meetings in September will be presented. This is important. A large attendance is urged and confidently expected.

BOXING BOUT HERE AUG. 20

Al. Neill and Jess Day to Meet Next Saturday Night—Good Preliminaries.

Al. Neill wires that he will be here on the M. F. Plant to meet Jess Day in a twenty-round bout at the Marshfield skating rink next Saturday night, August 20th. He has been training at San Francisco so that he will only have to put on the finishing touches on his arrival here.

Manager John Herron is anticipating an unusually fine event this time as Neill will make 160 pounds for Day. Day has been in training for a long time and is said to have improved greatly in boxing, especially on defense, which was his weakest point in his previous bout with Neill.

Mr. Herron this afternoon is arranging for the preliminaries and expects to put on something a little better than he has ever been able to offer.

Reserved seats for the boxing exhibition will be $3 each and general admission $2. Seats can be reserved at the Bell Cord.

Take your SUNDAY DINNER at The CHANDLER. Special menu and ORCHESTRA. RESERVE tables for PARTIES by PHONE.

A BAY VIEW DINING PARLOR ON WATER FRONT.

Unique and Attractive Addition to the Java Coffee House Built for Carnival Week.

One of Coos Bay's carnival attractions is the tent dining parlors constructed in the rear of the Java Coffee House, Marshfield's most famous eating place. The Java Coffee House has won a reputation for doing things different and this bay view dining parlor, where you can sit at neat, clean tables and watch the boat races and the motor boats while enjoying one of the best cooked meals in the city is in line with Hank Wells way of doing things. The Java is famous for its fine cooking. Look it up and enjoy a meal in the most unique restaurant on Coos Bay.

As an accommodation to visitors and regular patrons the Java will be open for the next two Sundays, as well as all night and week days. Make your plans to have your Sunday dinner in the tent dining room on the water front.
