of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Mrs. Nichol is a talented musician and has a wide circle of friends in Portland. While in this city she lived with her parents in their home on Willamette Heights. Mr. Nichol is a business man of Los Angeles and it is in that city that Mr. and Mrs. Nichol will make their home."

Governor Bowerman, who visited this city early in the week was entertained at dinner by C. T. Hockett, Henry Huggins and A. H. Derbyshire.

R. M. Jennings, general manager of the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company, left this week for Leicester, Mass., where he will visit at his old home for a few weeks. Mrs. Jennings, who has been spending the summer there, will return with him to Coos Bay the latter part of August. They will reside in West Marshfield, where Mr. Jennings has fitted up a home on Eleventh street near Central avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Kaufman left this week for San Francisco, where she will spend a few weeks visiting friends and attending the teachers' institute, specializing in domestic science, which she will teach in the Marshfield high school next year.

Mrs. J. W. Ingram, who has been spending the summer with relatives at Spokane and vicinity, is expected home in a couple of weeks.

T. H. Barry and family of Empire have broken up their summer camp on South Coos River and returned to their homes.

Friday, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey was hostess to a small but delightful dinner party at the Chandler, complimentary to Mrs. Frank Rogers of South Coos River, who has been spending several days in town as the guest of Miss Mamie Mahoney and Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and other friends. Among those invited by Mrs. Morrissey were Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, Mrs. A. E. Neff, Mrs. C. E. Nicholson, Mrs. A. T. Haines and Mrs. Rogers.

Friday, J. W. Bennett and wife were host and hostess at a delightful picnic of the members of the Marshfield Episcopal Church and the Sisters of Bethany complimentary to Bishop and Mrs. Scadding of the Oregon diocese of that denomination who are spending a short time on the Bay. The launch Express was chartered for the day and while the carnival detained many who would have probably been in attendance, the event proved a most delightful one. The first stop was at Piper's Grove, where a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed around a bon fire. Later a trip was made to Allegany. During the day, Bishop Scadding, whose hobby is photography, and in which, by the way he is quite expert, especially on scenery, secured a number of fine views. Late in the afternoon the party returned home, tired but elated over the day's outing. Among those who were in the party were Bishop and Mrs. Scadding, Archdeacon and Mrs. Horsfall, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., and children, R. F. Williams and family, Mrs. J. S. Coke and children, Mrs. J. M. Upton and children, Miss Maude Reed, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, Miss Doris Sengstacken, Mrs. W. T. Merchant and children, Mrs. Emma Nasburg, Miss Hazel McGraw, Mrs. Colby Perry, Mrs. W. A. Toyo and daughter Catherine, Mrs. B. H. McPherson and son, and Miss Ella Brown.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. C. R. Peck was hostess to the largest party of the week in Marshfield. Greens predominated in the decorations and a multitude of flowers produced a most delightful effect. During the afternoon Mrs. Peck was assisted by Miss Charlotte Murch, Mrs. F. K. Gettins and Mrs. Dorsey Kretzer. Cards were followed by refreshments. Mrs. Henry Sengstacken won the prize for points, Mrs. W. T. Merchant the honor prize and Mrs. J. L. Houseworth of Cashlon, Oklahoma, the special prize. Among those invited by Mrs. Peck were the following: Mrs. R. T. Street, Mrs. Colby Perry, Mrs. Albert H. Powers, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. Geo. W. Loggie, Miss Cora May Montgomery, Mrs. J. V. Smeaton, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey, Mrs. W. E. Warwick, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Mrs. E. S. Bargett, Mrs. F. K. Gettins, Mrs. Ward M. Blake, Mrs. W. C. Bradley, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mrs. M. H. Bliven, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. F. E. Hague, Mrs. P. A. Sandberg, Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait, Mrs. Wm.

Grimes, Mrs. Chas. Van Duya, Mrs. S. Kaufman, Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, Miss Elizabeth Kaufmann, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. J. L. Houseworth, Mrs. Dorsey Kretzer, Mrs. E. W. Kammerer, Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. C. E. Nicholson, Mrs. H. Sengstacken, Mrs. E. Mings, Mrs. J. M. Upton, Mrs. D. Y. Stafford, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger, Mrs. J. T. Sullivan and Miss Charlotte Murch.

Virginia Frances Clarke gave a party Monday in celebration of her tenth birthday. The decorations and refreshments were in pink. Various games were played. Those invited were Ruth Golden, Clara Ferguson, Lillian Seaman, Mary Louise McArthur, Florence Powers, Doris Sengstacken, Dorothy Horton, Helen Merchant, Esther Sullivan, Helen Rees, Edith Ayre, Mary Metlin, Helen Gulovsen, Marie Seaman, Elsie Thies, Adelaide and Virginia Clarke, Margaret Powers and Perry King Clarke.

Geoffrey R. Tully was married recently in Portland. He is quite well known to many here as he was in Marshfield at the time the Courtney mill was being constructed. Regarding the wedding, the Oregonian has the following to say: "Mr. Tully was married to Miss Josephine Stabler. A. A. Courtney, formerly of this city, was best man."

Mr. and Mrs. Shelbrede entertained at a dinner party at their home in Plat B, Thursday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reed of Alaska, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell of Beaver Hill, Mrs. J. C. Sullivan of Bandon and Mrs. F. K. Gettins.

A most important social event of the week was the carnival ball Monday night. The ball followed the crowning of the queen, Miss Genevieve F. Tellefson, who with her attendants, Miss Evelyn Mock and Miss Pearl Riggs, were guests of honor at the ball. The music was good and about 300 persons were in attendance. The dance was arranged by the queen's committee composed of E. W. Kammerer, G. W. Kaufman, W. S. McFarland and Edgar McDaniel. The details of the dance, however, were carried out by Mr. Kammerer.

Miss Evelyn Anderson, who is spending the summer in the East, is now at Prince Edward Island visiting relatives there. She will probably remain there a month and then will visit at other points in the East for several weeks, so that it will probably be about November 1st before she returns to the Bay.

Mrs. J. S. Coke was hostess at an informal luncheon Monday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. F. B. Waite of Sutherlin, who was visiting in Marshfield. The guests were largely old acquaintances of Mrs. Waite, and the gathering proved a most enjoyable one.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Houston of Bandon visited in Marshfield during the week.

Miss Clara Busse of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Haines, has left for her home.

Oliver Huston of Portland, who has been visiting Will and Ben Chandler, has left for his home. While on Coos Bay Mr. Huston spent two weeks' hunting and was a guest at the Chandler bungalow on Coos River.

Mrs. D. C. McCarty was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Women's Mission Circle of the Baptist Church. "Negro Progress" is the present study and the program for the afternoon. "The Freed Man," was arranged by Mrs. G. LeRoy Hall, the topic being ably presented by Mesdames Doll, Rose, Wheeler, Marsh and Miss Graham. A vocal solo by Mrs. Wesley Smith was much enjoyed. An afternoon of pleasure and profit closed with a social hour, followed by dainty and appetizing refreshments, Mrs. Chas. McCullough assisting the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Wheeler, Swanson, Wesley Smith, Rose, Clausen, Marsh, Lewis, Doll, McCullough, Palmquist, Wheat, G. L. Hall and McCarty, Misses Graham, Gulovsen, Edeva Wheeler and Whitford Hall.

Mrs. A. J. French, who has been visiting at the home of her parents here for several days will leave tomorrow on the Nann Smith for her home at Orland, Calif.

MUST DEFEAT THE ASSEMBLY

Republican Voters Have Important Duty to Perform as American Citizens.

PORTLAND, Ore., August 17.—Former Judge Henry E. McGinn, who has just returned from a three months' visit in Southern California, has begun the fulfillment of his promise that he would have something to say about the political situation, particularly in regard to the election of judges to the Supreme bench and the Circuit bench of Multnomah county. He also pays his respects to the assembly movement. Incidentally he tells something of the political situation in California.

"I have been for the last three weeks in Southern California, where I went to visit my father and mother," said the judge. "Whilst there I incidentally paid some attention to California politics."

"Have they not assemblies to name a ticket for the Republicans in California?" was asked Mr. McGinn.

"Oh, no; bless you, no," was the response. "The Southern Pacific Railroad in California knows a great deal better than to resort to that ruse. The Southern Pacific people did attempt in the city election in Los Angeles last March to hold an assembly and name a ticket, but when the Republican voters of Los Angeles got a chance at that ticket in the primaries, all that was left of it was the blank spaces on the ballot without any X marks after the names. Oh, no! the Southern Pacific Company will never attempt the assembly any more. But the surprising thing of it all to me is, that the Oregon assemblyites will have to learn this lesson for themselves; but it has always been so, the reactionary or ultra tory never learns anything from the experience of others."

Old Leaders Absent. "But let me clean up what I have to say about this Oregon assembly while I am about it. There were a good many of my old friends, of the Republican machine, who used to work with me in the old days in the machine shop, present at this assembly, but the old leaders were absent, when there was anything 'ticklish' to be done, the leaders would not be present, but would send some one to represent them. But in addition to my old Republican chums, I saw a lot of others who used to work in the Democratic machine shop when I worked in the Republican shop in the old days, notably George W. Stapleton and S. B. Huston, who were candidates for the office of chairman of the late assembly, Mr. Stapleton being chosen chairman, I believe.

"Their rise in the Republican party was pretty rapid to advance them over the heads of the old veterans of the party to the office of chairman. Funny, isn't it, that they who assert, as our friends of the assembly are so fond of doing, that the reason and the chief reason for the calling of an assembly was to prevent the control of the Republican party passing from the true, tried and faithful ones—the old guard, so to speak—as it was being done under the direct primary without the aid of the assembly, should as their first act signalize their coming together by selecting as their only two candidates for the presiding officer, Democrats?"

"Are you going on the stump?" was asked Mr. McGinn. "Yes, I am," he replied. "I was connected actively with the Republican machine from January, 1886, until May of 1898, when I broke with them. Probably they will say, when they 'kicked me out.' Well, let it go at that. In April, of 1899, I commenced to take an inventory of myself. The result was that I refused to go into the campaign of 1898. I know of my own knowledge every political event of any importance which happened to the Republican party in that time.

Knows Ins and Outs. "I also know, as a part of the historical knowledge of the country, every even, which happened of importance in the Republican party of Oregon from the time the 'machine' imported the 'red shirt plug uglies' in 1870 down to the present time. Such incidents as happened during that time, necessary to illustrate the truths of to-day, will be used by me. The political lives of men and parties will be used to throw light on the events of this day. My purpose is to add another testimonial, if indeed testimonials were necessary, to add such an authority to the truth proclaimed to the world by the god-like Carlyle in his 'French Revolution.' "This day, sentence of death is pronounced on shams; judgment of

ELKS AND EAGLES CROSS BATS

Now we hear the Eagle scream,
And then we see their baseball team.
C. C. Going steals a base
And puts the Eagles in the race.
McCurcheon raps for bases two
And wonders what Bill Holland will do.
Charlie Howard gone to barn
At one time had a pitcher's arm.
Jimmie Cowan good at need,
Is a baseball kid with plenty of speed.
Denning, Frank, so thin and tall,
Is pretty sure to find the ball.
While Snyder, Sneddon or some more,
Will be right there to swell the score.
