THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair to-night and Sunday; cooler in east portion.

Band Concert.—The Coos Bay band will give a concert this evening on the street. A good program of music has been arranged.

Bout in Astoria.—Jess Day will leave early next week for Astoria, where a week from Monday night he is scheduled for a twenty-round go with "Sailor" Burke, who recently worsted Al. Neil there.

Made Good Flight.—The balloon went up again to-day at noon. It was entirely out of sight for a time. The parachute drop was a fine one and landed its passenger in the bay opposite the depot and was picked up by a boat.

From Curry County.—Among the visitors from Curry county who are here to attend the carnival are Gus Johnson, Oscar Miller and Charles Doyle, all of Wedderburn. They made the trip up on the launch Coast. Mrs. Jerry Huntley and daughter of Gold Beach are also here and are guests of Harry Huntley of North Bend.

Leslie Returns.—Dr. Geo. W. Leslie has returned from a summer vacation spent at San Francisco and Bandon. "The wise ones," when they saw him coming up the street with a lady's grip in his hand nodded their heads knowingly with the air, "I told you so," but so far no one had been able to find the bride which he was expected to bring back. While at Bandon the doctor went hunting and killed one deer.

Fruit Goes Fast.—Before breakfast this morning, F. S. Dow had sold twenty boxes of peaches to Marshfield women. At 4 o'clock, he was called out of bed by the phone by Mrs. Wheeler, who wanted to be sure and get in on the low priced fruit. All forenoon, there was a bargain day rush and the fruit was all sold. Owing to the big supply on hand and the fact that it was ripe, it would not keep long and a very low price was made to move it.

CARNIVAL CLOSSES.

This is Last Night of the Week's Entertainment. This is the last day of the carnival and to-night the week's entertainment will close. It is expected that there will be a big crowd on the streets. Most of the people with the carnival company will go up Coos River to-morrow for an outing and rest. They have chartered three launches. Until after to-day's business is checked up it will be impossible to tell anything about the finances or how the carnival association came out.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

(From the Roseburg News.)
In yesterday's issue we published an open letter to the citizens of Roseburg concerning the Coos Bay Traction Corporation, which proposes to build an electric railway from Marshfield to this city, and from here southward to Grants Pass. Mr. Averill, president of the corporation, has identified himself with this corporation for the sole reason that it is a legitimate business proposition that appeals to him as one that will open to commerce one of the richest sections of the country in the West, and one which has vast possibilities both for the capitalist and the man who tills the soil or conducts local enterprise. Every man in this city knows or ought to know, what an advantage a railway from here to tide water at Coos Bay will be for Roseburg and the entire tributary country. For a decade the improvement has been hoped for. The business interests of the city are now asked to co-operate with the company in finding a route by which the road may enter the city, the surveys having already been completed to within a short distance of Roseburg, and Mr. Averill makes the promise that actual work will be commenced on the Roseburg end of the road within thirty days, provided the citizens of this place give the enterprise their support and co-operation. The whole proposition is one of extreme fairness, and the only one that yet come before the people of this section of the State where the investment is absolutely guaranteed. The News urges the business interests of the city to stand together and give this proposed electric road substantial backing. Any investment that is made toward securing the road, that all are agreed will be of inestimable value to the whole of Southern Oregon, will bring to the investor many times the original amount in the increased value of property holdings and volume of business, to say nothing of the worth of the bonds securing the first outlay of cash. This is Roseburg's opportunity, nor should it be allowed to pass, because with the commencement of actual work on this railroad to the coast will be inaugurated a remarkable era in the history of this city, following which increase of population and business will be most marked and continuous.

HOLD MEETING SUNDAY.

There will be a booster meeting at the Coos Bay Tabernacle on Sunday evening. Local men will address the gathering and special music will be rendered.

CARD OF THANKS TO THE PUBLIC.

I hereby extend my thanks to the public and individuals who have favored me with their kind patronage since I have been in business on Coos Bay. I have retired from business and hope you will still patronize and extend the same kindness to my successor, whom I can cheerfully recommend as being thoroughly competent and an up-to-date milliner.
MRS. JOHN H. SOMERS.

MITCHELL MAKES STATEMENT.

Owner of The Tag Issues Answer to Commodore Bartle.

EDITOR TIMES: I suppose it was my duty as a public spirited citizen to lay down, but how was I expected to know that the committee had a right to change the race after it was started and how was the otherwise enlightened public of Coos Bay, who only know the boats as they see them on the bay, supposed to know that The Tag with her 5 to 6 horsepower tied up in a 75-lb. engine had the advantage with a 20-minute Piker, 14-minute Navajo handicap on her and a 13-minute handicap on The Auto.

We are willing to concede that the Judges had a hard decision to make when they had to split a second. Stop to think, a quarter of a second isn't long.

If I can ever make The Tag show another spurt of speed equal to that shown in the Judge's decision of a quarter second, I propose to challenge the Wolf and give her a handicap.

J. W. MITCHELL.

FAST BOUT IS ON TONIGHT

You will regret it if you miss the twenty-round go between Al. Niel and Jess Day at the Marshfield Skating Rink to-night. Each has been promising his supporters that he will make a little better showing than he has ever made on the Bay, which insures something real classy. Both are in excellent trim, Neil being down to 160 but without injuring his chances. Jack Durrand of North Bend and Al. Happy will be one of the preliminaries. Another good one is also being arranged.

"Senator" Baines of San Francisco will referee.

If you haven't secured your tickets yet, you had better do so early as there promises to be a big turnout. Tickets are on sale at the Bell Cord.
