

Stop! Look! Listen!

New Fall Suits

The best ever at $15, $20, $25

When you reach our store stop and look at the display we make of Men's $15, $20 and $25 Suits. Then listen to what we have to say in regard to them.

They are made of absolutely pure wool fabrics. The collars are all hand felled, which is the vital point in fit. The inside of the coat is made about twice as good as is the case with the ordinary Suit. This insures the shape-retaining quality.

We couldn't give values like these if we didn't eliminate the middleman entirely by our mill-to-man way of doing business, which means that we take the cloths directly from the woolen mills and make them up ourselves in a perfectly appointed and modern factory.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
 OREGON—Fair to-night and Saturday; cooler interior and west portion Saturday.

Preaching at Cooston.—There will be preaching services at Cooston Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by A. O. Walker, Christian minister of Marshfield.

Are Married.—Olaf Bjorke and Miss Eileen Sjogren were married on August 18th at the Lutheran parsonage in North Bend Heights. Rev. L. Rasmussen officiated. The couple will make their home on Coos River.

Hurt Hand.—Sam Marsden is suffering from an injury to the middle finger of his right hand, which got caught in the moving picture machine the other evening, almost cutting it off. A number of stitches were taken in it and it is hoped to save it.

Union Meeting.—Another union meeting of the churches participating in the coming evangelistic campaign will be held this evening at the Methodist Church in this city. Rev. A. O. Walker will lead the meeting. A cordial invitation to all is extended. Last night the meeting in the Baptist Church was well attended.

Is Better.—Mrs. Eva Pennock, who underwent an operation at the Home Hospital a few days ago is getting along nicely. This is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coke to undergo a serious surgical operation within a comparatively short time, the other two girls, Miss Mildred and Miss Bessie Coke, having been operated on for appendicitis.

Land Going Up.—The big advance in Coos county land values was shown yesterday when Hope Brothers of North Inlet refused an offer of $21,000 for their North Slough ranch. The offer was made by F. B. Waite of Roseburg who is here. Eight years ago Hope Brothers bought the place from Geo. Beale for $3,500. Until recently it was considered merely a good snipe hunting preserve. Considerable of it is in the drifting sand section and the balance is swamp land which is now considered very valuable for cranberry raising.

Hay For Haines.—The Nann Smith to-day brought in forty tons of fine hay for A. T. Haines, the hay, feed and flour dealer of Marshfield.

RODE ON A TRUCK.

Marshal Carter Gives Plain Drunk a Free Ride.

Marshal Carter arrested a man to-day on the wharf. The man was only a plain drunk, but the arrest was rather spectacular and amused the people on the street. The drunk was so helpless that he could not walk and Carter borrowed a truck from a grocery store. It was difficult to keep the man on the truck, but after several attempts got comfortably seated and Carter lost no time in hurrying him down the asphalt to the city jail.
