shape of the letter "F." Eighty-six persons ate at this common table. There is a mystic symbol connected with the letter "F." Ask Duncan Ferguson about it! After dinner, the men, women and children all joined enthusiastically in the sports of the day. It was not decided who was most expert at casting the horse shoe, although several men were superior. One of the most exciting events was the ladies' nail-driving contest. There were 15 entries in this event. Mrs. Scalfie and Mrs. Squire tied for first honors, having driven six nails in 13 seconds.

The other events were as follows:
 50-Yard Dash, open to boys—Teddy Dow won.
 50-Yard Dash, open to small boys—Cecil La Chapelle won.
 50-Yard dash, open to unmarried girls—Florence Rooke won.
 75-Yard dash, for married ladies—First group of five, Mrs. Dow, winner; second group of five, Mrs. Street won. Winner of the finals, Mrs. Dow.
 40-Yard dash, for little girls—Lillian Seaman.
 Sack race, for boys under thirteen—Teddy Dow won.
 Grand race, open to all boys and girls—Will Horton won.

There were swimming exhibitions, but no decisions were made in these. Several of the boys and girls have acquired the art of swimming very gracefully. On the whole, the picnic was a decided success. One man from the neighboring church of North Bend declared that he had had a "glorious" day with the young boys and old boys and all of the other young people. The Alice H. left the grounds for the return trip at 6 P. M.

Monday evening at the high school building at North Bend the Mothers' & Teachers' Club and the Board of Education gave a reception to the members of the teachers' institute now in session. The high school orchestra, assisted by Herbert Sumner, opened the program with one of their usual pleasing selections. A quartette consisting of Messrs. Marlon Reynolds, Ralph Coke, Archie Taylor and Prof. Ball rendered a selection which was heartily encored, and they were brought back to sing another number. Prof. Raab delivered a cordial address of welcome in behalf of the citizens of North Bend, following which a quartette composed of Misses Helen Mende, Edith Raab, Ellen Anderson and Edith Alger sang in an artistic manner and gave a whistling selection upon being recalled. Supt. Bunch responded to the address of welcome, thanking the people for their kindness and hospitality.

Miss Cora Walker of Bandon, who has been attending the institute at North Bend, is a guest of Miss Maude Reed in that city.

Miss Alice Tickell of Medford, sister of Mrs. G. L. Hall, and her friend, Miss Amy Kent, also of Medford, are guests at the home of Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.

Miss Hattie Hall of Pendleton, Ore., who has been visiting her brother, Rev. G. L. Hall, returned today from an outing on the Bandon beach.

Miss Mable Clare Millis will leave Sunday for New York, for a few months' stay.

J. E. Lyons and wife and son, Don, have returned home from a visit at Portland and San Francisco.

J. H. Stadden and bride arrived here to-day from Washington to make their home here. Late yesterday and this morning, Mr. Stadden's friends got busy and what they didn't do in "fixing up" Mr. Stadden's home, none of them could think of. They were given a warm welcome by the "Jollers."

E. D. McArthur and J. W. Hildenbrand and their families, who have been camping at Ten Mile, have returned home. They called their camp on the lakes "Pill-Fiz," suggestive of the businesses in which the two gentlemen are engaged. Mr. McArthur is in the drug business and Mr. Hildenbrand manufactures soda water.

Mrs. E. Mingus is entertaining this afternoon in honor of Miss Stella O'Connell, who is soon to be married. The affair is a bridge luncheon. Only a few friends are in attendance.

On Tuesday, August 9th, occurred the annual picnic of the Christian Bible School. At 8.30 A. M. sixty-five persons embarked on the steamer Flyer and sailed for Charleston Bay, where the day was spent in surf bathing, climbing, sightseeing and general picnicking. Part of the crowd went to the government lighthouse; others climbed to the summit of Coos Head and watched the Breakwater and other boats sail out over the bar. For many younger members of the party this was the first day spent on the beach and was very interesting and enjoyable. The weather was perfect; no wind, but a quiet, gentle breeze, and the trip was in every way pleasant and a perfect success. About 5.30 P. M. the crowd, tired but happy, sailed for home, singing "Throw Out the Life Line," "Throw a Line" and many other beautiful and soul-inspiring songs.

Last Monday, Mrs. J. T. McCormac entertained at an informal luncheon at their summer home on South Coos River. Among her guests were Mrs. W. S. Chandler, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, Miss Helen Doble, Mrs. A. J. French and Rev. B. Dorrance of Eugene.

Misses Madge Barry and Frances Williams are spending a few days at Ten Mile.

Mrs. Eva Gamml and Mrs. L. J. White returned this week from a two week's outing at Ten Mile.

During the past week, the Mothers' and Teachers' Club of North Bend assisted by the North Bend school board assisted materially in entertaining the teachers in attendance at the Coos County Institute, which had been in session here. Monday evening, they tendered a reception at the North Bend high school which proved a very enjoyable affair. About seventy-five were in attendance and light refreshments were served. Thursday noon, the club gave a luncheon at the high school for the teachers. The institute will meet in Marshfield next year.

Mayor L. J. Simpson and wife of North Bend, and Miss Isabella Sterns, Mrs. Simpson's daughter, who is here from Portland for a visit, are spending a few days at Ten Mile.

Two christenings took place at the Episcopal Church last Wednesday evening, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. Samuel Dorrance of Ashland, who held services at the church last Sunday. Sylvia Lorraine Ballinger, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ballinger, was christened. Mrs. William Horsfall was godmother. Another who was baptised was Mrs. Lucy Spafford-Floyd, wife of Stephen Floyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner have returned from an outing at Golden Falls.

Miss Cora Walker of Bandon, who has been attending the institute at North Bend, is a guest of Miss Maude Reed in that city.

Miss Alice Tickell of Medford, sister of Mrs. G. L. Hall, and her friend, Miss Amy Kent, also of Medford, are guests at the home of Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.

Miss Hattie Hall of Pendleton, Ore., who has been visiting her brother, Rev. G. L. Hall, returned today from an outing on the Bandon beach.

Miss Mable Clare Millis will leave Sunday for New York, for a few months' stay.

CITY IS READY FOR CARNIVAL

Elaborate Decorations Prepared and Fine Electrical Illumination at Night.

Marshfield took on a holiday appearance to-day and more than the usual Saturday crowd of people was in the city. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the carnival Monday and the business people were all expecting a big crowd in the city all week.

The decoration of the city has been completed. The committee having the work in charge sent to San Francisco and rented a large number of flags which have been hung all over the business portion of the city. Every business house did some decorating, red and white bunting and flags being used. Red and white are the carnival colors.

The electrical display at night will be quite elaborate and will surpass anything ever before attempted in Marshfield. The new curb posts which have been put in by the property owners are completed and in addition to these strings of electric lights have been extended all over the business section. The city at night will be as light as day and will present a very attractive appearance. A considerable sum of money was expended on the decorations and illuminations and visitors to the city will certainly see Marshfield in her best dress.

The arrival of the Breakwater today attracted a big crowd as it was known that the street shows were to arrive. The vessel was at North Bend for a long time and arrived at the Marshfield dock at noon. The Breakwater came in decorated with all of her flags in honor of the occasion.
