Personal Notes

S. D. PULFORD of Myrtle Point was in Marshfield Saturday.

MRS. FRANK ROGERS of Coos River is visiting in the city to-day.

MRS. TOM HALL is reported ill at her home in West Marshfield.

C. C. CARTER and wife of Myrtle Point were Marshfield visitors Saturday.

B. L. SPRING and family of North Yakima, Wash., are in the city visiting C. F. McGeorge and family.

THOMAS HICKING of Prosper is at Mercy Hospital in North Bend, where he submitted to a surgical operation.

JAMES VAIRD, who has been visiting Julius Larson and family on North Inlet, has returned to his home in San Francisco.

STEVE GALLIER of Bandon came up to attend the closing festivities of the carnival and be one of the guests of honor at the Elks-Eagle baseball game yesterday.

MISS EMMA SHERWOOD and Miss Esther Johnson of Coquille are in the city on their way home from the home of Stephen Rogers on Coos River, where they have been visiting.

MR. and MRS. HICKING have returned from San Francisco, where they went with their fourteen-year-old daughter who is suffering with spinal trouble. They learned from specialists that the little girl can be cured.

CELL IRELAND left this morning for Ollalla, where he will spend a month or so at his old home. He was thinking seriously of putting on a carnival there for the benefit of the Camas people and the rest of the "Tickle Grass" section, providing it won't make "the simple life" too strenuous for him.

Lyon is coming.

CLASS IS CONFIRMED

Services Held at Episcopal Church at Which Bishop Officiates.

Bishop Scadding confirmed a class of fifteen at the Episcopal Church in this city at the Sunday morning service. In the afternoon the Bishop was at Empire to hold service. Evening service was held last night in Marshfield.

Bishop Scadding left this morning for Gardiner, and after a visit at that place will go on to Portland. Saturday night Dr. and Mrs. William Horsfall gave a dinner party in honor of the Bishop and his wife.

Dean Horsfall left this morning for Bandon, where he will be for a week.

INJURED ON VESSEL.

A. O. Gordell, a sailor on the steamer Nann Smith, was injured in loading the vessel. The loading crane broke and the man was struck. Several ribs were broken. He is at Mercy Hospital, but is getting along nicely to-day.

LEMONS WERE BAD.

Inspector Hall-Lewis Orders Quantity of Fruit Destroyed.

Several boxes of California lemons have been declared defective and ordered destroyed by Mr. Hall-Lewis, they being affected with the San Jose scale and other evils. As the supply of lemons in town is short, this may result in a scarcity before another shipment arrives.

$10.00 REWARD.

The above reward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of three strings of flags and streamers and flag decorations from the queen's stand, stolen by unknown parties Saturday or Sunday night. Will pay same reward for information leading to apprehension of the thieves.

E. K. JONES, Chairman Decoration Committee.
