WILL LOCATE FIFTY FAMILIES FROM MONTANA IN COOS

J. O. WILSON.

F. B. TICHENOR.

J. O. Wilson of Montana is in the city to look over the county with a view of locating some people here. Mr. Wilson represents fifty families in Montana, who are considering coming to Coos county to live. They decided to pick out one of their number to investigate and Mr. Wilson was chosen to come to Coos county and look it over and see what were the prospects here. F. B. Tichenor, well known here, is acting as Mr. Wilson's escort while he is in Coos county. Mr. Tichenor will show him everything there is to see and the report to the Montana families will doubtless be a good one.

NEWS FROM ALL OVER COOS COUNTY

COQUILLE NEWS.

Facts of Interest Taken From the Coquille Valley Sentinel.

George Hite and family will leave the first of next week for Los Angeles where they will spend the winter and perhaps locate permanently.

The new opera chairs for the M. E. Church South arrived this week and will be installed some time during the union meetings which began at the Masonic Hall last night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mitchell, formerly residing in this city but recently living at Monmouth, returned the first of the week to Coquille and will make their future home here.

R. E. Doan of Los Angeles is in the Coquille section looking over the country with a view of making extensive investments. Mr. Doan expresses himself as highly pleased with the natural advantages of this country.

J. W. Tollman last week moved his effects to the old W. T. Miller ranch in Fishtrap. Mr. Tollman is interested in the Pulaski coal property of which the Miller ranch is a part and will thus be in close touch with any operations which may hereafter be instituted at the property.

Mrs. Frank Burkholder departed the first of the week for Portland, where she will purchase a new line of millinery to replace the stock burned the fourth of last month. Mrs. B. will put in a thoroughly up-to-date stock and will be prepared to furnish anything in the millinery line to her many friends.

The plate glass for the First National Bank, to replace that which was broken by the explosion of the boiler at the local mill recently, arrived Tuesday and workmen put the same in position this week. Two large plates were replaced, one 80 by 120 inches and the other 92 by 96 inches.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Wealthy Cattleman Found Dead in a Lake.

(By Associated Press) ARKANSAS CITY, August 17.—With two loads of buckshot in his body and two rolls of barbed wire fastened to portions of his clothing, William Scheubert, a wealthy cattle raiser, was found late yesterday in Isaacs Lake, fifteen miles from here. Scheubert when last seen Friday had $600 in cash in his possession.

ALL NIGHT SERVICE.

For the accommodation of carnival visitors, we have started a twenty-four-hour-a-day boat service between North Bend and Marshfield. Boats leave either city every little while and afford one of the most pleasant trips on the Bay. Remember, boats all day and all night.
J. A. O'KELLY, Proprietor.

BANDON BRIEFS.

News of That City Taken From the Bandon Recorder.

Arthur Ellingson and wife of Coquille were Bandon visitors the first of the week.

S. D. Barrows and Charley and Clyde Barrows killed a fine bear out at Circle City, Tuesday.

Misses Myrtle and Pearl Axtell left for Lakeport this week, and expect to remain for some time.

C. R. Moore returned on the Field from Berkeley, Calif., where he had been visiting his mother for a few days.

J. S. Loveall left Monday for Portland and The Dalles to visit his daughters. He expects to be gone about two or three weeks.

Geo. W. Moore left on the Fifield Sunday for his home at Berkeley, Cal., where he will remain with his family for a couple of weeks.

Capt. Emery, inspector of the life saving service for this district, was here the first of the week and found everything in fine condition. He went from here to Coos Bay and the Sluslaw.

The first load of lumber from the new Bear Creek mill was brought to Bandon this week. This is a fine new mill and will be a good addition to the business interests of this section of the country.

Steve Gallier returned on the Field from Byron Hot Springs, Cal., where he had been taking baths for his rheumatism. He is looking some better and says he is feeling considerably improved.

L. J. Davison returned on the Elizabeth from California, where he had been investigating some orange land with the idea of buying if it suited him, but found nothing that looked good to him, and says he is now better satisfied with Coos county than ever.

WILL LIVE IN OREGON.

Eastern Man Interested in Coos County Will Return.

BANDON, Ore., August 18.—S. E. Pearce left on the Field for his home at Port Huron, Mich., after a few days' business and pleasure visit in Bandon. Mr. Pearce is a stockholder both in the Cody Lumber Company and the George W. Moore Lumber Company, and is at present Register of Deeds of St. Clair county, Mich. While on his western trip this time, he bought a fine fruit farm at Roseburg, Ore., and will probably move west after January 1, 1911, at which time his term of office expires. Mr. Pearce has held the office of Register of Deeds for twelve years and will not be a candidate for re-election.
